A "BOREHAM" VOLUME

is always an acceptable gift.

Frank Boreham has written twenty-two volumes, seventeen of which consist of racy and unconventional religious essays, full of good and unexpected things. He has the rare gift of penetrating to the heart of familiar texts and proverbial sayings, and every essay is an example of this genius for getting at the depths behind what we call the commonplace.

Mr. Boreham's first volume, "The Luggage of Life," was first issued sixteen years ago, but is still as popular as ever, fifteen editions having been called for.

His five volumes on great texts are unique studies of transformed lives, shaped by an arresting text.

You can get copies of his works from any bookseller, and the publishers will be pleased to send a full list.

New Light on Wesley

DR. J. S. SIMON'S STANDARD WORKS.

John Wesley and the Religious Societies.

Dr. Simon has given many years to the study of Methodist origins, and has gained a high reputation for his writings on the Evangelical Revival. Experts will be surprised at the freshness and vividness of the study, and will find that many obscure points are cleared up by this master of research.

John Wesley and the Methodist Societies.

In the present volume Dr. Simon continues the record from the formation of the first Methodist Society, with the same ample knowledge and ripe judgment. The interest of the study grows as Wesley sets out on his mission as the Evangelist of England.

John Wesley and the Advance of Methodism.

In this third volume Dr. Simon treats the eventful years between 1747 and 1756, during which the organisation of Methodism took its essential characteristics. Wesley is portrayed not with the perfervid enthusiasm of a partisan, but with the insight of a lover and the scrupulous fidelity of an historian.

John Wesley, The Master Builder.

Dr. Simon's earlier volumes have obtained wide recognition as the most complete and authoritative record of the various stages of the Evangelical Revival. His latest volume, "John Wesley, The Master Builder," covers the period from 1757 to 1772 when Methodism became firmly rooted in this country and began its triumphant progress in America. The story is profoundly interesting and no one who wishes to understand Wesley or the Methodist Church can afford to overlook it.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Q. II. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of our Foreign Missions?

A. 1. The Conference re-affirms its statement of a year ago, that "It is greatly to be desired that the Missionary Society should be enabled to meet more adequately the world-call which is to be heard so clearly at the present day, and that there should be no necessity for special appeals at the end of each financial year."

The Conference expresses its gratitude to all who by their gifts and prayers have sustained the work, and to those who by additional gifts met the deficiency at the end of 1927. It learns with much concern that the Committee has felt compelled to inquire of the missionaries abroad in what ways they could reduce the work if, under compulsion, the grants in aid were reduced by ten per cent. The Conference takes full responsibility for instructing the Committee to refrain from making such reductions, believing that it is the will of the Methodist people to maintain existing work, and still to " go forward wherever it is clear that God is pointing the way."

2. Mr. GEORGE F. BYROM and Mr. HAROLD W. PAYNE are re-appointed the General Treasurers for the ensuing year, and Mrs. NORMAN T. SARGANT, Treasurer of the Women's Department.

3. The Rev. CHARLES W. ANDREWS is appointed the Chairman of the Officers' Meeting for the ensuing year.

4. The Conference invites the Wesleyan Methodist Church to join with other Churches in observing November 30, 1928, as a day of special intercession on behalf of world-wide missionary work.

5. The Annual Sermon on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society shall be preached at Wesley's Chapel, City Road, on Sunday, March 17, 1929.

6. The following are appointed the General Committee of Management for the ensuing year.

Applications should be addressed to the Headmaster of the School, or to the Rev. Leonard J. W. Babb, M.C. The dates of application are:

For admission in September . . .	before May 15.
For admission in January . . .	before October 15.

Specimen Entrance Examination papers will be forwarded by the Headmistress upon request, if a stamped addressed envelope be enclosed.

(3) Residence.—The ordinary period of residence shall be six years, provided that the Educational Allowances have either not been received or have been returned.

All parents of children in the School, except Widows and Supernumeraries, in addition to surrendering the Educational and Maintenance Allowances, shall pay £6 per term for each child.

Power to consider applications for the reduction of these charges in exceptional cases is given to a Committee, of which the Rev. Owen S. Watkins is the Secretary.

Any claims delayed beyond the date of the May Synods are delayed at the risk of the parents. No claim must be made for children at the Schools.

(1) Payments will be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas

Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents shall receive CONSECUTIVELY an annual payment of £12 for six years in all. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Extrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1928, pp. 255–7).

2. The Conference directs the insertion in the Journal, of the Sales sanctioned by the Chapel Committee during the year.

3. The Conference authorises the President during the year to affix his signature to any consent to the Sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

4. Gifts of Chapel and other Trust Property.—The Conference presents its respectful thanks :

(a) To Miss Rhoda Wyburn, of Hadley Manor, Barnet, Herts, for the gift of a Minister's House at High Barnet, in the New Barnet Circuit, of the value of £2,000.

(b) To Mr. T. W. Moullin, of 18 Fordhook Avenue, Ealing, W.5, and his sisters, the Misses E. R. and A. M. Moullin, for the gift of a New Chapel at Northfields, in the London (Ealing and Acton) Circuit, in memory of their father and mother, at a cost of between £7,000 and £8,000.

(c) To Mr. George H. Kidson, of Weston Manor, Wolverhampton, for the gift of the Superintendent Minister's House, in the Wolverhampton (Darlington Street) Circuit.

(d) To Mrs. Ferens, of Gaunless Lodge, Bishop Auckland, and her family, for the gift, in memory of the late Mr. Michael J. Ferens, of a Minister's House at Bishop Auckland.

(e) To Mrs. Chambers, Windsor Road, Fairfield, Buxton, for the gift of a house to the Buxton Circuit entirely free from any conditions that will in any way hamper the circuit in the future.

5. Special Report as to Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Committee reports that in the returns of new erections, enlargements, etc., presented through the May District Synods, there are thirty-nine cases in which the conditions of the Chapel Committee have not yet been complied with, and three cases that are wholly irregular, having been undertaken without the consent of the District Synod or the Chapel Committee.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send the particulars to the several District Synods of those cases in which it is, in the opinion of the Committee, desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time until the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled. The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of Debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendent.

6. Sir William Middlebrook, of Leeds, and Mr. William R. Hesketh, of Manchester, are re-appointed the Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

7. The late Rev. Thomas Kirkup.—The Committee deeply mourns the loss of the Rev. Thomas Kirkup. Mr. Kirkup was not only highly esteemed, he was loved by all who knew him. There was a singular charm about his personality, and his manifold and efficient service gave him a most important place in the ranks of our Ministry. He was an administrator of quite exceptional aptitude, and his knowledge of Methodism, along with his deep interest in all our affairs, gave great weight to his judgment and made him a most effective member of any Committee to which he belonged. His gifts were of a very high order, and were consecrated to the service of his Lord. As Secretary of the Conference he was unsurpassed by any who had preceded him in the conduct of the business of that great Assembly, whilst his instinctive kindness and geniality endeared him to all. The Committee bows in humility before this mysterious dispensation, and assures the family of its deep and tender sympathy in their bereavement and of its heartfelt prayers on their behalf.

8. Retirement of the Rev. Albert H. Walker, B.A.—The Committee cannot allow the Rev. Albert H. Walker, B.A., to retire from the Active Work without placing on record its high estimate of his character, and of his long and faithful ministry. For the last nineteen years Mr. Walker has acted as Assistant to the General Chapel Secretary, in which capacity he has rendered most valuable service. His activities have extended far beyond the ordinary routine of the Chapel Office. As convener of the South Yorkshire Coalfields Commission, through the instrumentality of which a great work has been accomplished, his services have been greatly appreciated both by the Commission and by the people generally. He has also acted as convener for the Newcastle Coalfields Commission, and for the Commission appointed to supervise the Nottingham Coalfield Area. His musical gifts have enabled him to give expert advice to Trustees in all parts of the Kingdom, relating to Organs, while by his lectures he has helped to spread the knowledge of Hymnology and to deepen interest in the conduct of Public Worship in many of our Sanctuaries. The Committee expresses the hope that in his retirement he may find many opportunities of usefulness in connection with the Methodist Church.

9. Church Extension in New Areas.—In view of the enormous growth of population in the new Areas adjoining our Cities and large Towns and the utter impossibility of dealing with the situation apart from Connexional aid on a large scale, the Conference appoints a Commission to consider the present needs of the several Districts and to advise the Conference as to the policy to be adopted.

The Commission shall consist of the following: Four members of the Chapel, the Home Mission, and the London Extension Fund Committees, and one Minister and one Layman to be elected by the September Synod of the Districts affected, viz.: All the Districts with the exception of the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, the three Welsh Districts and Zetland.

The Commission shall be divided into three sections: Northern, Southern, and Midland, according to the area in which the District is situated. It is understood that the instructions to the Committee shall include the reference to Historic Sanctuaries in the Resolution of the Home Mission Committee presented to the Conference. The Convener shall be one of the General Secretaries of the Chapel Committee who shall be assisted by a Secretary for each Section. The following are appointed to assist the Convener: Northern Section—Rev. Walter H. Armstrong; Southern Section—Rev. C. Ensor Walters; Midland Section—Rev. Frederick H. Benson, B.A. The General Secretaries of the Three Departments concerned shall be members of each Section.

10. The Revs. JOHN HORNABROOK and WILLIAM HUMPHREY are the General Secretaries of the Committee.

Simon, D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Messrs. Sydney Barker and J. Arthur Rank, D.L., Members of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes; the Secretary and Treasurers of the London Mission and Extension Fund; the General Secretary and Treasurers of the Home Mission Fund; the Secretary of the Education Committee, and the Secretary of the Sunday School Department; Revs. David Ashby, Manchester; George H. CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

The Committee of the Connexional Fund records its deep sense of loss in the sudden passing of the Rev. Thomas Kirkup who, as its Secretary for the last thirteen years, put at the service of the Committee his great store of knowledge of Methodism, his administrative ability and his warm-hearted sympathy. It heartily associates itself with the Home Mission Committee's appreciation of the noble life and generous service of this devoted servant of God.

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report and the Financial Statement for 1926–7 (Agenda, 1928, pp. 87–91).

2. The Conference is gratified to learn that, though the Public Collections on behalf of the Fund for 1928 show a decrease, the Committee has continued the payment of Grants upon the higher scale which the greater need of the times has rendered necessary.

3. The following is the Committee for the coming year: Rev. John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., D.Lit., President of the Conference; Rev. W. Hodson Smith, Ex-President; Rev. Robert Bond, Secretary of the Conference ; Rev. William H. Hart, Secretary of the Auxiliary Fund ; and the Revs. Irving Armstrong, Edgar C. Barton, James R. Batey, K. Harley Boyns, J. Willis Britton, R.A. Mitcheson Brown, Alfred R. Dickerson, Edwin Finch, Joseph T. Gurney, T. Shirley Herrick, John Hornabrook, William H. Lawson, Samuel Marriott, George Marris, J. Alfred Sharp, D.D., E. Lightwood Smith, Wesley Woolmer, Dinsdale T. Young, D.D. ; Messrs. J. Simpson Alcock, Edward G. Barber, Edwin H. Burden, William Corderoy, Percy Currant, John L. Dawson, B.A., Frank Derry, G. Morley Edwards, Thomas England, Thomas J. Fear, Hamilton L. Hibbard, George Knight, William J. Mason, F. George Neave, LL.D., Charles T. Nightingale, Joseph D. Race, John H. Salter, W. J. Oliver Sheat, O.B.E., George Shrubsall, George Squires, Wilfred Turner.

4. The Rt. Hon. THOMAS R. FERENS and Mr. CHARLES W. EARLY are re-appointed Treasurers ; the Rev. F. LUKE WISEMAN, B.A., Deputy Treasurer and Secretary.

The following are appointed an Emergency Committee, with power to deal with any special cases that may require immediate attention ; The President, the Ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference, the Treasurers, the Deputy Treasurer and Secretary of the Fund, and the Secretary of the Auxiliary Fund, with Revs. Edgar C. Barton, R. A. Mitcheson Brown, George Marris ; Messrs. Edward G. Barber, Edwin H. Burden, Thomas J. Fear, George Knight, F. George Neave, LL.D., George Shrubsall.

6. A Special Meeting of the Committee shall be held to consider the recommendations as to Grants made by the May District Synods, and any representative to the Stationing Committee interested in any application of any kind shall receive intimation of the Meeting of the Committee, and be invited to attend this meeting to state and watch the case.

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. X. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund ?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1928, pp. 307–16).

2. The Conference greatly appreciates the generosity and the manifold services of all who have helped to keep the income up to the level of 1927, and once again commends the urgent claims of the Fund to the sympathetic consideration of all our people. It specially recognises the generous contributions of the Ministers.

3. The thanks of the Conference are given to those friends who have made special Donations, and to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies, also to those Supernumeraries and Widows of Ministers who have relinquished or returned their allowances, in whole or in part.

4. The allowance made to Supernumeraries for the next year shall be twenty-eight pounds, plus thirty-five shillings for each year of active service, and to Widows twenty-eight pounds, plus seventeen shillings and sixpence for each year of the husband's service. The Conference, however, directs the Committee to meet early in the Connexional year to consider the financial position of the Fund, and authorises the Committee to make some increase in the allowances for the year should it be found possible.

5. The rule as to a widow twelve years or upwards younger than her late husband is modified in the following manner :

> When a widow is twelve years younger than her late husband, that portion of her allowance which depends upon the years of her husband's service shall be reduced in the following manner. If she is twelve years younger, by one-eighth ; if thirteen years, by one-quarter ; if fourteen years by three-eights : if fifteen years, by one-half. No further reduction shall be made until the discrepancy reaches twenty years, when no allowance shall be paid.

6. The Conference directs that in any case where the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund has become or shall become entitled to Trust Funds or a share therein, whether under the will of a deceased testator or otherwise, the Treasurers of the Fund are hereby authorised on behalf of the Conference to execute in favour of the Trustees handing over such Trust Funds such Release and Indemnity as may be reasonably required and is usually given in the circumstances, such Release and Indemnity to be binding upon the Conference and to entitle the Trustees to indemnity out of the Fund in respect of any claims thereafter made against them as trustees of the funds so handed over.

6. Closing of Wesleyan Primary Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before both the District Education Committee and the Connexional Education Committee for their counsel and assistance.

7. Grants to Primary Schools.—The judgment of the Chapel Committee or Sunday School Committee of the District Synod shall be obtained in respect of all applications for Grants, and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

8. Primary Schools: Suggested Concordat.—The Conference views with general approval the Schemes for arriving at a concordat which shall bring about the unification of education, provided that adequate provision is made for Bible instruction to be given by the teachers.

(2) Appointment of Trustees under a new Trust Deed.—Acting under the direction given by the Conference of 1927 (see Minutes, p. 57) the Wesleyan Education Committee and the former Trustees of the Southlands property have adopted a new Trust Deed, which, while fully safeguarding the Methodist character of the College, brings the government into harmony with modern developments and permits of direct University representation on the Governing Body, and have appointed the Trustees.

12. Debenture Bonds.—The Conference directs the Board of Management (in exercise of the powers of that Board under Clause 3 of the Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Education Trust Deed, a copy of which is set out in paragraph 20), to raise loans not exceeding £30,000 in all, by Debenture Bonds for the purpose of capital expenditure on the improvement of existing schools, and in assisting to provide a middle-class public school for girls in Yorkshire. This direction confirms any loans already raised by such Bonds (Agenda, 1927, p. 111).

13. Rydal School, Colwyn Bay.—(1) The Conference receives the Report (Agenda, 1928, p. 115).

(2) The Rydal School, Colwyn Bay, is the property of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and is administered by a Governing Body duly appointed by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference under the Scheme approved.

(3) Under the Scheme for the administration of Rydal School (as approved by the Conference of 1922), two of the six Governors appointed by the Conference retire annually. The Conference accordingly retires the Rev. Frederick J. Briggs and Mr. J. Rayner Batty. The Conference re-appoints Mr. J. Rayner Batty and appoints the Rev. J. Williams Butcher.

Further resolutions were adopted at subsequent Conferences (1921 and 1922) all of which changes were added in the form of footnotes in the reprint of the Deed in 1925. The Deed and its alterations are now codified into one homogeneous whole, with a few verbal alterations which are needed in order to bring it up to date.

A new addition to Clause 13 is for the first time submitted to the Conference, viz. that after the words "Trustee in his place" there shall be added the following:

"In this respect the President of the Conference for the time being is the person nominated in these presents for the purpose of appointing new trustees under section 36 of the Trustees Act 1925, and the Deed of Appointment executed by him shall operate without any Conveyance or Assignment to vest all property which is then subject to these trusts in the new trustee jointly with the surviving and continuing trustees."

The Conference approves the addition of Clause 13 and adopts the Deed as presented. (Agenda, 1928, pp. 109–16.)

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Sunday Schools?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Connexional Council (Agenda, 1928, pp. 173–96).

2. The Conference appoints the Connexional Council as below, with Mr. J. Wesley Walker as the Treasurer of the Department for the ensuing year.

3. The Conference directs that the third Sunday in October be observed as a day of special prayer on behalf of our young people, and that our Ministers and Local Preachers be asked to co-operate with the Sunday School Authorities in bringing before the young the necessity for immediate decision.

4. The Conference views with deep concern the fact that so many of the children of the nation are outside Sunday School influence, especially as they are, for the most part, from the homes where there is least religious training. It realises that some of our Sunday Schools are already overcrowded, or are dealing with as many children as the teaching staff can handle adequately. But the Conference urges every Sunday School which has accommodation available, and which can by any means recruit an adequate staff, to carry out, during this year, some scheme for the enrolment of the children of its neighbourhood who do not attend any Sunday School. It also urges local Sunday School Councils to accept responsibility for new residential neighbourhoods adjacent to their own, and to make attempts to find Sunday School accommodation (even though it be only possible to gather a few scholars together in a private house) for the children for whom no Sunday School training is at present available.

I. The Temperance Movement.

1. The Conference receives the Report (Agenda, 1928, pp. 337–40).

2. The Conference directs that the third Sunday in November (November 18) be observed as Temperance Sunday, and that the week following be observed as Temperance Week, during which an appeal for personal abstinence from intoxicating liquors as beverages, and for active service in the cause of Temperance Reform, should be made in all spheres of Church life.

3. The Conference, in re-affirming its claim for Temperance legislation, including the grant of powers of Local Option to the peoples of England and Wales, an adequate control of the supply of intoxicating liquor in clubs, and Sunday Closing of liquor-bars throughout England, would direct the attention of Wesleyan Methodist electors to their responsibility to promote, by the rightful exercise of their votes, the achievement of these urgently needed legislative reforms; and, with a view thereto, the Conference counsels our people to set Temperance Reform in the forefront of their duty and claim as citizens; to make inquiry regarding the attitude of Parliamentary candidates to the foregoing reforms; and to withhold their votes from all Parliamentary candidates who pledge themselves explicitly, if elected, to defend and advance the interests of the Liquor Trade in the House of Commons.

4. The Conference welcomes the proposal, already under the consideration of the League of Nations, that the Council of the League should appoint a Commission for the study of the subject of alcoholism, particularly as it affects the peoples of mandated territories; and, accordingly, requests the coming Assembly of the League of Nations to authorise the appointment of such a Commission.

5. The Conference deplores the fact that the importation of alcoholic liquors of all kinds into the Gold Coast Colony and its Dependencies has increased eight-fold in the last eight years. The Conference regards this increase as particularly alarming and dangerous, inasmuch as over 90 per cent. of the spirituous liquors now being imported consists of gin.

In the opinion of the Conference there is reason to fear that the traffic in Trade Spirits—which Great Britain in concert with the other European Powers having administrative responsibility on the African Continent, solemnly pledged herself, by the Convention of 1919, to prohibit—has been resumed under other names and in another guise. It holds that, while this traffic contributes nothing whatever to the development of industry and manufacture within the British Empire, it brings dishonour upon the British Nation and does great injury to the natives of West Africa whose moral and material advancement the Colonial Governments seek as the professed aim and end of their rule.

The Conference is driven, by the results, to the conclusion that a policy which relies solely upon a high tariff has failed to abolish or even adequately to restrict the import of liquor into West Africa; and it is convinced that, unless the Gold Coast Government takes additional and stronger measures, and receives the co-operation and support of all parties concerned, this trade will continue to increase until it reaches and surpasses the dimensions of pre-war years.

The Conference, therefore, welcomes the recent Address of His Excellency the Governor, Sir Ransford Slater, in which he outlines a reform of the licensing system of the Gold Coast and promises an inquiry into the connection between drink and the "customs" of the family and chiefdom; it urges the great British firms to decline to have any part in a trade which is as much opposed to the real interests and expansion of commerce and agriculture as to the higher welfare and progress of the West African peoples; it desires to commend and support with all its influence the efforts now being made by the Gold Coast Synod to clear the Wesleyan Church and community of all complicity with the sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors ; and finally it approves the proposal to call together a small conference of the representatives of the Churches and Missions at work in West Africa with a view to the abatement and total eradication of a growing evil.

6. Seeing that under an Excise Licence it is possible to conduct a retail business in wine and spirits for consumption off the premises, such licence being obtainable without reference to the Justices, the Police, or the public ; and that these licences have in certain areas greatly increased ; the Conference expresses the opinion that all such facilities for sale should be brought under the control of the Licencing Justices.

The Conference further protests against any proposals for the alteration of the quantities of spirituous liquors obtainable from off-licencees, believing that such a change in the existing law would be conducive to increased drinking and therefore a serious set-back to the salutary movement of recent years for the reduction of drinking facilities.

II. Sunday Questions.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1928, pp. 341–2).

2. The Conference directs that on the first Sunday after Easter the subject of the significance and sanctity of the Lord's Day shall receive special attention in our Churches and Sunday Schools.

3. The Conference, having regard to the supreme need for safeguarding the opportunities which Sunday affords for the public worship of God, appeals to the leaders of all political parties to exert their influence to prevent the calling of public assemblies for party political propaganda upon Sunday. The Conference also appeals to Methodists to refrain entirely from participation in and attendance at all such gatherings.

4. The Conference recognises with pleasure the efforts in progress in commercial life, especially among the distributive trades, to secure legislation which shall drastically restrict the growing volume of Sunday trading. The Conference places on record its general approval of the provisions of the Shops (Sunday Trading Restrictions) (No. 2) Bill, as designed to promote the closing of shops on Sundays, and urges the Government to further its early passage into law.

III. International and Industrial Relationships.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1928, pp. 343–6).

2. In view of the menacing growth of betting practices, the Conference strongly urges that Parliament should take effective action at an early date to make illegal :

(a) Betting transactions between bookmakers and young persons under twenty-one years of age.

(b) The publication of bookmakers' advertisements, ante-post betting odds, and other inducements to betting.

(c) The sale of " tips " and " forecasts " for betting purposes.

(d) The use of the State postal, telegraphic, and telephonic facilities for the business of betting.

The Conference calls attention to the urgent need for a revision and strengthening of the law affecting sweepstakes, lotteries, and similar devices, and further requests that the law relating to street betting be enforced with greater vigour and firmness.

3. The Conference records its emphatic protest against the refusal of the Government to grant facilities for the passage into law this session of Colonel Buchan's Dog Racing Bill.

The Conference observes with indignation the fact that the Bill to legalise the Totalisator, which secured a majority of 15 votes on its Second Reading, is being forced through Parliament by the Government ; whereas the Bill to empower municipal authorities to veto or control Greyhound Racing Tracks, which was carried by a majority of 204 votes on its Second Reading, and was demanded by the Churches and by educational and municipal organisations throughout the country is refused the necessary Government facilities to ensure its enactment.

In view of the damage to the moral interests of the country inflicted by the wholesale gambling facilities associated with Greyhound Racing Tracks, the Conference directs the attention of Methodist electors to this betrayal of communities which are at present defenceless in face of the establishment of these tracks in defiance of local public opinion.

4. The Conference records its condemnation of the Racecourse Betting Bill now before Parliament on the ground, inter alia, that the legalisation of the Totalisator, and its use as a medium for the collection of the Betting Tax, makes the State a partner with the Jockey Club, the National Hunt Committee, the Association of Racehorse Owners, and Tattersalls, in the betting business, as the Bill now adopted by the Government sets up a statutory Board composed of representatives of the foregoing, and of three Government Departments, namely, the Ministry of Agriculture, the Home Office, and the Treasury. The Conference regards such a strengthening of the vested interest in gambling as a grave menace to character and industry, and therefore protests against the passage of the Bill.

5. The Conference has observed with great interest and satisfaction the endeavour to achieve conciliation and establish peace in Industry, and urges all members of our Church, both employers and employed, to support this movement in every practicable way.

6. The Conference, having in view the Christian responsibility, both corporate and individual, for the ideal and attainment of international understanding and peace, again recommends, as a practical proposal to this end, that Churches should enrol as corporate members of the League of Nations Union, and become affiliated to the World Alliance for promoting International Friendship through the Churches, the two schemes being complementary.

Special Finance Committee.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1928, pp. 409–10).

2. The Conference resolves:

(a) That in view of the special claims upon the Children's Fund the amount of the General Assessment for the year 1928–9 shall be increased by 10 per cent. to £61,407 10*s.* and shall be allotted to the Departments according to the following scale:

The Conference agrees that for the year 1928–9 the amount charged upon the Districts shall be upon the basis suggested by the Quinquennial Assessment Committee and approved by the Conference (Minutes, 1926, p. 494). The extra £7,507 10*s.* being the difference between £61,407 10*s.* now fixed for the year and the £53,900 previously suggested, shall be apportioned pro rata on all the contributions from Districts and Departments.

(b) That the fees charged to the Ministers whose children are at the Schools (Kingswood and Trinity Hall) shall be increased from £5 to £6 per term; and that the present reduction of charge in the case where a minister has more than one child at the School shall cease.

(c) That the economies suggested by the Committee of the Children's Fund shall be carried out, and everything possible done to ease the financial situation.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee with the following terms of reference:

(a) The powers of the Committee shall be confined to inquiry and consequent recommendations.

(b) The Committee shall take within its purview such matters as the Conference shall refer to it bearing upon Finance, especially in relation to the Funds affected by the General Assessment; and in particular the establishment of a Central Finance Board with a view to securing the full advantage of the Connexional resources before the invested Funds of any department are realised to meet current expenses.

(c) In view of the grave financial necessities of our Connexional Funds, and the needs of the General Assessment, the Conference directs the Special Finance Committee to scrutinise the numerous financial appeals sent out to the Connexion which have not been previously authorised by the Conference.

OTHER SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Resignation of Mr. H. A. Wootton, M.A., B.Sc.—The Conference learns with regret of the resignation of Mr. H. A. Wootton, M.A., B.Sc., Headmaster of Kingswood School, on his appointment to the Persee School, Cambridge. Under his headmastership, Kingswood School has made great progress and owes more than can be estimated to the energy and organising power with which he has faced its many difficulties and needs. The Conference wishes to record its appreciation of his great services for the school. Among the many things for which his headmastership will be gratefully remembered was his devoted attention to individual boys and his care of the general health of the school.

Retirement of Miss Mary V. Hunter, M.A.—The Conference receives with regret the intimation of the resignation through ill-health of Miss Mary V. Hunter, M.A., one of the Secretaries of the Women's Department of the Missionary Society. It places on record its appreciation of her many gifts used without reserve in the service of our Church, first as Candidate's Secretary, and for the last four years as one of the General Secretaries.

Retirement of Sir Walter W. Berry, K.B.E.—The Conference expresses its thanks to Sir Walter W. Berry, K.B.E., for his many services as Treasurer of the Education Fund, and regrets that owing to ill-health he has found it necessary to retire.

Outlawry of War.—The Conference rejoices to know that the British Government has associated itself with the Government of the United States and other parties in furtherance of a proposed treaty to bring about the Outlawry of War.

Separated Chairmen.—Pending the settlement of the Separated Chairmen question, the Conference approves of the continuance of the present financial arrangements relating to those who are already so appointed.

Board of Trustees for Connexional Funds (Registered).—1. The Conference appoints the Rev. William Henry Hart as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Wesleyan Methodist Connexional Funds (Registered) in the place of the Rev. Thomas Kirkup deceased.

2. The following are the Trustees: Revs. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Joseph H. Bateson, C.B.E., and William H. Hart; The Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Messrs. Charles W. Early and George Knight.

All communications to be addressed, to the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., 1, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1.

Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Conference.—The Conference of 1925 adopted the following Resolution (Minutes, 1925, Appendix VI, p. 404):

(1) That the Standing Order which directs "that the Representative Session shall consist of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen, one-fifth of the Lay Representatives (60) to be elected annually by the Conference, this number to include 12 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds" shall be amended in its last clause as follows:

> "this number to include 15 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds."

(2) That the Treasurers of the Women's Auxiliary, Wesley Guild, and Class Leaders' Committees be included among Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds to be elected by the Conference.

(3) The Conference further resolves that the Resolution shall be carried into effect over a period of three years. In 1927 the Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary, in 1928 the Treasurer of the Wesley Guild became members of the Conference, in 1929 the Treasurer of the Class Leaders' Committee will become a member of the Conference. For each of these and succeeding years the Conference will elect 15 Lay Representatives instead of 16 as heretofore.

Students and Methodist Union.—The Conference directs that in any future referendum on the subject of Methodist Union, an opportunity shall be given to the Students in the Theological Colleges to exercise their vote.

Gifts to the Auxiliary Fund.—The Conference records its deep thankfulness for the following gifts to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund : The Directors of the Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Co., Ltd., for its increased benefaction and contribution of £10,000 ; The Methodist Publishing House, £1,100 ; The Directors of the Methodist Recorder, £250 ; and Messrs. Horace Marshall & Son, Publishers of the Methodist Times, £500.

Women's Department and District Foreign Missionary Committee.—The Conference recommends that of the two Women Representatives elected by the Synod to the District Foreign Missionary Committee, one, at least, shall be an Officer of the District Women's Auxiliary Council.

Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts.—The Conference recognises the growing importance of " the problem of transition in language " in relation to religious work in Glamorgan and Monmouthshire, and heartily approves of the proposal of an exchange of representatives between South Wales and Cardiff and Swansea Synods, on the understanding that such representatives have no vote in the Synods which they visit.

Connexional Campaigns.—The Conference considers that it is not desirable that more than one Connexional Campaign should be organised by a Department in any one year, and directs that in future no such campaign shall be started without the previous consent of the Conference.

Coalfields Commissions.—The Conference rejoices in the grace of God given to the members of our Churches in the coal areas who, amid great trial through severe industrial depression, have shown exemplary patience and fortitude and have exhibited a devotion and liberality toward their Church worthy of highest praise.

The Conference hears with profound regret that a few Circuits find themselves obliged to reduce the number of Ministers and that if the industrial situation does not improve, others will be under a similar necessity.

The Conference therefore directs the Home Mission Committee to arrange for Commissions of about six persons in co-operation with the respective District Home Mission and Chapel Committees to visit the various coalfield areas (including Northumberland and Durham, Lancs, Yorks, Notts, S. Wales and N. Wales).

Q. XXVIII. What Supernumeraries now return to the Full Work?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

William J. Goodall, | John C. Jowett.

Q. XXIX. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, fifty-five:

(1) R. Ernest Davies: born at Liverpool in 1884 of devoted Welsh Methodist parents. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1907. A good education at the Liverpool Institute, varied experience in a merchant's office, and a profitable period of training at Headingley, were turned to fruitful account. In all his circuits he proved himself a faithful minister, greatly beloved by colleagues and people alike. His constant endeavour was to promote better understanding between employers and employed, to bring together the estranged, and to make good men kind to one another. In this he was eminently successful. The burden of that ministry sometimes weighed heavily on his gentle and gracious soul. Poetical by temperament, an ardent lover of nature and little children, light shone from many facets of his consecrated personality. After a serious operation he passed away peacefully on July 28, 1927, in the eighteenth year of his ministry.

(2) J. Wesley Whitmore: born in March 1854, in a Christian home in Harwich. In early life he was surrounded by godly influences. At the age of fourteen he became conscious of a change of heart, and with great enthusiasm gave himself to the service of the Master. In 1876 he was accepted as a Candidate and designated for immediate work. Twenty years were spent in Lancashire. Here he exercised a vigorous and useful ministry, especially among the young. He is still remembered with affection and gratitude in his various circuits. He spent the last seven years of his life in Morecambe, passing through great sorrows yet shedding abroad a gentle and winning influence. He was a devoted pastor, an arresting preacher and a cheerful companion. The beauties of the world around him, of literature and of art, made an instant appeal to him and kindled glowing and ardent admiration and fervent praise. Gloom to him was intolerable and was speedily banished by a flash of humour or a joyous song. He passed into the Homeland on July 28, 1927.

(3) William H. Clymo: born August 11, 1852, at Carnmarthan Moor, near Camborne. At the age of twelve he began to work underground with his father. When seventeen, he gave his life to Christ and the work of the Church, and after some years as a lay evangelist was accepted as a Candidate in 1885. He travelled with much acceptance, mainly in rural circuits, until 1908, when he had a serious breakdown in health, and was compelled to become a Supernumerary. During the nineteen years of his retirement, he sought opportunities of service, preaching and visiting, as his health permitted. His great joy was to build up the class meeting, deepening spiritual life and fellowship, cheering and encouraging the young people especially. He read deeply in devotional theology. His one aim was Christian Holiness. His long illness was patiently borne. A man of humble and saintly character, he passed peacefully into the presence of his Lord on August 3, 1927, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry. Almost his last words were, "And now I shall see Him, my Blessed Lord!"

(4) EDWARD BARRACLOUGH: born at Clayton West, Yorkshire, February 5, 1874. He was accepted as a Candidate from the Saddleworth Circuit, and after leaving college he spent the usual term of three years in each of his circuits, half of his ministry being given to the Liverpool District. His pastoral work was faithful, methodical and sympathetic. His preaching was passionate, experimental and evangelistic. At Pontefract he successfully carried through a scheme of structural renovation, and saw great success in the spiritual work of the Church. During his third year there he had a serious breakdown in health, but he was sufficiently restored to move to the Birstal Circuit after the following Conference with high hopes and joyous anticipation. At the end of six weeks, however, his health failed and he removed to Liverpool, where he lived in retirement for four years and a half. During his illness he revealed a brave and beautiful spirit, still making sermons which he hoped sometime to be able to preach, or writing essays and Bible expositions which were received with much appreciation in the classes for which they had been prepared. He died on August 7, 1927, leaving a record of entire devotion to the Church he loved.

(5) IVAN D. ROSS, M.A.: born December 22, 1888. He was a son of the Manse and from his childhood responded to the godly teaching of his home. He was Head Prefect of Kingswood School, and Scholar of Caius College, Cambridge, graduating there in the Mathematical Tripos. From Cambridge he offered for the Ministry, and after a year at Richmond was appointed to Central China, where his whole ministerial life was spent. His main work was educational, first in Wesley College, Wuchang, and since 1924 in the newly formed Central China University. He systematically studied the language and published successful translations from the Classics into English verse. He gained an exceptional knowledge of the difficult Chinese script, and was thus able to interpret to his countrymen the native mind as revealed in the vernacular press. He was recognised as an authority on current Chinese literature and political movements, and contributed notable articles to The Times and The Nineteenth Century. He was quiet and unassuming, but his intellectual and spiritual character won universal respect. He was a devoted servant of Christ; he loved the boys and youths he taught, and steadily sought their conversion. The strain of recent disturbances, wrecking for a time school and University, weighed heavily on him. Sleeplessness and nervous debility depressed him; a voyage home via Australia brought only partial relief. He was sent to Guernsey to supply; there the people loved him and asked him to continue, but the Conference appointed him to Llangollen. He never went there, for the disease had gone further than had been realised, and he entered into peace on August 11, 1927, in the thirty-ninth year of his age and the fifteenth of his ministry.

(6) JOSEPH WEST: born at Taunton on September 4, 1859. While still a Sunday scholar he gave himself to God. Before entering the Ministry he was a junior master at Queen's College, Taunton. Accepted as a Candidate in 1879, and appointed to Ceylon in 1882, he spent the first eighteen years of his ministry in the Northern District of that island, labouring on the Kalmunai and Batticaloa Stations, which developed rapidly under his care. In 1900 he went to India as Chairman of the Negapatam and Trichinopoly District, which position he occupied with great ability and devotion during a further six years of strenuous missionary service. Returning to England in 1906 he gave seventeen years to the home work and retired at the Conference of 1923. He had rare gifts of mind and heart, all of which he consecrated to holy service. A master of detail, he was also an expert in the larger affairs of policy and administration. His abounding vitality and infectious enthusiasm carried him through difficulties that would have daunted any spirit less courageous. His personality and work made a lasting impression on the Eastern Churches to which he gave the best of his days. The Tamil people trusted and loved him. He was a fluent speaker in the vernacular, and had the sovereign gift of sympathy. Troubles moved him to instant response, but his philanthropy was also thoughtful and far-seeing. When the Veddahs of the Ceylon jungles were stricken with famine, he not only saved their lives but founded village settlements and organised them into civilised communities. As a preacher he was evangelistic, eloquent and passionately in earnest. Every part of his work was done intensely, and he paid the price. All who knew him were struck by the simplicity and gracious beauty of his character. A sense of humour, playful but never caustic, lighted up his other qualities. He was a happy warrior, a gay-hearted follower of the Christ, who carried the spirit of joy into all his tasks. His love for the brotherhood never failed. Ever eager to serve rather than to be served, he won and held the devoted affection of colleagues both European and Asiatic. On August 12, 1927, he entered into rest in the sixty-eighth year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(7) Thomas C. Hillard, B.A.: born at Watton, near Brecon, in 1862. A son of the Manse, he was educated at Kingswood, took his degree when nineteen years of age and was accepted as a Candidate in 1888. During his first term at Richmond an urgent call came for educational work at Colombo, and he was sent out to become the Principal of Wesley College. In this and other important posts he rendered excellent service. After six years in Colombo he returned to England, and for thirty-two years exercised an efficient ministry. His preaching was marked by clear thinking and forceful speech. In circuit administration he was keen and courageous, skilfully handling difficult situations. A retentive memory made his pastoral work very effective. He exercised a gracious and uplifting influence in the sick room, was a tender comforter of the bereaved and an encourager of the faint-hearted. He loved the "lilies of the field," and became a recognised authority on the flora of the localities in which he lived. Retiring from the active work at the Conference of 1927, he met with an accident in Liverpool, and passed swiftly and painlessly to his reward on August 26, 1927.

(8) William H. Rolls: born at Weedon in the Aylesbury Circuit, August 22, 1863, where Methodism had been established largely through the devoted services of his grandfather. In 1887 he entered Richmond College, and his subsequent ministry was spent in varied spheres. He possessed the heart and gifts of an evangelist, and laboured with great acceptance for two periods in the East London Mission. His name will always be associated with Paisley where, during his eight years' ministry, the Central Hall was built and a vigorous Methodist cause established. Wherever he went he did valuable service. In his later years he came back to the country Methodism from which he had sprung and to it he gave his heart. His private life was marked by simplicity and kindliness, and a great desire to be true to Christ in all things. In his public ministry he was always faithful to his charge, winning the affection of many, and especially of the poorer people, by the radiance of his character, and by diligent pastoral visitation. He was effective as a preacher and as an administrator. Simple, honest, upright, he walked humbly with God and loved his fellow-men. He was returning home from Bicester, where he had been to say good-bye to his friends, when he met with a motor accident, and in a few hours passed away to his rest on August 26, 1927, in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(9) JOHN GRIMSHAW: born at Rawtenstall, Lancashire, December 16, 1850. At the age of four he lost his father, but under the guidance of his mother he learned to love and study the Bible in a way that made him an able expository preacher. Accepted as a Candidate in 1876, he spent three years at Richmond College, and then began a ministry which extended over forty-five years. He served for eight years in British Guiana and five in Gibraltar. Preaching was always a joy to him, and at the same time was a revelation and a delight to those who were privileged to hear him. Mere topical sermons had no attraction for him, but he found in the Scriptures an inexhaustible mine of rich treasures, whose meaning he sought to understand and make plain to others. He excelled in the homely atmosphere of the class meeting. In his personal relations with his Church, his strong human sympathy, his wise counsel and spiritual guidance always made him the trusted friend of old and young alike. He was essentially a strong man, but at the same time was gentle and kind. His life was full of rich service for God and his fellow-men, until he fell asleep on September 8, 1927.

(10) MARMADUKE RIGGALL: born at Wawne, near Beverley, March 15, 1851. His home was a centre of evangelical activity and strong Methodist influence. He entered the Ministry from the Alford Circuit at the age of twenty-one. On leaving Didsbury he was appointed Chaplain to the garrison at Malta. He served in many circuits, both town and country, and finally settled as a Supernumerary in the circuit from which he entered the Ministry. His preaching was characterised by a strong evangelistic fervour. A man of unbounded activity, he was ever seeking to find the most effective methods of advancing the kingdom of God. He was particularly interested in the young, and was never happier than when he discovered in some young man the instincts of a preacher, or found one whom he could bring forward as a Candidate for the Ministry. He had a decided literary talent. He was always eager to use this to the furtherance of his work as a minister of the Gospel. In his later years much time was given to research in connection with the Wesley Historical Society, of which he was one of the founders. He bore much pain with great patience, and never lost his intense love and interest in the affairs of the Church and Kingdom in which he had laboured so faithfully. He entered on his eternal rest on September 8, 1927, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(11) ERNEST BAYLEY: born at Lydd, January 26, 1888. He entered the Ministry in 1912, and after three years at Handsworth went to the Hinckley Circuit where he was greatly beloved. His health suffered at Crook from his strenuous labours among the Durham miners, but after four years in the Manchester (Victoria) Circuit, the symptoms seemed to pass away. His successful work among the young people in the artisan area of Middlesbrough will never be forgotten. During the last two years of his ministry at Thornaby, in the Stockton (Brunswick) Circuit, the congregations grew, the membership increased, and a successful Brotherhood sprang into being. In the church, in open-air meetings, talking to men in public-houses or chatting to them as they gathered in the streets during the industrial depression, he was always about his Master's business. Duty to God and men was the keynote of his consecrated life. He had just begun his winter's work when he was called to a bed of suffering. Even then, he thought of the crowds and quoted continually, "I am come that they might have life." God called him to the Life Eternal on September 14, 1927, in the thirty-ninth year of his age and the sixteenth of his ministry.

(12) JOHN PERRETT: born at Bath in 1843. In early manhood he dedicated himself to Christ. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1867, and after a year as supply was sent to Stonehouse. His life's work was chiefly that of a pioneer in solitary stations in the south of England, and in them all he laboured as a diligent and zealous servant of his Master. He was kind and generous, without show or ostentation. Independence of mind and character was one of his main qualities. The welfare of the Church was always on his heart, and he remembered it daily before God. He loved his Master and he loved Him to the end. He died suddenly and peacefully at Mark, in the Weston-super-Mare Circuit, on September 19, 1927, in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(13) SAMUEL GOODYER: born at Bulkington, near Coventry, March 7, 1846. His parents were devout Calvinists, but in Coventry he became connected with our Warwick Lane Church, and at Brixton Hill came under the inspiring influence of Dr. Ebenezer Jenkins. Accepted as a Candidate in 1870, he went to Richmond for three years and then for thirteen years exercised a gracious ministry in Jamaica. The mission-field had in him a firm supporter and consistent advocate, and his interest in his old sphere of service was strong to the end. Returning to the home work on account of the health of his wife, he served most acceptably for eighteen years, and then, as a Supernumerary, for a few years in France. The last eleven years of his life were spent in Coventry, where he rendered fruitful service as minister at Earlsdon. Wherever he was he radiated love. Young people felt at ease with him, and his influence over them was great, for he himself was ever young in spirit. He made the love of God a reality to them. He was a sound preacher, a diligent student, a wide reader, a sympathetic and safe counsellor, and took a lively interest in current events, national and Methodist. He passed home suddenly after a day's illness on October 7, 1927, in the eighty-second year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(14) FREDERICK BODEN: born at Ashton-on-Mersey in 1858. He entered our Ministry in 1884, receiving his training at Richmond College. In response to an appeal for more workers for China by the Rev. David Hill, he was sent to the Wuchang District. It was a time of great unrest: riots were constant; the deepest hatred was manifested towards the missionary. In consequence of an exceptionally fierce riot, in which Mrs. Boden was so injured as to make her continuance in China impossible, he returned to this country, after having laboured for nine years with great zeal and courage. He could not return to China, but his advocacy of missions was fresh, vigorous and well-informed. He entered the home work in 1893, and became a Supernumerary in 1924 at Buxton. In all his circuits he exercised a gracious influence. An outstanding feature of his character was his gentleness. At the same time, he was a man of strong conviction, widely read, intensely spiritual. The doctrines of grace were always foremost in his preaching. He was a true pastor. His wide experience enabled him to be a wise counsellor and true comforter of those committed to his charge. His influence for Christ in Buxton was steadily increasing when suddenly his earthly ministry ended on October 10, 1927, in the seventieth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(15) WILLIAM RAPSON: born December 9, 1846, at Porkellis, near Helston. He was a true son of Cornwall, as loyal to his native county as to the doctrines and discipline of the Methodism he dearly loved. In a small Cornish village, but ten days before his last illness, he told the story of his conversion, at the age of seventeen, in the old chapel of that place. After more than sixty years the memory of that hour was still vivid and inspiring. It had given direction and tone to all his life. He became a local preacher in the Falmouth Circuit, and was prepared for the Ministry at Headingley. His zeal and faithfulness found expression not only in earnest and persuasive preaching, but also in the marked diligence with which he sought out the people and won their affection. He was a lover of the Bible, and his conversation was often enriched by scriptural quotations. In the course of long walks to distant villages, he would make many pastoral calls, and his cheery talks and fervent prayers were highly appreciated and long remembered. The young people and children were attracted to him. His faith was strong as it was definite, and its fruit was manifest in his self-forgetting labours, constant cheerfulness, hearty friendliness and complete consecration. His varied labours reached a fitting close in a service at Porthleven, when he preached on the subject of the Lord's Supper and administered the Sacrament. Three weeks later his last words were spoken, "I am going home." Thus calmly and gladly he passed from us on October 14, 1927, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(16) RICHARD HALL: born at Durham in 1864. As a youth he joined the Spennymoor Wesleyan Church, and from this circuit he was accepted for the Ministry in 1884. Of strong evangelistic zeal, he responded to the call of the foreign field, and after a term at Richmond began his ministry in Demerara. During the first year his health broke down, and he returned to the home work and was appointed to the Mildenhall Circuit. In 1903 he began the work in Chatham, with which his name will ever be associated. He found neither building nor member. He secured the Town Hall for Sunday services; the building was quickly crowded, and it became evident that provision on a large scale would have to be made. A site was acquired for a large hall which when completed became a living centre of evangelism. A year previous to his death, it was his joy to declare the premises free of debt. He secured the property for the Welcome Sailors' and Soldiers' Home, an institution which proved a great blessing to a vast number of service men. In 1914 he accompanied the British Expeditionary Force to France. When commissions were granted in the Royal Air Force, he was the first Chaplain to be selected, and at the time of his death was serving as Staff Chaplain. For his splendid services during the War he was decorated with the O.B.E. He took over the management of the Sailors' and Soldiers' Homes throughout the Connexion. For the last four years he was Chairman of the Kent District. Amid all the administrative work of later years he maintained his evangelistic fervour and nothing pleased him better than to see men and women brought to Christ. He was a manly Christian of strong conviction and warm heart, and won the admiration of all who knew him. He passed peacefully away on October 15, 1927, in the sixty-third year of his life and the forty-second of his ministry.

(17) THOMAS ROBERTS (A): born at Marazion, January 5, 1838. His father was a local preacher for more than fifty years. He was educated at Penzance Grammar School, where he was presently appointed a tutor. He began to preach at the age of eighteen, and was accepted for the Ministry in 1863. After three years at Richmond he was appointed to Ceylon, but at the end of two years ill-health caused his return to England. His work was almost entirely in country circuits, and he retained to the end of his life a great enthusiasm for the cause of village Methodism. He was devoted to the principles of our Church, and his ministry was characterised by great diligence and courage. He became a Supernumerary in 1902, but rendered considerable service in various spheres in the years that followed. He passed peacefully away at Trowbridge on October 16, 1927, in the ninetieth year of his age.

(18) HUGH CURRY: born at Amlwch, Anglesey, June 16, 1850. He was early converted to God, and was accepted for our Ministry in 1875. He travelled in each of the three Welsh Districts, and retired from the active work in 1913. The last years of his life were spent at Chester, where he exerted a gracious influence among our people. Of a strong and simple faith he was never troubled with doubt, but dwelt constantly in the light of God's countenance. He laid all his gifts upon the altar, and served his Master and his Church with unflagging zeal. In the homes of our people his kindly sympathy and solicitude for their good will be long remembered. In all his dealings he manifested the love which "seeketh not its own." For his brethren he had an intense regard, and for his Church a steadfast loyalty and devotion. After a long illness, patiently borne, he died on October 21, 1927.

(19) CLEMENT STUCHBERY: born at East Grinstead, on December 2, 1850. In 1872 whilst in business at Preston he was recommended for the Ministry. As a preacher he was thoughtful, clear, convincing and with a vein of humour. His abilities as an administrator were exceptional. He left his circuits stronger than he found them, carrying through difficult schemes and leaving them free from embarrassment. He had a quiet, genial manner and a warm and kind heart. No good cause appealed in vain for his practical sympathetic interest. During the last ten years of his life he lived at Penzance. Here he continued to do a full share of preaching work, and at the same time threw his energies into municipal affairs. Four times he served as Mayor of the Borough, and his skill and tact were seen to advantage in Council, Committee and on the Bench. He was greatly trusted, honoured, and beloved. The whole town and all the Churches testified their reverent sorrow, and many in the Circuits where he had laboured experienced a sense of loss when he passed peacefully away after a very brief illness on November 12, 1927, in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

(20) JOHN ALDRED: born at Swinton, Lancashire, June 28, 1846. During a celebration of the Lord's Supper he consecrated himself to Christ and, at an early age, devoted himself to Sunday-school work, commencing to preach when he was sixteen. At the end of his college career at Didsbury he began his ministry in the Knighton Circuit. His knowledge of Methodist polity was wisely used in the administrative work of his circuits and, as a preacher, he was a skilful exponent of the evangelical aspects of Christian truth and experience; while the deep spirituality and fervour of his prayers will be long remembered. He retired to St. Albans in 1904, and during the next twenty-three years brought great blessing to the congregations and homes throughout the Circuit. While in his company one was constantly impressed by the rare beauty and holiness of his character. To him, indeed, the unseen was far more real than the seen. The last eight months of his life were marked by extreme weakness, and he passed away on November 13, 1927, in the eighty-second year of his life and the sixty-first of his ministry.

(21) JOSEPH R. BROADHEAD: born at Holmfirth in 1850. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1873, and after training at Richmond was appointed to the Calcutta District, and for twenty-one years ministered with great success not only to English congregations but also in vernacular work. In 1897 he returned to England, where for fourteen years his ministry was greatly blessed in each of his circuits. In 1911 he became a Supernumerary, and obtained permission to reside in South Africa, where several members of his family were living. For fourteen years he took pastoral charge of the church at Claremont, in the Cape Town circuit. Under the inspiration of his gracious and deeply spiritual ministry, the congregations soon began to increase in numbers, and his work was an unqualified success. He was a man of charming personality, and possessed in a remarkable way, the gift of winning the hearts of the young. He had deep convictions, which were rooted and grounded in a vital experience of Christ. He was pre-eminently a man of prayer, and spent much time in communion with his Master. The strength of his character was adorned by a gracious humility and brotherly kindness which made him deeply beloved in the three continents in which he laboured. He passed peacefully away on November 19, 1927, after a continuous ministry of fifty-two years.

(22) WILLIAM H. ROWE: born in Cumberland March 18, 1907. His father died when he was three years old, and the mother with her family of six boys and one girl removed to Manchester. In 1916, at the age of nine, he entered the Children's Home at Edgworth. As time went on he showed great promise and was given special opportunities of study. His influence on the other boys was such that he built up a Society Class of fifty. At seventeen he began to preach and was accepted as a Candidate in 1927. He was sent to Wellington (Salop), and during the two months of his ministry won golden opinions as a preacher and speaker. His charm of personality, lofty idealism and unique gifts were recognised by all who knew him. He died on November 22, 1927, in his twenty-second year.

(23) W. Attfield Leach: born at Bridport, May 21, 1847. The son of the late Rev. Thomas Leach, he was educated at Kingswood School, and in 1872 entered our Ministry. He retired from the active work in 1909, and passed peacefully away to the fuller life on November 29, 1927, aged eighty years. He was thoughtful and spiritual, a diligent, earnest and persevering toiler in the things which are highest and best. He led his hearers to living waters and quiet pastures, which enriched the mind, gladdened the heart and made them very sure of God. For several years he was incapacitated from active service by physical weakness, but he fought a good fight with human infirmities, and through grace divine won a constant victory.

(24) Joseph G. Benson: born at Halifax in 1858. His mother was a staunch Methodist; and, after training at Richmond, he was ordained in March 1883, and sent to South Africa. After eleven years of missionary work severe malaria compelled his return to England, and for the next twenty-nine years he did diligent and loving service, until a complete breakdown in November 1923 closed his active ministry. Four quiet years were passed in the Redditch Circuit, where he had laboured in earlier days. Wide mental interests added to his friendships and gave both variety and zest to his public work. In religious things he was ever open-minded, and was in touch with human life and thought to the end of his service. His home-life was beautiful; his doings with men combined human love with the pity of God; his pulpit ministry was impressive and memorable. On December 6, 1927, his spirit quietly entered into rest.

(25) Robert Jones (d): born at Llanegryn, November 22, 1840. At a prayer meeting, during the religious revival of 1859, he experienced the saving grace of God, and made a final decision for Christ. Entering the Ministry in 1862, he soon took high rank as a preacher. His carefully prepared sermons were truly evangelical and delivered with passion and power. He had a dignified and courteous bearing, and exercised a gracious influence in the homes of our people. Not the least of his charms was his ready wit, which, with his kindly manner and courtesy, made him a delightful companion. Retiring from active work in 1898, he spent his latter years at Towyn, where he crowned an honourable, active ministry with a quiet life of remarkable intellectual vitality and of exemplary loyalty to Christ and to the Church. He died on December 7, 1927, in the eighty-seventh year of his age and the sixty-fifth of his ministry.

(26) William C. Bourne: born at Burslem in 1855. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1877, and spent three happy and useful years at Didsbury. He was, throughout his life, a wide reader and a diligent student. In all his circuits he was greatly beloved. As an expository preacher he excelled, never forgetting the chief end of preaching. Letters received since his death reveal what he often longed for, that many responded to those appeals, though the preacher never knew it. He had a strong personality. Fidelity and conscientiousness were marked characteristics, and never sparing himself, he attended with assiduous care to the smaller as well as the greater points of our discipline. In all departments of ministerial service he was faithful and successful, and his early retirement, through the failure of his voice when at the zenith of his powers, was a great loss to the Church he loved. Those who were privileged to know him during the years of his retirement carry with them the impression made by the keenness of his intellectual life, the freshness of his outlook and his unmurmuring patience and child-like trust in the goodness of God. He passed away in perfect peace on Christmas Day, 1927.

(27) GEORGE WOODCOCK: born at Sheffield in 1848. To know this servant of God was to honour him, but to appreciate fully his true worth and greatness it was necessary to break through the natural reserve which characterised his ministerial life and service. His ministry was eminently successful, but he was loth to proclaim its triumphs. So inborn was his belief in the ultimate triumph of the Gospel he preached, that doubtful methods to popularise its presentation never appealed to him. While a preacher of no mean order, it was in his pastoral oversight and concern for others that he revealed the sympathy and extraordinary tenderness of his nature. His heart was filled with a desire to succour and comfort the distressed, who keenly appreciated his sympathy. He was a winsome preacher and a wide reader. Full of years, with an honoured record, this selfless man and stainless gentleman was suddenly called home on January 2, 1928, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(28) J. CROMPTON SOWERBUTTS: born at Ardwick, Manchester, July 28, 1849. He had the privilege of an earnest Wesleyan home, and early in life he was converted to God and at once began to throw his energies into the cause of Christ. He entered Richmond in 1869 as an enthusiastic missionary student. With great business ability, he combined a warm heart, intense zeal and considerable intellectual power. He was sent to the Mysore District, from which he returned in 1877 owing to a severe breakdown in health. He never ceased to be a missionary in spirit, and his work as an advocate of the missionary cause will long be remembered. He was a preacher of outstanding ability, an able superintendent and a diligent pastor. As Chairman of the Devonport and Plymouth District he filled the position with ability and grace, ever keeping in the foreground, amid far-reaching schemes, the missionary work that was so dear to him. He won the hearts of his people by his brotherliness and his remarkable union of geniality with decision and organising power. In spite of heavy bereavement and affliction, he maintained through the years a youthfulness of spirit that endeared him to all. His last years were specially happy, and the sunset glow of his life seemed likely to be long continued. But the call came suddenly, and in a few moments he passed from us on January 3, 1928, at Clevedon.

(29) George J. Ayre, B.A.: born at St. Johns, Newfoundland, December 13, 1851. He entered the Ministry in 1879. He died on January 20, 1928, at Coulsdon, Surrey.*

(30) Robert Watkin-Jones: born at Dinas Mawddwy, December 1, 1850. As a local preacher in Bradford he came under the influence of the Rev. W. O. Simpson, by whom he was brought forward as a Candidate. After a year at Porlock, he went to Didsbury College, where he owed much to Dr. W. B. Pope. For forty-one years he exercised a gracious ministry and endeared himself to the people wherever he went. His never-failing geniality and business acumen made him a wise administrator. In preaching he was expository and persuasive, in prayer he was mighty. As a pastor he was diligent and sympathetic; little children loved him. Modest, courteous, fearless, he exemplified a Christian character which grew in strength and beauty. In 1919 he retired to Llangollen, where for nearly seven years his influence was always uplifting to all who came within its circle. In 1926 he took up residence in Edinburgh, where the kindly and genial influence of his saintly life made itself felt, especially during the last weeks of illness. With a radiant smile he passed into the presence of his Lord on February 5, 1928, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(31) Bernard T. Smith, M.A.: born at Thurlstone in 1888, the son of godly parents. After having entered the teaching profession, he became conscious of a call to the Ministry. Leaving Handsworth in 1914, he went to the Manchester Mission. Shortly afterwards he joined the Army, serving in the ranks and subsequently becoming a chaplain. On his demobilisation he was appointed to the Manchester (Regent Road) Circuit, where his fine Christian character and devoted work gained the respect and affection of all. In 1922 he was appointed to Glasgow (Paisley Road). Serious problems were solved by dint of sound judgment, wise administration and unceasing endeavour. For three years he faithfully discharged the duties of Secretary of the District, at the same time succeeding in taking his Degree at Glasgow University. When apparently in the full vigour of his life he was stricken down suddenly, and passed away after a very brief illness on February 16, 1928. Modest, courageous, utterly devoted to his Lord, and with a high sense of the privilege and responsibility of his vocation, he won the love of old and young alike, and in the latter years particularly he was greatly encouraged in the abundant fruit to his ministry in the young life of his church.

(32) T. Nicholls Roberts: born at Corris in the Machynlleth Circuit, October 15, 1857, and slept in Jesus at Llanfyllin, February 16, 1928. He was brought up in a truly religious home, his father being a well-known Methodist Sunday-school worker. He was truly converted when quite young, and consecrated his gifts and life to the service of Christ. Possessed of a sunny and lovable disposition, with remarkable tenderness, he endeared himself to the hearts of our people. His gifts were varied and unique, and he served the Church he loved with distinction. His preaching and public speaking were characterised by originality, naturalness, lucidity, a gift of homely illustration, a fund of tender and sanctified humour and much evangelical fervour. His humility, his charm, and his intense spirituality will long be remembered.

* This is all that he wished to be recorded.

(33) FREDERICK LAW: born at Parkgate, near Rotherham, July 29, 1849. He became a scholar at the Parkgate Sunday-school, and later on an active worker in the church and school. At the age of seventeen he began to preach, and several years later was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Didsbury. For forty-seven years he continued in the active work, fulfilling his ministry with unflagging zeal and devotion. In the pulpit he gave of his best, and delighted in expounding the Word of God. He was a diligent pastor, tender and sympathetic towards all who needed his help. In 1922 he became a Supernumerary, settling at Marazion where he had just concluded a four years' pastorate. After a few weeks of suffering he died on February 18, 1928, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(34) HENRY SMITH: born at Huntingfield, Suffolk, July 6, 1843. He was converted in his youth and before he was twenty became a local preacher in the Glossop Circuit. He was accepted as a Candidate and entered Didsbury in 1866. He served with honour and distinction in all his circuits, and became a Supernumerary in 1911. He was a preacher of exceptional charm, and his presence in the sick-room was a benediction to those whom he visited. He was a wise administrator and always sought to uphold the best traditions of the Methodist Ministry. His writings displayed deep insight and literary grace. As a man, he was kindly and affectionate, always charitable in his judgments, and extremely modest. Throughout his ministry he was closely familiar with the best literature. The last few years of his life were spent quietly. He loved his brethren, he loved his Church, above all he loved his Lord. On February 26, 1928, he passed to the Father's House, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(35) G. BLANSHARD KEELING: son of Rev. E. Blanshard Keeling and grandson of Rev. Ralph R. Keeling. He was born at Morley, near Leeds, November 12, 1886. He entered the Ministry in 1913, and laboured with much acceptance till at Helston he was stricken down, and after nearly three months' illness passed to the Homeland on February 27, 1928. His simplicity, sincerity and winsomeness made a most attractive personality. A thoughtful, faithful, earnest preacher of the Gospel, he helped many to find sure footing on the Rock of Ages. Unsparing in pastoral work, he has left treasured memories in many homes. Everywhere he set himself to win the young for Christ, and was singularly successful. They swiftly recognised in him a friend and responded to his leadership with their love and confidence. A more loyal colleague could not be found in the ranks of our Ministry.

(36) RICHARD E. BRAY: born at St. Stephens-by-Saltash, April 26, 1838. He entered the Ministry in 1862. After seven circuits in the south-west of England, he moved to Lancashire and spent the rest of his life in the North. He served our Church with great devotion, turning difficulties to glorious gain. His preaching always had a definite aim; to exalt Christ was his supreme endeavour. He was an ideal pastor, greatly beloved by the people. He possessed in a rare degree the indefinable quality that men call charm. He had also the faculty of lifting hearts to a higher plane. He was refined and courteous, with an old-world dignity and kindliness. He lived out the Apostle's injunction: "Gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another." He grew old very beautifully, and peacefully fell asleep at Sleights, March 13, 1928, in the ninetieth year of his age and the sixty-sixth of his ministry.

(37) WILFRED S. HACKETT: born at Liverpool in 1870, was the son of the Rev. Thomas Hackett. He was educated at Liverpool and Kingswood School. From his earliest days he was consecrated to God, and began to preach while still a boy. He was accepted for the Ministry, and entered Didsbury in 1893. Beginning his circuit life at Oundle, for thirty-one years he gave, as a faithful steward, the best of his powers to the work, winning the love of the people wherever he travelled. His choice spirit, his cultured mind and manifest sincerity, inspired and helped all who come into contact with him. As a preacher, he was thoughtful, earnest and original. His sermons were always fresh and arresting and full of the Gospel. He took a delight in pastoral work, for he was intensely human and utterly unselfish. In the home his kindliness and sympathy, his radiant optimism and courage, drew to him both old and young. He was a diligent reader and thinker, with keen artistic tastes. In 1925 his health failed, but he held on bravely with the work he so fervently loved, and he was full of thoughts and plans for the furtherance of Christ's cause when the home call came to him on March 18, 1928.

(38) RICHARD PEART: for several years the "Father of the Conference." He began his ministry at Loughborough in 1856 and travelled in thirteen circuits. He became a Supernumerary in 1892, and after three years at Redland, Bristol, moved to Weston-super-Mare in 1895, where he resided until his death. He was greatly beloved and trusted, and was full of good works. He interested himself in a Working Lads' Club and found entertainment and games for the boys. He was mainly responsible for the erection of the Milton Road School-Chapel, and for many years was its chief pastor and most active worker. Though strongly attached to our doctrines and a faithful preacher of them, he had a wide-hearted charity and was much respected by ministers and workers in churches of other denominations. He was gracious and friendly, and could see and enjoy the humorous side of things, while his gentleness and sympathy made his pastoral visits to the sick most welcome. He was able to preach up to the last few years of his life, and attended public worship, in which he delighted, until his last few weeks. He was given to much prayer, and the greatest thing about him, and the most manifest, was his saintly character. He died at Weston-super-Mare on April 12, 1928, in his ninety-sixth year.

(39) ARTHUR W. COOKE, M.A.: born at Manchester, December 26, 1863, the son of a much-loved and widely respected layman of the Radnor Street Circuit. He was educated at Manchester Grammar School and at Manchester University. The influence of his father, together with that of the Rev. Dr. Henry J. Pope, and of his uncle, Dr. Edwin Jackson, honorary physician to Didsbury College, early led him into the service of Christ. He entered the Ministry in 1890, and was for two years assistant tutor at Handsworth. As a circuit minister his gentle, sympathetic and lovable nature led him into close personal relationship with all his members, making his pastoral work and his preaching of great service to those with whom he came in contact. A man of exceptionally wide interests, he rendered valuable service by his literary work. He retired in 1924, owing to continued ill-health, but engaged in active work in the Moseley Road Circuit, Birmingham. After nearly four months' illness he passed peacefully away on April 19, 1928, in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(40) JOHN JAMES BROWN: born on November 16, 1849, at Manchester. His active ministry of forty-four years was marked by faithful service and much honour. He was Chairman of the Carlisle and the Exeter Districts. He retired in 1919 to Budleigh Salterton, where he had formerly lived when Superintendent of the Devon and Dorset Mission, and where the affection of our people was increased by his loving zeal for their spiritual welfare. He was a man of high ideals, who worthily upheld the best traditions of the pastoral office and was esteemed for his unfailing fidelity and courtesy. He delighted in the order and dignity of public worship, and often enforced the duty and privilege of the Holy Communion. His fine presence, reverent bearing and excellent voice deepened the impression of the fervent and tender appeal of his preaching. A warm-hearted comrade, a wise counsellor, a loyal citizen with a profound sense of duty to the King and the State, he was a fine example of many-sided ministerial service. Almost his last words were, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." He passed peacefully away on April 20, 1928, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(41) FRANCIS BAILEY: born in Nelson, September 25, 1884. In his youth he gave himself to God, and soon found a sphere of Christian service in connection with Temple Street Church. At the age of twenty-three he was accepted as a Candidate and was trained at Handsworth. His ministry was marked by the utmost fidelity and thoroughness. His preaching was thoughtful and strongly evangelistic. By the brightness of his disposition he disguised from others the bodily weakness he must often have experienced in the performance of his pastoral duties. Patient kindliness characterised his relations with all sorts and conditions of men. As a colleague, he was the soul of loyalty. His memory will be gratefully enshrined in the lives of many whom he helped to find the Saviour, and of many others whom he challenged by his own life to a fuller dedication of themselves to the service of Christ. On April 22, 1928, he passed peacefully from among us, in the prime of his manhood.

(42) THOMAS KIRKUP: born in the hamlet of Urpeth, in the county of Durham, on July 1, 1866. From the Methodist yeoman stock whence he sprang he inherited, with his stalwart frame, the virile intelligence, capacity for taking pains, keen sense of values, love of order and reverent spirit which the grace of God built into a character of exceptional moral force and high spiritual attainment. Cheerfully answering a powerful inward persuasion that he must preach the gospel he so ardently believed, he offered for the Ministry in 1887. After three profitable years at Didsbury, he travelled successively in Leeds, Harrogate, Liverpool, Bristol and Truro. In every circuit he exercised a rich and fruitful ministry, still remembered with thankfulness by many who profited under it.

His exceptional executive ability early brought him into prominence, and led to his appointment as Financial Secretary of the Liverpool District and later of the Bristol and Bath District. At the Conference of 1910 he was called to the Home Mission Department, where both his evangelistic sympathies and his talent for organisation found a congenial sphere. In this happy service he continued until his death. In 1916 he became Secretary of the Connexional Fund; and when the Sustentation Fund was inaugurated in 1920, he was unanimously appointed Secretary to the Committee of that Fund also. To his skilful and patient investigation and his firm grasp of detail, the success and smooth working of the fund is largely due. Six years ago he was elected Secretary of the Conference. To this office he brought the passion for thoroughness and accuracy, the readiness for prolonged toil, the balanced judgment, the kindly sympathy, the intimate knowledge of connexional affairs which distinguished all his work and won him a place among the foremost of Conference Secretaries. Meanwhile his gift of clear exposition and concise speech, his wide human sympathies, his whole-hearted zeal for the heavenly Kingdom gave high value to his pulpit and platform ministrations and brought him constant requests for public service. Withal he put on his Master's heart of compassion; and even amid the heavy demands of his office he was ever ready to prove himself the friend and helper of such as were overtaken by sorrow or adversity. So in abundant and continuous, at times exacting, yet always happy toil he cheerfully spent himself in the service of the Church he loved. But, as now appears, it was at too great a strain upon his physical powers. Sudden indisposition, at first not thought to be serious, developed alarming symptoms. There was no time for farewells; but with the ready obedience which characterised his whole career he answered the swift summons, and on May 3, 1928, entered into the joy of his Lord.

(43) Thomas R. Pickering: born at Lumley, Co. Durham, in 1848 and died at Gomersal, May 18, 1928. He was brought up in the Established Church but joined our fellowship from sincere convictions and under an imperative call to preach the Gospel. Trained at Didsbury, he was for many years a successful evangelist, whose harvest of souls bore witness that his ministry was from God. His voice was specially adapted for out-door preaching, in which he was singularly blessed. He was valiant for the Truth. The call of the East was always with him, and he was a keen student of the ancient monuments, especially in relation to their witness to the truth of the Holy Scriptures. A faithful pastor, a wise administrator, a sympathetic friend, he will be remembered with affection in all his circuits. After adorning the doctrine of Christ, his Saviour, in all things, he died with words of praise upon his lips, on May 18, 1928, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(44) John Elsworth: born at Shipley, August 30, 1858. He was trained at Westminster College, but after some years as a teacher was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Headingley. He began his ministry in 1885, and did some of his best work in Scarborough, Hull, Sheffield, and Leeds. His last circuit was Ipswich, where after four years the failure of his health led him to become a Supernumerary in 1923. His remarkable knowledge of Methodist law enabled him to render conspicuous service in committees and synods, and especially as Assistant Secretary of the Conference. He edited various important works on our polity with the utmost care. In all his circuits he proved himself a faithful expositor of God's Word, a loving pastor, a wise and gracious administrator. His winning personality endeared him to young and old. He set a fine example of scrupulous fidelity to duty, and adorned his profession by his character and work. He abounded in zeal and devotion till on May 24, 1928, he passed from us in peace.

(45) Stephen J. Little: born at Bristol, December 28, 1853. He was trained as a dentist, but became convinced of a Divine call to the Ministry and was accepted as a Candidate in 1879. He was a keen student and devoted worker. His knowledge of the Scriptures became remarkably rich and accurate. He was fervent and believing in prayer, valiant for truth and righteousness, and steadfastly zealous for the Kingdom of God. Physical infirmities early disclosed themselves and clung to him persistently to the end. A strict but prudent self-discipline alone enabled him to live and continue his powerful and gracious ministry. His preaching aroused wide interest, was terse, thought-stirring, conscience-searching and thoroughly evangelical. Homely but apt illustrations would fix his message in mind and heart. Under a manner a little austere lay a wealth of generous kindness and chivalrous tenderness. For eighteen years he was a Supernumerary at Portishead, seven of them being spent in pastoral charge. They who knew him best revered and loved him most. He passed in peace to his reward on May 29, 1928.

(46) Isaiah Jones: born at Liverpool, June 1, 1857, but spent his youth at Llanrwst in North Wales. The decisive religious influence in his life was his mother. He began to preach at Conway, when fifteen years of age; was accepted as a Candidate in 1875, and went to Didsbury. His first appointment was to the Tregarth Circuit. There he sprang at once into great popularity as a preacher, and was in constant request throughout North and South Wales. After eleven years in the Welsh Ministry, he was transferred to the English work, in which he laboured for thirty-one years, mostly in the North of England. He was a man of strong personality, large-hearted and broad-minded. He had pre-eminent gifts as a preacher, his sermons being characterised by originality, clearness, freshness of thought, and felicity of illustration and diction. As a colleague he was loyal and sympathetic, with a keen insight into human nature. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1920, he served for four years in the Leicester (Bishop Street) Circuit. In 1927 he removed to Cradley, near Malvern. He preached within a Sunday or two of his death, and passed away peacefully on his seventy-first birthday, June 1, 1928, in the fifty-first year of his ministry.

(47) William Brookes: born at Smethwick in 1844. He received his first-class ticket at the age of fourteen, became a local preacher at eighteen, and was accepted as a Candidate in 1865. After training at Didsbury he spent forty-six years in circuit work, making full proof of his ministry. For seven years as Chairman of the Macclesfield District he was thoroughly efficient and was highly respected by laymen and ministers alike. As a colleague he was much loved by his brethren. In his preaching he preferred to deal with the great central certainties of our Faith, and brought truth and grace to many. In his pastoral work he found much joy and was made a blessing to the sick and sorrowful. In all he did he was a workman who needed not to be ashamed, serving with great fidelity and cheerfully meeting the most exacting demands upon his time and strength. To the end he gave attention to reading, and was ever ready to welcome new light. In 1914 he became a Supernumerary at Weston-super-Mare, and subsequently in the Cheddar and Banwell Circuit where his pulpit ministrations were much valued by the congregations. His beautiful Christian character, unassuming manners and charming personality made his eventide a benediction till he passed from us on June 6, 1928.

(48) D. Arundel Hay: born in Leeds, May 2, 1848. He was a son of the Rev. David Hay, and at an early age gave himself wholeheartedly to the service of his Saviour. Accepted as a Candidate in 1872, he spent a faithful and zealous ministry of forty years in the Midlands and the North. In 1912 he became a Supernumerary at Market Rasen and afterwards at Cleethorpes. He was a powerful expository preacher. Many young men, some now in the Ministry, were richly instructed and permanently fortified by his teaching in class and in pulpit. He was wise in administration, conspicuously diligent and painstaking in pastoral attention and memorably helpful to those in trouble and distress. It was said of him, "He was always about his Master's business." He possessed a rare genius for friendship, and true brotherliness was one of his outstanding features. Increasing infirmities were cheerfully and hopefully borne, till he slept in Jesus on June 8, 1928, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(49) Thomas J. Spragg: born at Aylesbury, April 22, 1851. His parents were devoted Methodists. He received a good education in his native town, and offering for the ministry in 1879, was sent immediately into circuit work. Possessed of a vigorous and forceful personality, for twenty-two years he rendered faithful and efficient service, staying a full term in each circuit. Under a prolonged and severe strain, his health gave way and he was never again able to take up the full work of the ministry, though up to within the last four years he was able to take an occasional service. As a preacher he excelled; he had a good delivery, his discourses revealed his intimate knowledge of current literature and were greatly enjoyed. A faithful pastor, with a sympathy which always went out to those in trouble, his visits were much appreciated. The end came suddenly on June 24, 1928, after only two days' illness.

(50) Llewelyn Morgan: born at Port Talbot, March 6, 1872. In early life he was converted and became an acceptable local preacher. Accepted as a Candidate in 1896, he was for two years an assiduous student at Richmond. His ministry was spent in the South Wales District, where he was stationed in several Circuits for a second term. He did valuable work on the United Hymn Book Committee of the Welsh Wesleyan and Calvinistic Methodists. He wrote the history of several of the Circuits in which he travelled, and contributed frequently to the Welsh magazines. His was a strong personality and his deep and enlightened social sympathies exerted a powerful influence over many who never came under direct Christian influence. His preaching was intellectual and evangelical and made profound truths intelligible to the simplest of his hearers. He was abreast of modern thought and literature and yet loyal and faithful to the fundamental and saving truths of the Gospel. He was welcomed in the homes of the people, and was beloved of his brethren. After a few weeks severe illness he peacefully passed into the presence of his Lord on July 1, 1928, in the fifty-sixth year of his age and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(51) C. Wilfrid Cook: born at Whitehaven, July 1, 1856. From the time of his early surrender to God, he never looked back. To him the call of Jesus Christ was irresistible; and he at once became an ardent student of divine things. After serving one year as a "supply," he spent three years at Headingley College, where studious habits were formed which were kept up assiduously through life. His was the magnanimous mind, the broad-based charity, the well-balanced judgment and the chivalrous spirit. As a faithful preacher, a conscientious pastor, a loyal colleague, an endearing friend and a saint of the catholic type, he was much respected and appreciated. His closing days were somewhat overshadowed by a painful affection, but it was borne with fortitude and patience; and to the end, he was at home amid thoughts of the temple, its hallowed ministries, its entrancing mysteries, its special sanctities, its peculiar forecasts. He entered into rest on July 3, 1928.

(52) Arthur Hoyle: born at Lindley, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, February 2, 1857. Lindley was then a village where farm and factory lay close together under the hills and the moors. It was also a village where brains were active and where Methodism ran warm. All these things went to the making of Arthur Hoyle. His father was a small farmer; his own way lay through the factory to the Ministry. He was a Candidate in 1880, and spent four years at Headingley. Under the stimulus of college life his mind began to develop its own ample resources. His first appointments were in the East Midlands. Then he spent seven years in Scotland, where his mind reached full stature. At Inverness, too, his great journalistic gifts first won free scope. There also he began to take all English literature in fee. There he preached the sermons that were afterwards gathered into the volume The Depth and Power of the Christian Faith. In 1896 he left Scotland for Leeds, and subsequently travelled at Bath and Oxford. If a senior boy at Kingswood or a 'Varsity Undergraduate were struggling with his soul and the universe, Hoyle drew him like a magnet and showed him the unexpected Christ. From Oxford he passed to Aberdeen for six years, and then again to Leeds for seven. All the time he was winning a unique pulpit in the Methodist press. In 1918 he retired from circuit work, but for eight more years he poured out to willing thousands through the press the wealth of a rich and versatile mind. To multitudes he was a favourite journalist; many knew him as a consummate man of letters; his friends delighted in his humour and Yorkshire sagacity; but above all he was a preacher of the Gospel. He was a Methodist mystic, a master of spiritual fellowship with men because he knew how to be alone with God. After eighteen months of suffering, he entered into rest on July 9, 1928.

(53) William Mellor: born at Euxton, near Preston, January 12, 1847. His early religious experience owed much to his father, and to his uncle at Ormskirk with whom he lived in his youth. After training at Didsbury he was appointed to Brixham in 1870. In all his circuits the people heard him gladly. His sermons were marked by earnest and practical exhortation and evangelistic fervour. He was a tireless and devoted pastor. Throughout his ministry he kept in touch with the best literature. He retired from the full work in 1908, but in 1909 began a remarkable ministry which lasted for ten years as an active Supernumerary at Conway. During the war he organised social and religious work among the troops in the neighbourhood, and hundreds of soldiers came to love him as a father in God. The eventide of his work had the brightness of noon. His home call came on July 15, 1928, in the eighty-second year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(54) George MacNeill : born at Gretchvane, near Laxey, Isle of Man, January 19, 1858. Early in life he gave himself to Christ and to the work of His Church, and in 1886 was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Handsworth. Three years later he began his circuit work, and for thirty-two years he fulfilled a faithful and effective ministry until throat trouble led to his retirement in 1921. After becoming a Supernumerary he resided in the Bromley Circuit, preaching whenever opportunity occurred and rendering valuable pastoral service. He was a practical and effective preacher, a conscientious and careful administrator, and a diligent and sympathetic pastor. Of a retiring disposition, he yet had a power of friendship that endeared him to very many. He was knocked down by a motor-car on June 13, and after much suffering passed quietly to his rest on July 22, 1928.

(55) Josiah Banham : born at Cambridge, October 29, 1839, of Wesleyan parents. Four of his brothers, after leaving Cambridge University, became Church of England clergymen ; and one of his own sons is now Vicar of Christ Church, Woking, another is a well-known doctor in London. Of his sixteen appointments, eleven were in London, two in Bristol, one in Scarborough, Altrincham, and Manchester. Buoyant in temperament, and with an unaffected interest in his fellows, he attracted to himself all classes and conditions of people, who became bound to him as with hooks of steel. The young were always his friends. The Ministers daughters who were trained in Clapham hold him in affectionate remembrance. His preaching was in style simple, in spirit evangelical, in tone practical. Perhaps his deepest interest was with the young men who entered the Ministry. For many years he was the able secretary of the Richmond Executive, and his absence from the July Committee would have been surprising. The last few years were marked by physical weakness, but this only turned the energy of manhood into the calmness of age. His patient endurance and quiet submission to the Will of God taught and strengthened many. He leaves behind him a stainless memory, and his influence will long continue. He passed home on July 30, 1928, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

2. In Ireland, four :

(1) Benson E. Gentleman : who came of a Co. Kerry family, was born in London in 1850. He received a godly training from his widowed mother, so that he did not remember a time when he did not love the Lord Jesus Christ. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1875. His ministry extended over fifty-two years. He spent forty-five years in the active work, five in charge of Ringsend as a Supernumerary. In 1898 he was elected to the Secretaryship of the Methodist Orphan Society, in which congenial work he served the Connexion for six years. In 1907 he was appointed Secretary of the Children's Fund, and held this office until his death. He was the embodiment of the Gospel he proclaimed. His was the Christlike mind, devoted to the service of others. His soul was full of joy when his hands were full of work. His preaching was scriptural, practical and sympathetic, his aim being to bring men face to face with God in Jesus Christ. He was, in a special degree, every man's friend, and had not only the will but the ability to show himself friendly. Troubled hearts sought him, and little children ran to him with outstretched hands. His genial manner and his good common sense enabled him to ease many difficult situations. The end was brief and beautiful. One Sunday he worshipped twice in God's House —on the next, November 6, 1927—he was called to the upper sanctuary in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(2) WILLIAM R. MARTIN: born at Killarney, Co. Kerry, November 7, 1875. He was brought up in a Methodist home, trained amidst religious influences, and early in life gave himself to the Saviour. After spending some time in business, he was accepted as a Candidate in 1900. He exercised a gifted ministry, rendering faithful and fruitful service in many important spheres of labour. His preaching was thoughtful and forceful, and to his ministerial duties he brought business ability of a high order, revealing method, exactness, and thoroughness in all his work. In the Great War he served as Chaplain to the Forces in the Far East. On his return it was evident that his war service had seriously impaired his health, but in spite of failing strength he engaged courageously in the work he loved, and completed an active ministry of twenty-six years. At the Conference of 1927 he became a Supernumerary and took up his residence at Portstewart. The end came suddenly on December 23, 1927, in the fifty-third year of his age and the twenty-eighth of his ministry.

(3) WILLIAM E. MAGUIRE: born near Newtownbutler in 1863. In early life he was led to surrender his heart to Christ, and was accepted as a Candidate in 1887. Filled with deep evangelistic passion, he set himself by diligent pastoral care and earnest, persuasive preaching to induce others to enter the service in which he found his supreme joy. He thought no task too small and grudged no labour if it helped to bring men to God. He was singularly successful in conducting special missions, and by his calmly fervent zeal, combined with his attractive witness to Christ, led many to the knowledge of sins forgiven. In several notable revivals he threw himself with consuming energy into the hallowed toil, and to the end the fire of his passion for souls burned brightly. When the open-air crusade began in the Midlands of Ireland he gave himself with arduous and unstinted fervour to the new enterprise, and it was his joy to preach Christ in the fairs and markets. The later years of his ministry were exercised in the north, where he laboured with unabated devotion. He received the call home on January 31, 1928, in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the forty-first of his ministry.

(4) SAMUEL DUNLOP: born at Dromarrin, Gilford, in 1834. He was the child of godly parents, and at the age of thirteen had a definite experience of conversion. From the step he then took he never faltered, nor did he ever doubt the reality of God's Presence or of His redeeming and sanctifying grace. He received his first appointment as a minister in 1858. In every circuit he displayed characteristic zeal and enterprise. After thirty-eight years of unremitting toil he became a supernumerary, but it was only to continue in other forms the work he loved so well. In Portaferry for six years and in Rostrevor for nine years he rendered most devoted and effective service. Seventeen years ago he took up residence in Bangor, where he became a unique and well-known figure, loved and respected by all. Preaching and visiting were to him a great delight. Until near the end he frequently occupied the pulpits of our churches, and always to the spiritual profit of his hearers. His physical vitality was astonishing. A constant visitor of the aged and the sick, he walked many miles every day on his ministry of helpfulness and comfort. No less remarkable was his mental vigour, and his sustained interest in current affairs, especially in everything pertaining to the Kingdom of God. The Bible was his constant study. He could repeat with ease many long passages, and in preaching would weave different texts together in a most skilful and suggestive way. In public prayer he had a striking gift of simplicity and directness. He had learned to relate everything to God, and in child-like confidence he poured out his soul to the Heavenly Father. His was a radiant and attractive character, a life of joyous and wholehearted service for Christ and His Church, till on April 18, 1928, he passed within the veil, in the ninety-fifth year of his age and the seventieth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, thirteen :

(1) Ebenezer O. Lartey : born of non-Christian parents at Lartey-Ahenase in the Akwapim District of the Gold Coast about the year 1878. He was educated in the Aburi Wesleyan School, and later became a teacher-catechist. Having been accepted for the Ministry, he entered Richmond College, but after only a few months' residence he was called out to supply in the Anamaboe Circuit in 1910. He died on August 30, 1927, after rendering seventeen years of active and useful ministry. He was a devout minister, a cheerful worker and diligent pastor ; and he exerted a great influence for good over the people with whom he lived.

(2) Don Thomas T. Wijayasingha : converted as a school-boy after a period of opposition to Christianity. His decision to become a Christian brought upon him the displeasure of his Buddhist relatives, but then, as ever since, he was true to his convictions. The zeal which he had shown before his conversion in defending Buddhism was afterwards employed with characteristic thoroughness in the defence and propagation of Christianity, his own knowledge of Buddhism peculiarly fitting him to deal with the difficulties of his Buddhist neighbours. He served with acceptance in most of our leading circuits, and everywhere won the respect and affection of our people. His work as a circuit minister was done with fidelity and sympathy. Conscientious, outspoken and thoroughly genuine, he endeared himself to his brethren in the Ministry, with all of whom his relations were those of mutual goodwill. After thirty-four years of faithful work as a minister, he passed away suddenly on November 3, 1927.

(3) Thomas Huckerby : born at Burton-on-Trent in 1869. In 1894 he entered the ranks of our Ministry in the West Indies, and laboured in the islands of St. Vincent, St. Lucia, Trinidad and Grenada. Almost half of his ministerial life was spent in St. Vincent, and it is there that he is most affectionately remembered. To him the Brotherhood of the Ministry was a very real thing—a thing to rejoice in. His abounding vitality, his gift of humour, and his ever-ready sympathy, endeared him more and more to his brethren. His frankness and sincerity won for him the respect of all who came into contact with him. His fearlessness in defending the cause which he believed to be right, and in helping those who were in need, combined with his deep love for the poor, gave him an abiding place in the hearts of many. His archæological researches brought him into intimate connection with distinguished scientists and institutions both in Europe and America. He served with distinction on many public bodies, devoting himself as earnestly to the welfare of the community as to the more immediate interests of the Church. Thus, toiling and rejoicing, he spent his life in the service of God and the people, labouring to within a week of his death. He passed peacefully away on November 11, 1927.

(4) Ashu Tosh Banerji: who passed to his rest on December 15, 1927, after a ministry extending over forty-two years. He spent the greater part of his active life at Raniganj, where he proved himself a faithful and devoted pastor, tending with great care and patience a community which, both from its origin and its difficult surroundings, has always presented peculiar difficulties. As an Honorary Magistrate for many years, he brought credit and honour to his Church. After a short term of service in Calcutta, in which he was greatly handicapped by increasing ill-health, he was compelled in 1921 to become a Supernumerary. The long months of weakness and suffering were borne with characteristic patience, and to him the passing was indeed a release.

(5) Samuel Clark: born at Navenby, Lincolnshire, February 20, 1856. While an apprentice in Lincoln he was converted to God, and soon began to preach. After training at Richmond College, he began his ministry in South Africa in 1881 as successor to the Rev. Peter Hargreaves at Emfundisweni; after the annexation of Pondoland, he planted church buildings wherever possible, placing evangelists at each centre. After a fruitful interval of European work at Cradock, he returned to Eastern Pondoland to establish the Ludeke Mission. The fine mission house and church at Ludeke were built largely by the labour of his own hands, and the work of this extensive circuit remains a memorial of his energy, devotion, and self-denying toil. For nine years he was Secretary of the Missionary Society. He loved the native people, and was ever prepared to battle for their rights. He was a wise administrator and a preacher of great power. His devotion to the distinctive doctrines of Methodism was intense, and his love of God's House amounted to a passion. In 1918 he was elected President of the Conference. He passed to his reward on January 12, 1928, in the seventy-second year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(6) Paul Ahamparam: born in 1850 in the village of Atchuvely in the Jaffna Peninsula. His parents were strong Sivites, and as a youth he was a zealous and regular temple worshipper. When quite young he was taken by some of his relatives to Trincomalie, where he was afterwards a teacher in a Sivite school. Here he came in contact with the Mission, and special interest was shown in him. His mother was shipwrecked off the Trincomalie coast. She and all on board perished. This led him to serious thought and he was baptised in December 1869. His Christian work began as a teacher in the Kaddaiveli school. He also did some very useful evangelistic work in the villages. He was received into the Ministry in 1880. He spent upwards of forty years in the Eastern Province and the last fifteen years in the Nilaveli Circuit. He died on February 18, 1928, in his seventy-eighth year. No minister in our ranks was more beloved. His work was faithful and evangelical. He was humble in spirit, punctual in the discharge of his duties, cheerful and willing. He lived a life of self-sacrifice. His outstanding characteristics were loyalty to Christ and faithfulness to his Church. With real earnestness, and a passion for souls, he was the means of bringing many a simple villager to the knowledge of Christ.

(7) Dwarka Nath Das: who passed away on February 21, 1928, in the forty-second year of his ministry. Born of Hindu parents, and converted in early manhood, he joined the Wesleyan Mission as a Catechist. Several years of approved study and service prepared him for training in our Barrackpur Institution, whence he was received into the Indian Ministry in 1886. He laboured in four Circuits, and became a Supernumerary in 1908. A diligent and sympathetic pastor, a true friend to the poor and down-trodden, an effective preacher, he was at his best in the open air, and in argument with objectors. Physically sturdy, he delighted in long days of preaching in the villages: difficult conditions failed to depress him. A reader and thinker, he translated into his own vernacular Bulter's Analogy. The loyalty of his heart to Christ was unwavering: to preach Him was the joy of his life.

(8) Simeon P. Johnson: who entered our ministry in 1879 after splendid work as schoolmaster and Catechist. He became Superintendent of a pioneer circuit when we entered into the interior from the coast town of Lagos. Here he suffered great hardships and was bitterly persecuted by the fetish priests, who broke into his house and robbed him of his goods. In those heroic days he rendered admirable service as in later years he did in many different circuits. He was a fine vernacular preacher and had a wonderful command of English. He was held in esteem and affection by all classes of the community and died in triumph on April 15, 1928.

(9) F. McKenzie Turner: a child of the Manse, he received early Christian training, and as a young man responded heartily to the call of service for the Master. In British Guiana for several years he combined an active business career with the life of a servant of Jesus Christ, till in 1909 he was accepted as a Probationer in the British Guiana District. In 1920 he was appointed to the Leeward Islands District and travelled successively in St. Kitts, Antigua, St. Eustatius and Nevis. He stood firmly by the evangelical message of the Gospel and preached it with power. In recent years failing health became apparent and on May 8, 1928, he passed almost suddenly into the presence of His Lord.

(10) W. Turnbull Balmer, M.A., B.A., B.D.: born at Philadelphia, a mining village in Durham, on October 16, 1866. He became a pupil teacher, and after training at Westminster College was appointed Headmaster of the Wesleyan School at Tenby. He was received into the Ministry by the Conference of 1899, and two years later fulfilled the desire of his heart by answering the call for an educational missionary for West Africa. At Richmond College in Freetown, the Mfantsipim High School at Cape Coast, and in the Fourah Bay College, he won an extraordinary influence among boys and young men as a sympathetic and wise teacher. He was compelled to return to England by ill-health, but in 1922 became the first Wesleyan missionary set apart for West African literature. His little manuals and books sprang out of his own intimate understanding of the African mind. They have been translated into several African languages and distributed by tens of thousands. His last service was to go to the Ivory Coast, where he attempted to reduce satisfactorily to writing the Adjukru language. He had just finished a new version of St. Mark's Gospel in that tongue when he passed away a few weeks after reaching home on May 15, 1928. Sensitive, reserved, quiet, he used a delightful humour among his friends, and was deeply loved by his African colleagues and pupils.

(11) Robert E. Newton: born at Lincoln, September 4, 1886. Accepted for the Ministry in 1907, he was trained at Richmond, and then served for twelve years in home circuits where he was greatly beloved. He was well read, thoughtful, painstaking and thorough, and made a strong appeal to the young. He had a peculiar power of sympathy, and was a wise counsellor to many. In 1924 he went out to Sierra Leone, where his special teaching powers enabled him to render distinguished service as Principal of the Boys' High School at Freetown. As friend and adviser of African youth, his memory will be cherished by the students for years to come. He arrived at Swanwick to share in the Layman's Missionary Conference, but symptoms of pneumonia led to his removal to the Royal Infirmary at Derby, where he passed away the following morning, June 8, 1928, in the forty-second year of his age and the eighteenth of his ministry.

(12) David D. Bolani: born of Christian parents in 1863. He was educated at Healdtown Training College, and for many years was a teacher evangelist. In 1904 he was accepted for the African ministry, and to the last day of his life loved Methodism with a deep passion. He was a mighty temperance advocate, and many a native church came to rejoice in his fearless campaign for teetotalism. He strongly opposed racialism among the native races, averring that in the Church of Jesus Christ they were all one. His Christian life may best be described by the word "radiant." His joy was infectious. "My people carry heavy burdens," he used to say. "I live to bring smiles to their faces." He lived for them, prayed for them, served them with a great love, and literally died for them. The climax to his last illness came as he was visiting the sick. Even the doctor marvelled at his triumphant courage. He went Home on June 22, 1928, and most surely heard his Master's: "Well done!"

(13) Ernesto Filippini, Cav. Uff., D.Lit., whose obituary will appear next year.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

In the Synod.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

In the Conference.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

OVERSIGHT OF PROBATIONERS.

Q. XXXVII. What is the Report upon the Oversight and Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report:

The Probationers required to take studies numbered 191, of whom 5 were on Foreign Stations. All except one (who took only examinations) took subjects in groups as prescribed: two took one examination instead of a group subject, and sixteen took two examinations in place of two group subjects. Seven non-collegiates began elementary Greek, and four were allowed to take Matriculation subjects; all took the prescribed theology. With a few exceptions all sent in their study-papers punctually. Forty-three gained first class honours, and a hundred and fourteen second class.

The Honours List for the year is given on the next page.

by the Panel of Directors of Studies and the Board of Correspondence-Tutors.

The scheme in detail is re-printed below.

3. Revised General Regulations:

(1) The subjects for study in each of the first three years of Probation shall be four in number, viz.:—(A) New Testament, (B) Old Testament, (C) Theology, in the third year especially Methodist Doctrine and Polity, and (D) Church History, or Philosophy, or the Study of Social Problems. In the fourth year the subjects shall be three in number, viz.:—(A), (B), and (C), omitting (D).

N.B.—The subject under (D) shall be chosen by the General Secretaries, in consultation with the College Tutors, and shall be consecutive during the years of Probation. All Probationers shall be required to include in their studies the prescribed subjects in the Old and New Testament. All Probationers who have passed through the Institution shall take these subjects in Hebrew and Greek respectively, unless they are exempted on the authority of the College Staff. Application for such exemption must be made at the beginning of the Connexional Year.

(2) In these subjects, in place of the system of independent study with a final examination, each Probationer shall study under the guidance of a Tutor in each subject, who shall direct his work and test it at suitable intervals.

(3) The report of the Connexional Committee to the May Synods shall be based on the reports of the Tutors in the various subjects, care being taken to secure an adequate estimate both of the amount and quality of the work.

(4) The scheme shall be worked out as follows:

I.—A small panel of Directors of Studies shall be appointed, to consist of four groups, with three members for each (one for each of the four subjects of study). The heads of groups dealing with subjects (A) (B), and (C), shall be Tutors at the Theological Institution, and the Tutors shall be expected to take this duty in rotation. For each of the subjects under (D) a Tutor at the Institution shall be asked to serve continuously from year to year, with two Assessors.

Their duty shall be to prepare a series of four study-papers before September in subjects (A) to (C), and of three study-papers before Easter in subjects under (D), and to forward to the General Secretaries.

II.—A large Panel of Correspondence-Tutors shall be appointed, whose work will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the General Secretaries, and to despatch a study-paper to each Probationer in subjects (A) to (C) at intervals of about six weeks, commencing in September. In the case of subjects under (D), the three study-papers shall be distributed between Easter and Conference, during the first three years of Probation only.

(b) To receive the work of each Probationer at the end of each period of six weeks, examine and mark it, register the mark, and return to the Probationer with suitable guidance.

(c) To return their reports to the General Secretaries as soon as possible after March 31, or, in the case of subjects under (D), after June 30.

III.—In this connection the work of the General Secretaries will be :

(a) To receive the study-papers from the Directors of Studies, and despatch them to the Correspondence-Tutors.

(b) To receive the reports from the Correspondence-Tutors in April (or for subjects under (D) in June), and to present them to the General Committee, which will report to the Synods as at present.

(c) To receive the recommendations of the Synods and present them to the General Committee.

IV.—The system here outlined shall apply to all Probationers except in cases where, in the judgment of the Secretaries (in consultation with the College Tutors), the older method of an annual examination without tutorial guidance may appear preferable in one or more subjects.

The arrangements for the selection of examiners for Probationers who take advantage of section IV shall be at the discretion of the General Secretaries. The date for the Examination under this Section is March 28, 1929.

(5) The marks of all study courses shall be returned in percentages and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole study course in each subject. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 per cent. or over to Second Class Honours, while an average of under 35 per cent. shall involve failure in the whole course.

An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers who have attained Honours in the ordinary study courses, and also of those who have taken special subjects and have obtained an honours mark in the examination.

(6) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and an examination shall be held under his supervision for Probationers taking advantage of paragraph IV above, care being taken in selecting a place of examination to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved.

Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(7) Students who are called out of College into the Home work during the Connexional year shall not take the Probationers' Studies, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(8) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be assigned to Study Groups according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to begin the study of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Allocation Committee. From these Probationers a fourth (D) subject will not be required.

(9) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolutions upon them.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare a report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on all cases of failure from whatsoever cause.

(11) A Probationer who is prevented by illness or other imperative cause from sending in his answer-paper to his tutor or tutors at the appointed time shall send, at the time, a medical report to Rev. J. Grange Radford, B.D., who will inform the tutors; this medical report should indicate the length of time during which the Probationer is to be exempted from his studies. Should a Probationer, taking advantage of paragraph IV. above, be compelled to be absent from his examination, he shall communicate with his Chairman, and send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it, together with a full medical report; and the General Secretaries shall report their judgment to the Synod.

(12) Should any Probationer have been prevented from completing the year's work more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with a medical statement, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of his ordination.

(13) In the case of every Candidate for Ordination, a record of the whole of his studies during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries, and sent to the Synod, showing the average percentage each year, and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(14) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the Foreign Field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(15) A report on English Probationers on Foreign Stations in their fourth year shall be presented to the Probationers' Oversight Committee by the Missionary Secretaries.

(16) Book List.—The Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Probationers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. For the GENERAL REGULATIONS see Summary, pp. 189–214.

Preliminary Examination.

2. The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Revs. Arthur N. Rose, M.A., James D. Hall, J. Allan Fletcher. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a) and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Revs. Arthur Myers, T. Faulkner Jefferis, and E. Benson Perkins.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Wednesday and Thursday, April 3 and 4, 1929.

N.B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an examination qualifying for admission to any British University, or an equivalent Examination, are exempt from the Preliminary Literary Examination.

(2) Superintendents should send at once to Rev. A. E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey, the full names and exact addresses of Candidates recommended by the Quarterly Meeting.

Sermons.

3. Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A., c/o Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs.

July Committee.

4. (i) The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 7, 1929.

(ii) The Minister appointed by the Welsh Assembly shall be a Member of the Southern Section.

(iii) The Revs. ARTHUR E. SHARPLEY, B.A., B.D., and W. PERCY HUTTON, B.A., are re-appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(iv) All communications relating to Candidates must be addressed to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey.

(v) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. J. Wesley Hart are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. John W. Colwell to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

Educational Standard for Candidates.

The attention of Superintendents and prospective Candidates for the Ministry is called to the fact that ordinarily the Conference does not accept Candidates who do not reach a definite educational standard. The examination to test the Candidates' ability to reach this standard shall be the Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A "pass" representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible will ordinarily be required.

The Conference is strongly of opinion that the prescribed standard is a modest and reasonable requirement from men who offer themselves for the Christian Ministry, and considers it inadvisable to lower the standard. Recognising, however, that cases arise of Candidates whose failure to meet the required educational standard is more than counter-balanced by remarkable gifts in other directions, the Conference resolves that the above regulation shall not be so applied as to prevent either the acceptance of such Candidates or their being sent to the Theological Institution.

The Literary paper shall consist of:

(1) An Essay (20 marks).

It is recommended that not more than half an hour should be spent on this subject.

(2) Fifteen other questions of which any eight, but eight only may be taken (10 marks each).

(a) Five on English Literature (set books).
(b) Three on English Grammar and Analysis.
(c) Three on English History (a set period).
(d) Four on Arithmetic.

On this paper 50 per cent. shall be required.

Candidates who have a good secondary education, but have not matriculated, shall, before their Oral Examination, be interviewed as to the use they have made of their educational opportunities, and a report of the interview shall be presented to the July Committee.

Set Books for 1929:

(a) English Literature: Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice, and Lamb's Essays of Elia (1st Series).
(c) English History: J. R. Green: Chapter 10 and Epilogue, in enlarged edition.

(a) English Literature: Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.
(c) English History: J. R. Green: A Short History of the English People, Chapters 8 and 9, "Puritan England and the Revolution."

N.B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an intermediate examination for a degree at a British University, or who, within a period of five years before their candidature, have matriculated, or passed an examination recognised as exempting from matriculation at any British University, shall be exempted from the July Literary Examination (Minutes, 1921, p. 258).

(2) The attention of all Candidates is called to the largely increased facilities for matriculating or passing some equivalent examination, and they are strongly urged to avail themselves of these opportunities before making their offer.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

The Training of the Ministry.—1. The Conference receives the Report.

2. The Conference directs the Theological Committee to consider the regulations for the testing of the Biblical knowledge of Candidates. This direction is to be acted upon at once.

3. The Conference approves the advisability of associating a number of Laymen with the Ministerial members of the July Committee. Details as to the number of Laymen are referred to the Theological Institution Committee.

4. The Conference with a view to giving in the July Committee a more careful and prolonged attention to each individual Candidate, approves the following plan:

(a) The Literary and Theological Papers shall be taken locally a fortnight before the July Committee.

(b) The Conference shall annually appoint the two sections of the Committee with their Chairmen and Secretaries, each section to consist of not more than 32 members.

(c) Half of the Candidates assigned to each section shall come for the first two days (Tuesday and Wednesday), and half for the next two days (Thursday and Friday).

(d) So as to gain more intimate knowledge of the men, the Committee shall spend the whole four days with the Candidates, being provided for on the spot and sharing the whole life.

The Conference also adopts the following resolutions :

5. That the standard required for admission to College shall be that of the Matriculation Examination of a British University, or the School Certificate of some British University Board, or some equivalent for Matriculation approved by the Board of Studies, or the Senior Examination of the College of Preceptors. The suggestion that there should be an independent examination for entrance into the College is referred to the Theological Institution Committee.

6. That as soon as candidates are accepted by Conference, arrangements shall be made for bringing up to the required standard any candidate who falls below it, but is regarded by Conference as otherwise acceptable. Such a candidate, if of 23 years of age or upward, may be immediately admitted to College if the Pastoral Session decides by a vote of 75 per cent. of the votes cast, that, on account of age, it is unwise to insist on such preliminary training. The Conference will continue to exercise the right, in very special cases, to send men immediately into Circuit work.

7. That the arrangements for preliminary training shall be made for each candidate by a small committee consisting of the Chairman of his District, the Superintendent of his Circuit, and others specially selected by the Synod. The arrangements must be subject to the approval of a sub-committee appointed by the Committee of the Theological Institution, and the Theological Institution Committee shall be requested to report on the practicability of this method.

8. That while Conference takes no financial responsibility for the support of any such provisionally accepted candidate, the above Committee (para. 7) shall in case of need invite, though without pressure, contributions from his District and Circuit towards the cost of his preliminary training, supplemented when necessary from the Theological Institution Fund. (It is not contemplated that any provisionally accepted candidate should leave his employment, unless the Theological Institution Committee recommend it.)

9. If, after a period not exceeding two years, a provisionally accepted candidate passes the required standard, and a favourable report is presented to the July Committee by the Committee (para.

7) in charge of his case, he shall then be received as a student in one of our Colleges, and the interval which must be spent in training, according to rule, between his candidature and his acceptance into Full Connexion shall then be regarded as beginning.

10. If after such preliminary training any provisionally accepted candidate still fails to reach the fixed standard, he shall not be allowed to proceed to College unless he obtains 75 per cent. of votes cast in the Pastoral Session.

11. If any candidate upon whose education, money has been expended by the Church, declines to proceed with his candidature, he shall be required to refund the sum expended, in accordance with an agreement to be previously signed.

12. That the regulations of Conference (Minutes, 1912, p. 63, 1914, pp. 651–3) that no candidate shall be admitted to any of its Theological Colleges who fails to attain a certain educational standard, shall take effect at and after the Conference of 1931, subject to the provisions contained in paragraphs 5–11 above.

13. That in order to permit of giving a fourth year in College to those students who would profit by it, an additional assistant tutor be appointed at Handsworth, this being apart from the staffing of Headingley.

14. That all our Colleges shall take full advantage of every opportunity that offers whereby our students may take part in the general life of the Universities near which they are situated.

15. That in structure and equipment the College buildings shall be brought up to date.

World Conference on Faith and Order.—1. The Conference is profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the Christian fellowship manifested among the representatives of long-divided Churches in the World Conference at Lausanne; it commends the reports of that Conference, especially the report on the Churches' message to the world, to the earnest attention of the Methodist people; it is convinced that anything which makes for the spirit of Unity among the Churches is in accordance with the Will of God; and it looks for that unity in the acknowledgment that through faith in Christ and through this faith alone, is salvation and life.

2. The Conference appoints the Ministerial members of the World Conference Committee, appointed by the Representative Session, as its Committee to consider the Reports of the Lausanne Conference and to report to the next Conference.

six Ministers chosen by the Conference: Revs. J. Milton Brown, J. Edwin Dixon, Edwin Finch, William H. Hart, William J. Maund, and C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D.

The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) All cases in which Probationers have been prevented from completing their year's course more than once during their Probation on account of health; and on the question of the Candidate's Ordination.

(4) All cases in which, owing to pressure of special work, Probationers have similarly failed to complete their year's course for two successive years.

2. The Conference believes that the time has come for the preparation of a new Hymn Book, and that the need is urgent.

In the opinion of the Conference, however, the preparation of a new book (which would probably occupy at least three years) should be the work of the three Methodist Churches and not of any one of them. The Conference, therefore, respectfully invites the Primitive Methodist and United Methodist Conferences to appoint members to serve on a joint Committee for the preparation of the New Book.

3. The Conference authorises the Convener, Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP, D.D., together with the Rev. W. RUSSELL MALTBY, D.D., and Mr. EDMUND S. LAMPLOUGH, to correspond with the authorities of the Primitive Methodist and United Methodist Churches, with a view to making suggestions to the respective Conferences as to the composition of the Joint Committee.

(2) A woman who believes herself called of God to the Christian Ministry in our Church may offer under the same regulations as apply to men.

4. The Conference appoints the following Committee: The Ministerial Members of the Committee on Women's Work appointed by the Representative Session, together with Revs. R. Moffat Gautrey, G. E. Hickman Johnson, John H. Litten, William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., George W. Thorn, John P. Veall.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS OF APPOINTMENT.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Conference appoints the Rev. Edwin Finch as Assistant Secretary, the Rev. Walter J. Morgan as Record Secretary, who as such are ex-officio members of the Conference, and the Revs. John Telford, B.A., and Thomas H. Barratt, B.A., as Letter-writers.

Journal Secretaries.—The Conference re-appoints the Rev. J. Oliver Hornabrook, O.B.E., as Journal Secretary, and appoints the Rev. James R. Batey as Assistant Journal Secretary, who as such are ex-officio members of the Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. J. HENRY MADDOCK is re-appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1929; and as such is an ex-officio member of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. HOWARD WATKIN-JONES, M.A., D.D., is re-appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1929, and as such is an ex-officio member of that Conference.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. JAMES R. IRVING is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1929, and as such is an ex-officio member of that Conference.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

N.B.—The Memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a List of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1929: Revs. George H. Bainbridge, Henry Bett, M.A., Alfred E. Whitham.

OTHER SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

The late Rev. Thomas Kirkup.—The Conference records its deep sense of loss through the death of its devoted and dearly loved Secretary, the Rev. Thomas Kirkup. For six years it enjoyed the benefit of his ripe experience, his intimate knowledge of circuits and ministers, and his never-failing interest in all that concerned the work of God. He had established a hold on the confidence and affection of our whole Church, and his loss is one that affects all departments of Methodist life. The Conference thanks God on every remembrance of him. It owes much to him as a Secretary whose grasp of great questions and clear perception of the spiritual issues involved enabled him to render constant and invaluable service to our whole Connexion.

Death of the Rev. John Elsworth.—The Conference records with great sorrow the death of Rev. John Elsworth who through a ministry of forty-three years rendered conspicuous and devoted services to our Church. His work in District and Connexional affairs will long be remembered, while his publications on the subject of Methodist Polity and Law have put the whole Connexion under a lasting obligation. In all his circuits he was a minister beloved, a watchful and loving pastor, a wise administrator, and a faithful preacher of the Word. By his brethren in the Ministry he was held in affectionate regard.

Retirement of Rev. J. Alfred Vanes, B.A.—The Conference rejoices that Mr. Vanes has been able to complete fifty-two years of active service in the Ministry. With the exception of thirteen years at home, all his time has been spent in India. His extraordinary power of acquisition gave him a knowledge of two great Indian languages, Kanarese and Tamil, so that he was able to serve under widely differing conditions. His sound judgment and his great kindness of heart brought to him in rich measure the trust and affection of all who knew him.

Retirement of Rev. J. Williams Butcher.—In granting permission to the Rev. J. Williams Butcher to become a Supernumerary, the Conference recalls with gratitude his long term of forty-seven years' service in the active Ministry. He has served with distinction as Circuit minister, Chairman of the Scotland District, Secretary of the Sunday School Department, and member of the Legal Conference. To whatever task the Conference called him he brought the same thoroughness and efficiency, and whether as preacher, pastor, or administrator, his work has always been attended with outstanding success.

Retirement of Rev. Charles Lee-Dunham.—The Conference desires to put on record its appreciation of the long and successful ministry of Rev. Charles Lee-Dunham, extending over forty-five years, in which he rendered conspicuous service to our Church. His work has been characterised by virility of mind, real courage, and true brotherliness. He has maintained a witness that never lost its freshness or its power, and wherever labouring he has won and retained the confidence and love of his people.

Retirement of Rev. John Felix.—In permitting Rev. John Felix to become a Supernumerary, the Conference wishes to express its high value of the services rendered by him to the First North Wales District in particular and to Welsh Methodism in general. His preaching and writings have won distinction, and his powers of administration have gained for him the confidence and esteem of his brethren. He has served his Church with marked ability as circuit minister, Secretary of the Synod, Chairman of the District, and President of the Welsh Assembly.

Retirement of Rev. Albert H. Walker, B.A.—In consenting to the retirement of Rev. Albert H. Walker, B.A., the Conference desires to record its high estimate both of his character and of the ministry which during the last forty years he has fulfilled. For nineteen years he acted as assistant to the Secretary of the General Chapel Committee. From its inception he has been Convener of the South Yorkshire Coalfields Commission, through which a great work has been accomplished. He also acted as Convener of the Durham Coalfields Commission and the Nottingham Coalfields Commission. His musical gifts have enabled him to render most valuable service in many parts of the Connexion.

Retirement of Rev. George Jackson, B.A., D.D.—The Conference gratefully recalls the many valuable services rendered by Dr. Jackson during his distinguished ministry. He founded our Mission in Edinburgh, where for eighteen years he exercised a stimulating and fruitful ministry. After spending seven years in the service of the Methodist Church in Canada, Dr. Jackson was appointed to Didsbury College, where for twelve years he exerted a gracious and inspiring influence upon students for our Ministry. He has unsparingly devoted his gifts as preacher, writer, and teacher to the service of our Church, and in granting him permission to become a Supernumerary the Conference desires to assure him of its gratitude and affection.

Retirement of Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A.—In granting the request of the Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A., to become a Supernumerary, the Conference, while remembering with gratitude his rich service to our Church, regrets that it is losing from the active work one whose ministry has been attended with such unfailing success. His powerful ministry in the pulpit, his statesmanlike administration, and his pastoral fidelity have built up the best life of the Circuits in which he has travelled. The Conference rejoices that his services will still be available as Secretary of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, and also of the Theological Institution Committee, where his wide experience and sound judgment are of great value.

Retirement of Rev. Oliver J. Griffin.—The Conference records with thankfulness its appreciation of the thirty-one years of splendid service rendered to our Church in West Africa by the Rev. Oliver J. Griffin. In his experience he links up with the heroic age of West African Missions, where he met sad and perilous circumstances with faith and steadfast courage. To his brethren on the West African Mission Field he showed great kindness and helpfulness. During his twenty years as Chairman of the District, his care of detail, geniality, and wide acquaintance with all classes of European residents as well as of natives were of great value in District administration.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference to fill vacancies caused by death, or absence for two years without dispensation. (See Minutes, 1923, p. 293.) The following Ministers are nominated: Revs. Alfred E. Whitham, James R. Irving, Harold B. Rattenbury, B.A., J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., B.D., Oliver J. Griffin, Archibald W. Harrison, M.C., B.Sc., D.D., R. Winboult Harding, B.D., John J. Johnston, B.D.

Extended Ministerial Appointments.—The Conference adopts the following resolutions in respect of future procedure:

(a) That the Resolution of the Conference of 1923 (Min., 1923, p. 277) declaring that "it will be necessary in future to scrutinise these proposals much more carefully and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered" be re-affirmed.

(b) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee.

(c) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation, in an advisory capacity, to the Circuits and Ministers concerned (Minutes, 1925, p. 281).

Reports of Candidates' Sermons.—The Conference instructs all Ministers appointed to hear the Trial Sermons of Candidates for the Ministry that the Reports be much briefer and that they should be written or typed on foolscap.

Dispensations to Probationers.—1. In granting Dispensations upon the recommendation of the Stationing Committee to certain Probationers to administer the Sacraments, the Conference directs that a "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be issued year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given.

2. The Conference remits the whole question again to the Stationing Committee with a view to the adoption of some general principles for guidance in respect of these applications in the future (Daily Record, 1927, p. 69).

Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—The Conference resolves that the Standing Order, which requires that the term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit before he can be re-appointed shall be three years, be suspended in all cases of Extended Appointments made at the present Conference.

Candidates at Universities.—The Conference resolves that in future all requests from accepted Candidates, for permission to reside in Circuits in order to continue their studies at a University, shall be submitted to the Designation Committee at its June Meeting, and that provisional sanction be obtained from that Committee for such arrangements.

South Wales Coalfields—Interchange of Ministers.—Upon the recommendation of the South Wales Coalfields Commission (Agenda, 1926, p. 81), the Conference directs:

(1) That the English and Welsh Ministers stationed at Tredegar and Brynmawr respectively shall change with each other on one Sunday in every quarter.

(2) That, wherever possible, bi-lingual Ministers shall be appointed to the English Circuits in Wales.

Ministers Permitted to Labour for Other Organisations.—When a Minister is appointed for extra-Methodist work he shall become a member of the Ministers' Meeting of the nearest Circuit or Mission to the locality in which he labours or resides.

English Minister in Paris.—The Minister of the English Circuit in Paris shall be a Member of the First London Synod, to whom he shall be answerable as to doctrine and discipline.

Ministers' Contributions to the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund.—The Conference is grateful to the brethren who by voluntary effort have contributed £2,848 to the Fund during the past year.

The following scale, being a reduction of approximately a further 10 per cent. on that in operation down to 1926, is approved by the Conference for the coming year:

Stipends of over	£400	to contribute	£3 7*s.*
,,	,, £360 to £400	,,	,, £2 10*s.*
,,	,, £320 to £359	,,	,, £1 14*s.*
,,	,, £280 to £319	,,	,, £1 8*s.*
,,	,, £240 to £279	,,	,, £1 4*s.*
,,	,, £200 to £239	,,	,, £1
,,	less than £200	,,	,, 12*s.* 6*d.*

The Conference requests Superintendents of Circuits to receive the subscriptions of their colleagues, and remit them to the Rev. William H. Hart, Connexional Funds Office, 1, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1, not later than December 1 in each year.

Number of Society Stewards.—There is no specific regulation respecting the number of Society Stewards in any Society, but the general custom of the Church has been that not more than two should be appointed. Nevertheless, a measure of freedom has been allowed in this matter. Duly appointed Society Stewards are in virtue of their office members of the Leaders' and Quarterly Meetings.

Secretary of the Envelope System and the Quarterly Meeting.—The Secretary of the Envelope Scheme in connection with any Church is not by virtue of his office a member of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. THE CONNEXION.

1. Title of the Connexion.—(1) Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Summary,* p. 3.)

(2) The Conference directs, particularly in all official documents, that our full and correct title of Wesleyan Methodist shall be used. (Summary, p. 3.)

2. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement of the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April (with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, Ministers' Children, Theological Institution, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute Committees, together with the Wesley Guild Central Council, which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

* Wherever the word Summary is used, it refers to the Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline, 5th ed., 1923.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions it thinks fit in regard to them. While it is inadvisable to lay down any hard-and-fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The Suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the Committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded:

Foreign Missions.
" " (Women's Department).
Ministers' Children.
Chapel Affairs.
Home Mission.
Connexional Fund.
Auxiliary Fund.

National Children's Home and Orphanage.
Necessitous Local Preachers.
Local Preachers.
Class Leaders.
Wesley Deaconess Institute.
Temperance and Social Welfare Department.
Women's Work.
General Sustentation Fund.

(Summary, pp. 427-8.)

3. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference ; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Summary, p. 429.)

4. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new members, Ministerial and Lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Summary, p. 429.)

5. Postal Addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 429.)

6. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Resolutions of Conference thereon, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved : (1) The printed Agenda of the Conference ; (2) The Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the current and preceding years, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon ; the Memorials and Suggestions to be kept for two years only and then to be destroyed ; (3) Any legal opinion obtained by the direction of the Conference ; (4) A Record of all Legacies left to Connexional Funds ; with any other Documents which the Conference may hereafter direct to be preserved. (Summary, pp. 413–14.)

1. THE CONFERENCE.

7. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows : London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, York, Lincoln, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull, Middlesbrough. (Summary, p. 404.)

8.—Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small Rostrum or Tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the Platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the Platform be brought within as small a compass as possible. (Summary, p. 407.)

9. Questions in Representative Session.—The Conference having approved of a system of Questions and Answers similar to that adopted in the House of Commons, by which Members of the Representative Session may submit Questions to be answered in Conference without debate (Minutes, 1918, p. 84), the Conference adopts the following as its method of procedure :

1. Any Member of the Conference has the right to address a Question to any Treasurer or Secretary of a Department or Connexional Committee, being also a Member of the Conference, about the affairs with which he is officially connected, or upon any matter of administration for which his Committee shall be responsible. The proper object of such a Question is to obtain information on a matter of fact within the special cognisance of that Representative of Department or Committee. The rules and practice of the Conference shall limit the right to ask questions so as to confine them to this object.

2. Notice of such Question must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Conference before the 16th day of June. The Secretary of the Conference shall be the judge of the propriety or admissibility of a Question, and disallow any question when, in his opinion, it is an abuse of the right of questioning. For instance, a Question may be disallowed on the ground of unreasonable length, impropriety of expression, or the like.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall at once transmit the Question to the person concerned, so that he may have time to prepare his answer and return it not later than the 30th day of June to the Secretary of the Conference.

4. These questions and answers shall be printed under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of the Conference, who is responsible for the publication of the Agenda, and the Questionnaire shall be forwarded with the Agenda to each member of the Conference.

5. The Secretary of the Conference shall present the Questionnaire as the first order of the day on the first morning of the Conference. He shall call the numbers of the Questions in turn as printed. A period of three-quarters of an hour shall be set apart for this business.

6. During that period supplementary questions for elucidation may be asked within limits to be determined by the President, but no debate shall be allowed to arise therefrom.

7. The right to ask Questions shall be governed by the following Rules:

(1) A Question must not publish any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible.

(2) If a Question contains a statement, the member asking it shall make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statement.

(3) A Question must not contain any argument, inference, imputation, epithet, or ironical expression.

(4) A Question must not be asked about proceedings in a Committee which have not been placed before the Conference by a Report from the Committee.

(5) A Question must not ask for an expression of opinion, or for the solution of an abstract legal question, or of a hypothetical proposition.

(6) A Question fully answered must not be asked again. (Summary, pp. 418–19.)

10. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal Chapels during the Sessions of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those Chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Summary, p. 406.)

11. Allocation Committee for Representative Session.—The following instruction is given by the Conference to the Allocation Committee which reports upon the number of Laymen from each District who may attend the next Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen:

> "That in future where the allocation on the numerical basis approximates to 50 per cent. of a claim to another seat, preference should be given to the Districts which have the relatively smaller number of Representatives elected by the Conference."

12. Election of Lay Representatives by the Conference itself.—The Conference directs that in future the Lists of Districts from which no Representatives have been elected by the Conference for the preceding three years shall be printed upon the Conference Voting Paper as well as read from the platform. (Summary, p. 403.)

13. Vacancies among Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Lay Members Elected by the Conference itself.—(1) If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay Members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer.

(2) In the event of one or more of the Forty-five Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and the Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

(3) In the event of the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way.

(4) In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Summary, p. 403.)

14. Representation of Women's Auxiliary in Conference (now designated The Women's Department of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society).—Inasmuch as the Committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society is hereafter to be appointed by the Conference, provision shall be made for the presentation of its Annual Report to the Conference by a member of the Auxiliary, elected for this purpose by the Committee of the Auxiliary, who shall be included in the number of those allocated to the Representative Session.

The Conference resolves that it be an instruction to the Allocation Committee that the reduction of one in the number of Representatives, as arranged for in the above Resolution, should be made in turn from the larger Districts only. (Summary, p. 397.)

15. Daily Sessions of the Conference.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily, and if necessary an Evening Session on each day of the Representative week. (Summary, p. 415.)

16. Open Session of Conference.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Monday afternoon of the Representative Session.

(2) Arrangements shall be made to secure that Representatives from the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the United Church of Canada, and the Australasian Methodist Church shall, if possible, be so appointed that every year one Representative from one of the above-mentioned Conferences shall be present and be heard.

(3) A Representative from the French Conference, and one from the South African Conference, shall be heard on alternate years; a Representative from the Irish Conference every year, and one from the Conference of New Zealand when appointed.

(4) Representatives appointed by this Conference to other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(5) Other accredited Visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(6) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to the hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival. (Summary, pp. 409–10.)

17. Deputations to Conference from Other Churches.—These Deputations shall be received on the Monday morning of the Representative Session. (Summary, p. 407.)

18. Delegates to other Conferences.—The Nominations of delegates to attend other Conferences shall be made by a Committee appointed by the Conference and shall consist of one Minister and one Layman.

19. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session [Friday], in a Chapel other than the Conference Chapel, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises, and shall be followed by a Conversation on the State of the Work of God. (Summary, p. 517.)

20. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Summary, pp. 514–15.)

21. Elections to the Legal Conference.—(1) All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION, and such vacancies shall be filled by election by the Legal Conference only, from a list of eight names of Ministers nominated by the Pastoral Session of the previous Conference.

(2) The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the first meeting of the Conference in its PASTORAL SESSION, and such vacancies shall then be filled by Election by the Legal Conference after separate nomination by the Conference for each vacancy.

(3) In regard to these vacancies it shall be an honourable understanding that any Minister elected into the Legal "Hundred" from the time at which these regulations come into force shall, on becoming a Supernumerary, resign his position in the "Hundred," and the Legal Conference shall formally declare by a separate vote that

(a) certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference,

(b) and certain other Ministers having resigned their position in the "Hundred" on becoming Supernumeraries, now cease to be members of the Legal Conference, and that their places have to be filled.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher whose name has been proposed to the Conference on that occasion for admission into the number of the Legal "Hundred"; and the Legal "Hundred" shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least one year in Full Connexion.

(5) Immediately the vacancies have been filled a further vote shall take place by ballot, from the remaining names of those openly proposed, to form the List of eight names to be sent forward to the next Conference. The names of those thus openly proposed, but not chosen to fill immediate vacancies, shall be read to the Conference. It shall still be open to the Conference to propose additional names. Each Minister in Full Connexion present at the Conference shall be entitled to vote for eight of these proposed persons and no more. One vote only shall be given to one name. The eight names receiving the highest number of votes shall be those sent forward, in the order of the number of votes received.

(6) Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal "Hundred," another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form. (Summary, pp. 382–3.)

22. Nomination of the President and Secretary of the Conference.—In the nomination of the President of the Conference the Minister nominated shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second, and, if necessary, a third ballot shall be taken on the names on the list which have the largest number of votes.

This shall also apply to the nomination of the Secretary of the Conference. (Summary, pp. 384–5.)

23. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and the election shall be according to the Standing Order relating to elections to Departmental Offices. (See Standing Order 38.)

N.B.—In the case of the Welsh-speaking Districts, the Pastoral Session of the Welsh Assembly is authorised to nominate to the Conference such Brethren as it considers should be appointed to the Chair of these Districts. (Summary, p. 393.)

24. Election of Secretaries of the District Synods.—The title "Financial Secretary" is discontinued, and the "Secretary of the District Synod" shall be elected year by year by the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of the District; and he shall be ex-officio the Secretary of both the September and the May Synods. (Summary, p. 337.)

25. The Pastoral Session and Press Reporting.—The Conference instructs the Conference Arrangements Committee to appoint some competent Minister to report the proceedings of the Pastoral Session and furnish a daily report to the Press, such Minister to be personally responsible for the information given, as is the case with the other ministerial newspaper reporters in the Conference. The Conference Arrangements Committee is to be entirely responsible for the remuneration and the conditions of the appointment.

It is understood that these arrangements shall not prevent the publication in the Press of such additional descriptive articles by Ministers as may be arranged between newspapers and members of the Pastoral Session. (Summary, p. 409.)

26. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Summary, p. 410.)

27. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod.

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee, and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Summary, p. 328.)

28. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued ; and the List of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference.

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service ; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday of the third week of its Sessions. (Summary, p. 328.)

29. New Legislation in Relation to the Foreign Stations.—Foreign Districts shall be informed of all new legislation adopted by Conference, but such legislation shall only become operative in those Districts where the Synods themselves desire, unless in any instance Conference shall itself otherwise determine. (Summary, p. 363.)

2. THE STATIONING COMMITTEE.

30. Election of Representative to Stationing Committee in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers in Full Connexion and Lay Members of the District Synod. (Summary, p. 419.) The Conference directs that the Secretary of the London Mission and Extension Fund shall be a member of the Stationing Committee. (Daily Record, 1928, pp. 77, 80.)

31. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in October of each year, supply every Representative of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. The Secretary of the Conference shall then forward to every Representative a complete list compiled from the information received.

N.B.—(1) This List shall be supplied also to any Minister or Circuit Steward concerned who may apply for same (enclosing 6*d.* for Printing and Postage). (2) If necessary, an additional List shall be prepared in February.

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a List of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this List being sent by the Representative to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such Lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential.

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 1 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete Lists of:

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District;

(c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made; and (d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A List of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these Lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made ; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Summary, pp. 420–1.)

32. Regulations Concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' copies are ready for the post.

(5) Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(6) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(7) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of addressed wrappers for the First Draft and the Final Draft respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for six other Laymen—members of the District Synod ; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Summary, p. 422.)

33. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary of the Conference for the time being are ex-officio members of the Stationing Committee, they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons especially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion ; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the earlier meetings of the Stationing Committee, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year ; even when it may be necessary for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Summary, pp. 419–20.)

34. Names of Ministers Appointed to Districts on First Draft of Stations.—The Conference resolves that the names of Ministers who are appointed to Districts and not to Circuits shall appear on the First Draft of Stations thus: "A.B., whose name is submitted to the Conference for re-appointment as Chairman of the District." (Summary, p. 422.)

35. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the First Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing

Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulation of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Summary, pp. 422–3.)

36. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Summary, p. 422.)

37. Reading of Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Summary, pp. 426–7.)

3. DEPARTMENTS:

38. Appointments to New Departments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Summary, p. 314.)

39. New Appointments to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Summary, p. 315.)

40. Nomination of Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the name or names of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, in nomination for that office, of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one.

(2) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(3) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(4) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present.

(5) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall in that case take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session, it being necessary that three names should be sent forward to that Session.

(6) The above was modified by the Conference of 1913:

(a) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

(b) Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the ballot.

(c) The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees.

(7) This was further modified by the Conference of 1915:

When only one name is nominated in the Representative Session, it shall be unnecessary to vote by ballot, but the nomination may by open vote be passed on to the Pastoral Session. (Summary, pp. 315–16.)

41. Re-appointments to Departments.—(1) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made, the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported.

(2) In all cases in which a Minister has served a term in a Connexional Office, if he be proposed for re-election, special reasons shall be assigned to the Conference as in the case of a Minister whom it is desired to retain in a Circuit beyond a period of three years.

(3) The Conference resolves that every Minister elected to service in our Departmental Offices or Colleges shall return to circuit work at the end of six years, unless the Conference sees fit, under special circumstances, to re-elect to such office by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

Further, in order to bring the procedure of both Sessions of the Conference into harmony, the Pastoral Session respectfully asks the Representative Session of the next Conference favourably to consider the same rules when making nominations for re-election.

(4) Subject to the foregoing Regulations, the Conference is at liberty to renew the re-appointment to Departmental Offices as often as it shall deem necessary. (Summary, pp. 316–17.)

42. Postponement of Nomination to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting Ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the Regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Summary, p. 317.)

43. Emergency Appointments to Departments.—(1) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(2) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Summary, p. 317.)

44. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, p. 317.)

45. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Sessions, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Summary, p. 251.)

46. Army and Navy Reports and Returns to District Synods.—(1) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(2) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors.

(i) The number of declared Methodists in the Army, Royal Navy (including the Coastguard), and Air Force, taken for December 31 of each year.

(ii) The number of Members of Society in the Army, Royal Navy, and Air Force, including the wives and children of Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen.

(iii) The average attendance at Divine Service during the year.

(iv) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 286–7.)

47. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Board. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Summary, p. 287.)

48. Army and Navy Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties.—Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen, the Pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Summary, pp. 287–8.)

49. Army and Navy Garrison and Naval Ports in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military Authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. (Summary, p. 286.)

50. Army and Navy Board and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Summary, p. 287.)

4. MINISTERS, STUDENTS, AND CANDIDATES.

51. Conditions regarding Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—(1) The Conference records its judgment that, since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination, unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each Minister has travelled when he applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda.

(2) When any Minister who has not rendered forty years' service applies to become a Supernumerary, he shall present a medical certificate of unfitness for the Full Work of the Ministry. (Summary, p. 320.)

52. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Summary, p. 384.)

53. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—(1) Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year, and may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive in addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund.

(2) Each case shall be considered by a Mixed Committee of seven members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

(3) Should the Conference deem it indispensable, a second year's Grant may be allowed. (Summary, p. 321.)

54. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any reason other than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any, what annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any, what sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Summary, pp. 321–2.)

55. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his reappointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Summary, p. 322.)

56. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory

Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office or emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief in our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs.

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Summary, pp. 325–6.)

57. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the Full Work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Summary, p. 326.) See Standing Order 77.

58. Supernumeraries and Business.—The Conference re-affirms that the Regulation respecting Supernumeraries entering into business be suspended for the time being. (Summary, p. 325.)

59. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after full consideration by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from any of our Connexional Funds during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit.

(5) In the case of a member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of two years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

(6) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod:

> Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued? (Summary, pp. 318–19.)

60. Inquiry into the Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—(1) In response to the Inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Summary, p. 279.)

(2) The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Summary, p. 279.)

61. Ministerial Resignations.—In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President. (Summary, p. 279.)

62. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connection with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class Leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Summary, pp. 18–19.)

63. Committee on Appeals regarding Character and Other Cases.—(1) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred without discussion:

(i) All cases needing further inquiry, touching the Character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(ii) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(iii) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

(2) Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

(3) Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

(4) No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Summary, p. 281.)

64. Missionaries and Disciplinary Inquiries.—(1) Ministers or Preachers on Trial appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

(2) In cases of Discipline, the Chairman of the Synod shall hold the necessary inquiry by means of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society instead of the usual Minor District Synod.

(3) If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Summary, p. 362.)

65. Doctrinal Committee of Appeal.—(1) The usual method of referring a charge to a Committee of Appeal sitting during the Pastoral Session of the Conference not affording sufficient opportunity for consideration in the case of a charge respecting doctrine, the Conference shall annually appoint a Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, together with twelve Ministers, four of whom shall retire annually in rotation, and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election. The function of this Committee shall be to consider all charges concerning doctrine arising during the year; its power and procedure shall conform to that of the ordinary Conference Committee of Appeal.

(2) If, and when there is a case to be investigated, the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal shall meet on a date earlier than the Conference, to be fixed by the President.

(3) All charges in respect of doctrine should be preferred as heretofore, either before or at the May Synod. A copy of any such charge, together with the findings of the Synod thereupon, shall be sent to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall forward particulars of the charge to the members of the Committee as early as possible.

(4) Should the occasion for a new charge arise subsequently to the

May Synod, the appellant shall send a written statement of the charge to the President of the Conference as well as to the brother charged, and to the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed. The President shall send a copy of the charge to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall then act as stated in paragraph 3.

Nothing in these Regulations shall interfere with the right of the accused to demand a Minor Synod, or with the discretion of the Chairman in respect thereto.

(5) In the event of any matter arising at Conference which could not have been dealt with under the foregoing provisions, it shall be remitted to the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, which shall sit either during the Conference and report forthwith, or in exceptional circumstances, if the Conference so determines, during the ensuing year. In cases in which the Committee shall judge immediate disciplinary action shall be taken, the Committee shall report the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(6) In any case involving doctrinal beliefs or statements, the Minister concerned shall himself be heard by the Committee, and the findings of the Committee shall be immediately communicated to him. (Summary, pp. 282–3.)

66. Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—(1) The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

N.B—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Summary, p. 424.)

(2) In cases where the 1893 Regulation for extended appointments has been acted upon, the above Standing Order touching re-appointment shall be suspended. (Daily Record, 1924, p. 73.)

67. Changes of Ministerial Appointments during the Intervals of Conference.—Whenever any change of Preachers which it may be necessary to make in the interval of Conference takes place, such Preacher or Preachers shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod into which he or they may be thus removed. (Summary, p. 343.)

68. Extended Appointments.—(1) The Conference attaches to any extension of the term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(i) That the proposals shall be much more carefully scrutinised and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered.

(ii) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(iii) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting, or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(2) In respect of Procedure, the Conference resolves:

(i) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal, with a record of the reasons for it, in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee. The number of votes cast in each case shall be recorded and shall be reported in the following order—" For, Against, Neutral."

(ii) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation in an advisory capacity to the Circuits and Ministers concerned.

(iii) That the vote of the March Quarterly Meeting, or of any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee in July, and by the Stationing Committee shall be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it.

(3) Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, pp. 424–5; Minutes, 1925, p. 281.)

69. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee has been obtained; and Superintendents of Circuits are directed to observe that no Degree be printed on Circuit Plans other than those printed in the Minutes of Conference.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor in Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes.

(4) In future, degrees, honorary and otherwise, shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University status. For Great Britain and the Dominions that shall mean Corporations recognised by the Universities' Bureau of the British Empire; and for America, the Institutions approved by the Association of American Universities. This regulation, however, shall not be retrospective.

(5) In addition to the statement of the source of Degrees, the affix (Hon.) shall be added to all British and Foreign Degrees if they be honorary; of other academic distinctions, only F.R.S. shall be printed in the Minutes.

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 426; Minutes, 1925, p. 311; Pastoral Agenda, 1926, p. 68.)

70. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connection with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connection with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences, and have ceased to be in connection with the Yearly Conference.

(4) On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Summary, p. 311.)

71. Native Ministers and Ministers accepted for Service in a Specified Country.—(1) Wherever such Ministers are employed, or are proposed to be employed, the Synod concerned shall submit to the Missionary Committee a scheme for their Allowances, etc., covering not only stipend and provision of House, but also furlough and retiring Allowances.

(2) The Conference declares that, except in the case of Ministers sent out from this Country and duly authorised to return, the admission of Brethren abroad into Full Connexion with the Conference does not carry with it any right to a Circuit in Great Britain Nor shall such Ministers have the right to attend the Sessions of the British Conference, unless they are selected by the General Committee of the Missionary Society as its Representatives.

(3) Inasmuch as it has been and is the purpose and practice of the Conference to establish on its various Mission Fields, as soon as may be, self-supporting and self-controlling Churches, and as the progress of Mission Churches renders it expedient from time to time to develop their organisation in agreement with this purpose, and gradually to entrust them with powers of general administration and of discipline in particular, as preparing the way for the constitution of Affiliated Conferences:

In order, therefore, to define both the relation to the Yearly Conference of Ministers employed in these Missions, and also the disciplinary powers which may be entrusted to them, the Conference resolves as follows:

That in place of the Question, "Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?" and its Answer as heretofore, the entry in the Journals and in the Minutes shall be in the form following, viz.:

Q. Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?

A. (1) In Great Britain:

(2) In our Foreign Missions:

a. Ministers sent out from this Country.

b. Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries specified, viz.:

Under Section (2, a) of this Answer shall be entered the names of all Ministers who have been sent out by the Missionary Committee, and have a claim, on their return, to enter the Home Work.

Under Section (2, b) shall be entered the names of all Ministers, whether Native or otherwise, who have been called into the work on Foreign Stations. These have no claim to any appointment in this Country, or to any payments from Home Funds.

N.B.—If any Minister who has been admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference for service in a specified Country shall be appointed to service in another Country, his Full Connexion with the Conference shall not be disturbed thereby. (Summary, pp. 308–9.)

72. Status of Ministers admitted for Service in a Specified Country in Relation to the British Conference.—(1) Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at Home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider Applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine.

(2) The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

(3) The following shall be the financial arrangements:

(i) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN INDIA.—Inasmuch as each of these brethren has paid the £180 for the privilege of entering upon a House on returning to this country, it is resolved:

That in the event of such Minister not claiming a house in the Home Work (through death, not returning to this country, or from any other cause), the £180 be returned to him or to his heirs and administrators; and that meanwhile interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. be paid to him annually so long as the £180 is in the hands of the Missionary Society, less any amount which the Society will be charged by any of the Home Funds in excess of what has been received from the Minister in question for that Fund.

(ii) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN WEST INDIES,

To the Home Mission Fund .. £180.
To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, for each child under 18 years of age .. .. £40.

(The above payments shall be made when the Minister actually returns to a Home Circuit. Whenever his return has been approved by the Committee appointed for this purpose, the money shall be placed in the hands of the Foreign Missionary Society before the case is dealt with by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.)

To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, £9 for each year counted upon admission by the Conference.

(This payment to be made by the Foreign Missionary Committee on behalf of the Minister concerned.)

(4) The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home Work.

N.B.—The Conference further resolves that so far as the payments to the Children's Fund are concerned, the Ministers in India and the West Indies shall be placed, if possible, on an equal footing; and that this question shall be referred to the Pastoral Committee already in existence. (Summary, pp. 309–11.)

73. Courts of Superior Jurisdiction in Foreign Mission Field.—(1) Courts of Superior Jurisdiction shall be constituted in such manner and for such Districts or Groups of Districts as the Conference may from time to time direct.

(2) These Courts shall hear all Appeals from the decisions of the District Synods concerning Discipline.

(3) These Courts shall investigate and decide all questions of fact, and the certified Records of the Courts shall be taken as conclusive evidence of what the facts are: subject always to the right of the Conference, if new and material evidence is produced, to direct a new trial.

(4) The decisions of these Courts as to penalty shall be final except that:

(i) On questions of judicial procedure, of the interpretation of law, or the definition of Doctrine, an appeal shall lie to the Conference.

(ii) In the case of an ordained Minister a sentence of expulsion, or loss of one or more years in Ministerial standing, shall be liable to revision by the Conference.

(iii) Any similar sentence in the case of a Preacher on Trial sent out from England shall be liable to revision by the Conference, but only as affecting his relation to the Home Work.

(5) Provided always:

(i) That no Appeal shall be allowed to the Conference, unless the case has first been presented to the Superior Court.

(ii) That in every case in which there is an Appeal to the Conference from the decision of the Superior Court or any request for revision by the Conference, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Conference; but notice thereof shall be given to the Chairman of the Superior Court, and a copy of the appeal or request placed in his hands within six weeks after the decision of the Court. The said copy shall be forthwith forwarded by the Chairman to the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society for the consideration of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society, and that Committee shall thereon report to the next Conference.

(6) Provided further that every Minister or Preacher on Trial shall be subject to the Provincial and District Synods within the area of whose jurisdiction he is for the time being appointed to labour. (Summary, pp. 363–4.)

COURTS OF SUPERIOR JURISDICTION FOR THE CEYLON AND BURMA, SOUTH INDIA, AND NORTH INDIA PROVINCIAL AREAS shall be constituted as follows:

(1) The North India Provincial Synod shall include the Bengal, Lucknow and Benares, and Bombay and Punjab Districts; the South India Provincial Synod shall include the Madras, Trichinopoly, Haidarabad, and Mysore Districts; and the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall include the South Ceylon, North Ceylon, and Burma Districts.

(2) Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society.

(3) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(4) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(5) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Summary, pp. 364–5.)

PROVINCIAL SYNODS.—That, on account of the distances which divide the North India Districts from one another, the wide diversities of the work in the different Districts, and the expense involved in holding the Provincial Synod as at present constituted, the Conference approves of the following alterations in the representation of the Districts:

(a) The Provincial Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, with four Ministers from England and four accepted for service in India.

(b) When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction (Discipline) the said Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, four elected Ministers, and two Ministers—one European and one Indian—to be nominated by the Chairman of the Provincial Synod. (Summary, p. 365.)

(c) The representation of Burma in the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall be the Chairman and two Ministers, one of whom may be a Burmese Minister; together with one Lay Representative in the Representative Session. When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction, the representation of Burma shall be the Chairman and one Minister. (Daily Record, 1924, pp. 6, 23.)

74. Missionary Council.—The Missionary Council shall be constituted as follows:

(a) The members of the Missionary Committee.

(b) One minister and one layman nominated by the Missionary Committee of each District in Great Britain.

(c) Thirty persons to be summoned at the discretion of the General Committee to any meeting of the Council. (Minutes, 1924, pp. 6–7.)

75. Transfers of Ministers from Welsh to English Work.—(1) No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Mission Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same.

(2) In special cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires: (i) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism. (ii) The recommendation of the Designation Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. (Summary, p. 230.)

76. Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations.—The Conference gives general authority to the Executive Committee of the Theological Institution to consider requests for the admission of Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations to Richmond College, and, if there be vacancies, to admit such men under proper conditions. (Minutes, 1925, p. 316.)

77. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits. (Summary, p. 227.)

78. Payment of Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

N.B.—To this payment is added a bonus at the rate of £20 10*s.* a year.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve, appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August. (Summary, pp. 227–8.)

79. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President as a Supply is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Summary, p. 425.)

80. List of Reserve.—(1) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

(2) The retiring President shall furnish to the Designation Committee a Report as to the health and fitness for our Work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on his List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(3) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference the retiring President shall furnish a List of the names and addresses of the Preachers on his List of Reserve, with particulars of their employment during the year. The List shall contain (1) the names of those sent out as Supplies by the President, with the date of appointment; (2) the names of those employed under private arrangement.

(4) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. (Summary, p. 228.)

81. Special Discipline Committee of Theological Institution.—The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Summary, p. 221.)

82. Students and Probationers.—(1) (a) The interval between the acceptance of a Candidate and his reception into Full Connexion shall normally be Seven Years. This period shall be spent by him partly as a Student at some branch of the Theological Institution (usually for three or four years) and the remainder of the period as a Probationer in Circuit or other Connexional work.

(b) Where practicable, all Preachers shall have had experience of Circuit work before being received into Full Connexion with the Conference. The Conference recognises that there are special cases in which exception must be made.

(c) The Probation is not to be considered as completed until the Probationer is received into Full Connexion with the Conference, and no Preacher on Trial is to marry during his Probation.

(d) The Probationary period of a Candidate accepted for Home or Foreign "Immediate" shall be four years.

(e) Candidates for the Ministry who at the beginning of the Connexional year following their acceptance have obtained a Degree at a University in Great Britain or Ireland, or have passed an equivalent examination, shall have the interval of Seven Years reduced to five, provided that the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers judges that their previous course of study justifies the reduction.

N.B.—(i) Candidates for the Ministry who shall obtain a University Degree or its equivalent by the end of their first year in College, shall under the same conditions have the interval of seven years reduced to six years.

(ii) Accepted Candidates for the Ministry who are permitted to continue their studies for a University Degree before entering a Branch of the Institution shall be considered as beginning the interval when their University course is completed. The length of the interval shall then be determined upon the basis of the above paragraphs. (Mins., 1924, p. 335.)

(iii) These Regulations shall apply to Candidates accepted from the Welsh Districts. (Minutes, 1925, p. 318.)

(f) All the above Regulations are subject to satisfactory yearly Reports both in College (Summary, p. 220) and in the Probationary years in Circuit or other Connexional work (Summary, p. 241).

(2) The Representative of each branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(3) (a) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(b) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(c) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(d) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment. (Summary, pp. 231–3.)

83. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment, year by year, as to the general fitness for our work in all its details, of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. (Summary, p. 241.)

84. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—(1) Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate (or a summary of them) shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests.

(2) Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

This Oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

(3) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our Discipline.

(4) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Summary, pp. 241–2.)

85. Probationers' Reading and Book Lists.—(1) The Probationers' Oversight Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified Form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

(2) This Form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairman shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list.

N.B.—The Synod may appoint a Committee to examine the Book Lists in detail and to report to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 240–1.)

86. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Summary, p. 234.)

87. Probationers and Preaching during the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Synods. (Summary, p. 234.)

88. Probationers on the Foreign Field.—The Conference directs that the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall transmit to the Committee on the Oversight of Probationers its report and recommendation on any Probationer stationed abroad in the last year of his Probation, or earlier if he returns to the Home Work, and that the Oversight Committee shall in each case make its own recommendation to the Conference. (Minutes, 1924, p. 293.)

89. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Preacher on Trial enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a Report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the District Synod in May. (Summary, pp. 234–5.)

90. Probationers and their First Circuit.—(1) The Conference recommends the Chairmen of District Synods, whenever a Probationer receives his first appointment within their respective Districts, to arrange, as early as possible in the Connexional Year, and at a suitable place, a Dedicatory Service, in which the Chairman shall affectionately welcome the Probationer to his sphere of work, commend him to the prayers of the assembled Church and congregation, and speak to him such words of counsel and encouragement as he shall deem fitting, and the service shall be followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(2) A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented by the Book Steward, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Summary, p. 233.)

91. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—(1) The Conference directs the Stationing Committee, year by year, to prepare a List of appointments in which permission should be granted to Probationers to administer the Sacraments. In cases of special emergency, application for a dispensation shall be made to the President of the Conference through the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 38.)

(2) A "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be supplied year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given. (Minutes, 1925, p. 282.)

92. Ministers and Probationers and the Annuitant Society.—The Conference directs that, in future, each Minister and Probationer shall be required to become a Member of the Annuitant Society, and that every Candidate for the Ministry, if accepted, shall state his willingness to conform to this Rule. (Summary, pp. 233–4.)

93. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the Character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the Character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 196.)

It is required that in the written Character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching. (Summary, p. 196.)

No Candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Summary, p. 190.)

In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod. (Summary, p. 196.)

Where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of special theological training, they shall be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing. (Summary, pp. 196–7.)

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates should be fully accredited Local Preachers, yet the door should be left open for exceptional cases. (Summary, p. 191.)

(3) Every Candidate shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special Report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Summary, p. 194.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark, and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. PERCY HUTTON, B.A., c/o Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs. (Summary, p. 195.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript to the Secretaries of the Special Examination Committee. (Summary, p. 198.)

(5) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, shall denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Summary, pp. 193–4.)

(6) The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment of the Summary. (Summary, p. 191.)

(7) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the General Work. (Summary, p. 195.)

In the case of Candidates from the Welsh Districts, the offer "General" is to be interpreted as meaning "Home, Foreign, or Welsh." (Minutes, 1924, p. 339.)

(8) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Summary, p. 216.)

94. Candidates for the Ministry: Procedure in Conference.—(1) When Candidates are under consideration the Secretary of the Committee shall propose for acceptance en bloc those Candidates (A) unanimously recommended by the July Committee.

(2) Similarly the Secretary of the Committee shall propose for rejection en bloc those Candidates (D) unanimously not recommended, thus saving valuable time for the consideration of any critical cases.

(3) Candidates concerning whom there was division of opinion in the July Committee (B & C) shall be considered individually by the Conference.

(4) Any proposal to reverse the recommendation of the July

Committee should be notified to the Secretaries of the Committee on the first day of the Pastoral Conference, so that full records may be at hand when such cases come before Conference.

(5) To carry any proposal to reverse the recommendation of the Committee in the case of Candidates of the " D " Class, a two-thirds majority shall be necessary.

95. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—(1) Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

(2) Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Oversight Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

(3) As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Courses of Study for two successive years. (Summary, pp. 228–9.)

96. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—(1) The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and the Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, pp. 197–8.)

(2) The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ..	£180.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children	£88 8 0 for each child (of which £42 is reckoned as being on Maintenance Account).

3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund .. £9 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Children's Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their Probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into Full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

97. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the Mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference; (2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, p. 365.)

II. THE DISTRICT.

1. SYNODS.

98. District Synods, 1929.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 12 and 19, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

99. Attendance of Ministers at Annual District Synods.—(1) The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering questions affecting Character to absent himself from any of the Sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. The above Regulation shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. (Summary, p. 343.)

100. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—(1) Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a Dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of Discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the Annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our Doctrines.

(2) A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident, of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of Doctrine and Discipline.

(3) Since all Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Secretary of the District Synod, and be included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Summary, pp. 320–1.)

101. Conversation on the Work of God.—The Conversation on the Work of God in the Pastoral Session of the Synod provides a valuable opportunity, which should be fully used, for consultation on the supreme business of the Churches. The Conversation may be introduced by an appropriate address from the Chairman of the District, by the use of the Responsive Service of Praise and Prayer, or by the reading of the Liverpool Minutes. (Minutes, 1927, p. 293.)

102. Expenses of Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits appointed by the Conference shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Synods. (Summary, p. 135.)

103. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 453-4.)

104. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference.—(1) The election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session shall be made by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

105. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—(1) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Meeting of the Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(2) Duly qualified and elected women are eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

(3) The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meeting of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay members only.

(4) The Conference recommends the Synods to re-elect annually, when practicable, one-third of the total number of Lay Representatives from among such of the Lay Representatives elected at the previous May Synod as shall be eligible and shall offer themselves for re-election. (Summary, pp. 395-6.)

106. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Conference, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Summary, p. 340.)

107. Re-election on Synod Committees.—In harmony with the legislation with reference to re-election on Connexional Committees [S.O. 2 (3)], the Regulations in regard to the election of Members of Synod Committees shall read: one Lay member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Summary, p. 337.)

108. District Home Mission and Chapel Committee.—(1) The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee consists of ten Ministers and ten Lay members, to be chosen at the September Synod.

The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman of the District and the Secretary of the District Synod, who shall be members ex-officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Lay members so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

(2) Two Ministers and two Lay members shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod.

(3) The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as associated members of the Committee five Ministers and five Lay members, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

(4) The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

(5) The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for Grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

(6) The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective Local Preachers, Class Leaders, and responsible Office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

(7) The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

(8) In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

(9) The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of Sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism in both towns and villages.

(10) The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining, or in which the growth of the population, or the boundaries of the Circuit, have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

(11) The Committee shall have power to appoint a Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the Resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered, in the first instance, by the full Committee.

(a) No sale of any Chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

(b) The examination and report on the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

(12) The Committee may appoint one of its members as a Lay Treasurer for any Funds at the disposal of the Synod, and one of its members to be associated with the Ministerial Secretary, having special relation to Chapel affairs.

(13) Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every possible way to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District. (Summary, pp. 451–3.)

109. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May District Synods whether the regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Summary, p. 285.)

110. Report in Synod on Open-air Work.—The Conference directs that, in order to answer the question relating to Open-air Work on the May Synod Agenda, an inquiry on this subject shall be sent to each circuit in the District by the District Home Mission Secretary, who shall present a report to the Synod. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this Requisition. (Summary, p. 266; Minutes, 1927, p. 293.)

139. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuit to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 51.)

140. Quarterly Fast-days.—(1) A general Fast shall be held in all our Societies the first Friday after New Year's Day, after Lady Day, after Midsummer Day, and after Michaelmas Day. (Summary, p. 24.)

(2) The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the ensuing year, are Fridays, September 28, 1928, January 4, March 29, and June 28, 1929.

141. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. (Summary, p. 22.)

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1.

142. Emigration Bureau.—All removal notes of Emigrants are to be sent to the Rev. Joseph H. Bateson, C.B.E., Secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1. (Summary, p. 21.)

143. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property shall be carefully preserved therein. (Summary, p. 79.)

144. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting for the purpose. (Summary, p. 79.)

N.B.—By direction of the Conference a book for Registration of Trust Deeds has been issued by the Methodist Publishing House, 25–35, City Road, London, E.C.1.

145. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be Members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in, and approved by, the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Summary, pp. 170–1.)

146. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Summary, pp. 305–6.)

1. QUARTERLY MEETING.

147. Ministers' Allowances: Method of Payment.—The Conference recommends that as far as possible there shall be throughout the Connexion a uniform method in the payment of Ministers' Allowances; viz., that at the September Quarterly Meeting a full Quarter's Allowance should be paid to each newly appointed Minister. The Conference directs that this recommendation be read in every September Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 158.)

148. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—(1) Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's House, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert (and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority), and to forward a Certificate of the good sanitary condition of the House to the Chairman of the District before August 21.

(2) The Conference directs that whenever a Minister is appointed to a Circuit or Department for more than three consecutive years, there shall be a sanitary inspection of the House in which he resides, and a Certificate of its satisfactory sanitary condition shall be presented, not only when the Minister is first appointed, but after every three years of his residence.

(3) Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether these requirements of the Conference have been carried out. (Summary, p. 138.)

(4) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the September Synod: "Has any case of infectious disease occurred during the past year? If so, has the house been duly disinfected?" (Agenda, 1924, p. 17; Daily Record, p. 52.)

N.B.—A Form of Certificate can be obtained from The Methodist Publishing House, 25–35, City Road, London, E.C.1.

149. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits. These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Summary, p. 133.)

150. Discontinuance of Public Services.—(1) Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity.

(2) Before any place is taken off the Plan it is necessary to obtain the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 176.)

151. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay members of the Meeting.

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings, the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Summary, p. 148.)

152. Lay Representation of Circuits in the Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing Regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Lay members, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional Representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Summary, p. 137.)

153. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the District Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the District Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Summary, p. 137.)

154. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—(1) The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the Annual Synod in May; also a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present.

(2) Substitutes for Circuit Stewards duly elected at the March Quarterly Meeting shall be empowered, if need be, to attend the September as well as the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 137–8.)

155. Eligibility for Membership of the Synods.—No one is eligible for membership of a District Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Summary, p. 137.)

156. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry concerning Foreign Missions.—(1) In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer.

(2) At the March Quarterly Meeting the Annual Report and Audited Accounts are to be presented, and the Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers for the ensuing year are to be appointed.

(3) In the appointment of the Circuit Missionary Committee, due representation of the Women's Auxiliary should be provided.

(4) The above instructions [pars. (1) and (2)] apply also to the Women's Auxiliary. (Summary, pp. 304–7.)

157. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A Return of the gross amount collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of that amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Meeting of the District Synods. (Summary, pp. 140–1.)

158. The Weekly Offertory.—The weekly Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 150.)

159. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Summary, p. 158.)

160. Report of Connexional Funds at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuits; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Summary, p. 162.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 335–7; also Summary, pp. 163, 441–5.

161. Wesley Guild Circuit Returns.—The Circuit Guild Returns which are prepared for the District Synod shall be submitted to and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Summary, p. 129.)

162. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Any member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial.

(4) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. Provided that the Regulations of this Standing Order are observed, it is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or is subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism.

(5) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit.

(6) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript.

(7) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. JAMES R. IRVING, Manse, Anchorage Road, Sutton Coldfield, Birmingham, not later than June 28. Any Memorial adopted by a Quarterly Meeting which is held too late for this to be done, shall be forwarded as soon as possible to the Convener, who shall, if necessary, present it to the Conference without its being printed.

(8) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference.

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Summary, pp. 144–5.)

163. Status of Wesley Deaconesses.—Inasmuch as Wesley Deaconesses are set apart to a Ministry of Women by the recognised authorities of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, after due training and examination, these Deaconesses when acting under the direction of the Warden and Committee of the Wesley Deaconess Institute and appointed by them to labour in our Circuits, with the approval of the Quarterly Meeting, shall be Members of the Leaders' Meetings of the Society and Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 186.)

164. Circuit Lay Treasurer of Connexional Funds.—The Circuit Official appointed as Lay Treasurer and Secretary on behalf of Connexional Funds to relieve Superintendents of their Financial and Statistical burdens, being a member of Society, shall be an ex-officio member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 253.)

165. Circuit Lay Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund.—The Conference authorises the appointment of a Lay Treasurer in every Circuit where possible, in order to obtain increased subscriptions. (Summary, p. 216.)

166. Circuit Lay Secretary and Treasurer for Foreign Missions.—The Circuit Lay Secretary and the Circuit Treasurer for Foreign Missions are ex-officio members of the Quarterly Meeting, provided they are members of Society in that Circuit. (Summary, p. 305; Minutes, 1926, pp. 68, 324.)

167. Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary (now designated the Women's Department of the W.M.M.S.).—The Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, being a Member of Society in that

Circuit, and whose election is made or confirmed by the Quarterly Meeting, shall be ex-officio a member of that Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 307.)

168. Lay Secretary of Circuit Sunday School Council.—The Lay Secretary of the Circuit Sunday School Council, being a member of Society in the Circuit, and over twenty-one years of age, is ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 105.)

169. The General Secretary of Wesley Guild.—The General Secretary of each Wesley Guild, provided he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and is a member of Society, is ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1928, p. 66.)

170. The Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary.—The Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary, provided such Secretary be a member of Society in that circuit and shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, is ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1928, p. 66.)

171. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established wherever possible in every Circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. All Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be entitled to attend the Meeting, but only those can vote who have reached the age of twenty-one years. The Meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June, Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call Special Meetings when necessary. (Summary, p. 58.)

172. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission (Oldham Street Circuit) shall include the Trustees of all Chapels and Mission Halls, who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Summary, p. 147.)

2. SUPERINTENDENTS.

173. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements in their Circuit Plans for securing to their Junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of the Lord's Supper. (Summary, p. 235.)

174. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint at each principal Chapel in their Circuits a Special Society Meeting, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Summary, p. 41.)

175. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the Members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal Chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the New Year; and that, in connection with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Summary, p. 42.)

176. Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Weekdays.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Summary, p. 39.)

177. Minute Books in Discipline Cases.—In all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody. (Summary, p. 52.)

178. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Summary, p. 79.)

179. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt, the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a Colleague, and cannot therefore consult a Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 33.)

180. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and the Secretary of the District Synod with names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 138, 160.)

181. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Missions' Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Summary, pp. 274–5.)

182. Pastoral Oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Summary, p. 275.)

3. LOCAL PREACHERS.

183. Regulations regarding Local Preachers.—(1) Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History [The Catechisms of the Wesleyan Methodists, No. II], and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Summary, pp. 174–5.)

(2) No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity, as there explained. (Summary, p. 173.)

(3) Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher he shall have been twelve months on probation. The Local Preachers' Meeting shall have power to extend the period of probation in individual cases if such a measure be deemed advisable. (Summary, p. 173.)

(4) All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Summary, p. 172.)

(5) Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

In furtherance of the aim for the worthier admission of Local Preachers to Full Plan, a suitable Letter, signed by the President of the Conference, shall be given to each Local Preacher so received, such Letter to be handed to him either on his acceptance on Full Plan or at a Public Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

(6) A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan.

N.B.—This Regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances. (Summary, p. 170.)

(7) Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit. This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on Trial.

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Summary, pp. 172–3.)

(8) Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Summary, p. 167.)

(9) The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Summary, p. 175.)

184. Local Preachers: Scheme of Study.—(1) All Local Preachers on Trial are urged to take a Special Course of study arranged by the Local Preachers' Committee through its Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study; the course to include Theology, Bible Study, Homiletics, and English Literature.

(2) In every Circuit an endeavour shall be made by the Local Preachers' Meeting to form a Local Preachers' Training Class, covering the subjects of the above-named Special Course and giving particular attention to preaching.

(3) An Annual Connexional Examination for Local Preachers, based upon the same Special Course and divided into two grades, (a) elementary, (b) advanced, shall be arranged by the Committee, and all Local Preachers on Trial are strongly advised to take the Elementary Paper during their probation, and the Advanced Paper the following year; the Committee to provide a suitable Certificate to be presented at the Circuit Local Preachers' Meeting, or at a special Recognition Meeting, to each successful candidate. (Minutes, 1926, pp. 146–7.)

185. Women Local Preachers.—The Conference declares that women are eligible to become fully accredited Local Preachers on the same conditions and shall hereafter enjoy the same rights and privileges as men who are Local Preachers. (Summary, p. 169.)

186. Wesley Deaconesses and Women Preachers.—The Conference grants permission to Local Preachers' Meetings, in the case of Wesley Deaconesses and other women who have already been preaching under the sanction of the Regulations of the Conference of 1910, to receive them upon Full Plan without further examination. (Summary, p. 169.)

187. Reading of Local Preachers on Trial.—(1) In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Summary, p. 174.)

(2) The Conference directs that the following question be added to the Order of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings:

> "Have the brethren on trial received information concerning the 'Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study,' and have they been advised to join?"

N.B.—The names of any willing to join are to be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee. (Summary, pp. 176–7.)

188. Secretary of Local Preachers' Meeting and Connexional Committee.—The Secretary of the Local Preachers' Quarterly Meeting shall forward annually to the Connexional Local Preachers' Secretary the Circuit Plan for the March Quarter, and also send the name and address of any person received "on trial" as a Local Preacher or becoming a fully accredited Local Preacher in the Circuit. (Summary, p. 177.)

IV. THE SOCIETY.

189. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Summary, p. 44.)

190. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the Kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class Leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Summary, p. 14.)

191. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage new members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service of the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–54.)

If any have not previously received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 19.)

1. LEADERS' MEETING.

192. Representation of Members in the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than eighteen years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of Representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his Colleagues; the Members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their Ticket of membership for the previous Quarter.

(8) If a vacancy in the number of the elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Summary, pp. 41–2.)

193. Disciplinary Functions.—The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Summary, p. 52.)

194. Chief or General Sunday School Superintendent.—The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex-officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Summary, p. 52.)

195. Admission of Members.—(1) The Leaders' Meeting shall have a right to declare any person on Trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society.

(2) It never was intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him, and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation. (Summary, p. 18.)

196. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Summary, p. 29.)

197. Trial of Members who are also Trustees.—(1) No Trustee, however accused or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders' Meeting of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society.

(2) When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit. (Summary, pp. 31–2.)

198. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No Appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Summary, p. 35.)

199. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Summary, p. 50.)

200. Junior Society Classes.—In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. As a rule, these Classes shall be met week by week. (Summary, p. 24.)

201. The Relation of Children to the Church—Junior Membership.—The Minister of any Society is empowered in consultation with the Leaders' Meeting to arrange with the leaders of the various organisations working amongst young people for the placing of the names of such as give definite evidence of spiritual life on class books, and in charge of suitable Leaders as their Class Leaders.

Where it seems advisable to the Minister and the Leaders' Meeting concerned, the Classes so formed may be Junior Classes, their Members being counted accordingly as Junior Members. It is specially recommended that this course should be followed in connection with the Devotional Section of the Junior Wesley Guild. (Summary, p. 26; Agenda, 1924, p. 324; Daily Record, p. 29.)

202. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Summary, p. 26.)

203. The General Secretary of Wesley Guild.—The General Secretary of each Wesley Guild shall be ex-officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of the Society with which the Guild is connected provided he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, is a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Minutes, 1928, p. 66.)

204. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers of each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Summary, pp. 22, 54.)

205. Local Foreign Missionary Committee.—Where a Local Foreign Missionary Committee is not otherwise appointed, the Leaders' Meeting shall act in that capacity, and have power, for the transaction of Missionary Business, to co-opt other members. (Summary, p. 54.)

206. Combined Meetings in the Society.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Local Sunday-school Council, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Summary, p. 52.)

2: TRUSTEES.

207. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds. The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Summary, p. 63.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Summary, p. 63.

208. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference directs that the previous Standing Order upon this subject be re-stated as follows:

The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church, or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally.

The Conference re-affirms its declaration that dancing, card playing, games of chance, theatrical entertainments, and amusements of a frivolous or vulgar type, are contrary to the general rules and usage of the people called Methodists as affecting the use of our Trust Property, and cannot be allowed.

The Conference is as strongly opposed as ever to our premises being used for such purposes, and earnestly deprecates any movement which would result in the general introduction of entertainments which require a dramatic licence. The Conference recognises, however, that there are entertainments of an innocent and helpful character for which a licence is required by the Public Authorities, primarily as a condition of public safety. It may therefore at times be necessary to apply for such a licence. In that case the Conference relies upon the loyalty of Trustees and Superintendents, and urges upon them the necessity of wise discrimination and careful oversight. It should always be remembered that our premises are held for religious worship, and no entertainment should be allowed which conflicts with the Trusts under which our property is held. Subject to the aforesaid statement, the Conference lays down the following conditions precedent to any application for a dramatic licence:

(1) No attempt shall be made to include entertainments of an undesirable character under cover of a dramatic licence.

(2) No entertainment which requires a dramatic licence shall be given on our premises without the programme being submitted to and approved by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues.

(3) On all occasions when a dramatic licence is sought, it shall in each case be after the express vote of the Trustees, and the application shall be made on their behalf by some person duly authorised by the Trustees, subject to the consent of the Superintendent Minister.

(4) No application shall be made for a building to be regularly licensed for dramatic entertainments. (Agenda, 1924, p. 345; Minutes, 1924, p. 105.)

N.B.—1. The Conference suggests that entertainments which are not allowed on Trust Premises should not be allowed elsewhere in the name of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Daily Record, 1927, pp. 32, 72.)

2. For Raffles on Church Premises, see Summary, p. 508.

209. Masonic Services upon Methodist Premises.—The Conference is of opinion that the holding of Masonic Services upon Methodist premises is highly inexpedient, but directs that whenever requests are received for permission to hold such services the following safeguards must be complied with:

(i) The consent of the Superintendent who must be responsible for the Programme of Service, which must be submitted to him.

(ii) Such Service must be of a truly Christian character, must not be used for the advocacy of Freemasonry, and in Prayers and Hymns there must not be, by deletion or otherwise, a denial of the name of Christ as Saviour and Lord. (Minutes, 1927, pp. 291–2.)

210. Trust Premises and other Religious Societies.—The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given. (Summary, p. 64.)

211. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the National Insurance Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust Property liable to rates. (Summary, p. 63.)

212. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our chapels on the Lord's Day. (Summary, p. 64.)

213. Trusts and Connexional Funds.—The Conference of 1921 resolved as follows:

(1) In every place of worship throughout our Church, both in Circuits and in Missions, the Connexional Collections shall be duly announced, and the object of them explained to our people.

(2) In the case of Missions, bearing in mind that the cost of the upkeep of the property and all ordinary expenditure depend upon the Offertory, at least one-half of the collections taken on a given Sunday shall be paid to each of the Connexional Funds.

(3) Where the Envelope System is in use, an average of collections for the past three years shall be paid to each Connexional Fund, it being understood that this shall be budgeted for in the amounts required year by year by each Church. Special gifts should be encouraged at each anniversary, and private donations solicited. Whenever there is a surplus on the year's working of the system, the Connexional Funds should benefit pro rata with the local church fund.

(4) Circuits which do not adopt the Envelope System shall be directed to conform to Conference Regulations, and devote a whole Sunday's collections to each Connexional Fund.

(5) The Conference recognises that in this matter the case of Scotland is exceptional, and recommends that the present arrangements there for helping the Connexional Funds shall be continued. There are difficulties in altering existing arrangements in Scotland, but the Conference is hopeful that in the near future the Envelope System will be generally adopted, which it believes will help to solve the difficulties. (Summary, pp. 444–5.)

3: SUNDAY AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

214. Sunday School Official Meetings.*—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; also at all meetings of the Committee and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting or at a meeting of the Committee no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Summary, p. 117.)

215. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex-officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The chief or general Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex-officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex-officio Representative, a special representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the School at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special representative shall be elected in like manner. The special representative or representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for representatives.

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

(5) Where there are two Sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council, elect from among their own number as a representative, some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such Chairman being a member of the Church. (Summary, p. 116.)

216. Correct Returns from Sunday and Primary Schools.—(1) The Local Sunday School Council shall consider, at a Meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary.

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the Local Council.

(3) The Circuit Sunday School Council shall consider the Sunday School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting.

(4) The Statistics of the Primary and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit June Quarterly Meeting.

(5) The Sunday School and Education [Primary School] Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendent to the District Sunday School Secretary not later than April 3 in each year. (Summary, p. 111.)

217. Local Temperance Officials.—The Conference directs that the Local Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary be ex-officio a member of the Local Sunday School Council, and that one of the Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretaries be ex-officio a member of the Circuit Sunday School Council. (Summary, p. 122.)

218. Local Sunday School Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary.—The Local Sunday School Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary or Secretaries shall be ex-officio a member or members of the Local Sunday School Council. (Minutes, 1928, p. 66.)

219. Orthodoxy of Sunday School Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the Local Sunday School Council or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office he sustains, or for taking part in the Christian Education of the Young. (Summary, p. 109.)

220. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools. (Summary, p. 112.)

221. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, "Scholars' Removal Notes" should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Connexional Sunday School Council to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Summary, p. 113.)

222. Young People's Day.—The Conference directs that the Third Sunday in October be observed as a day of special prayer on behalf of our Young People, and that our Ministers and Local Preachers be asked to co-operate with the Sunday School Authorities in bringing before the young the necessity of immediate decision. (Summary, p. 114.)

223. Erection of Sunday School Premises.—All Trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises intended for Sunday School work shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Summary, p. 115.)

224. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.—Each Circuit Sunday School Secretary shall send to the Connexional Sunday School Secretary, not later than March, a report of the working of the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs, the Girl Guides and Brownies, and that, should any local difficulty arise, the help of the Sunday School Department should be sought. (Summary, p. 114.)

MEMORIALS AND SUGGESTIONS REFERRED TO DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEES.

Committee of Privileges.

The Performing Right Society.—This Quarterly Meeting desires to bring before the notice of the Conference the claim of the Performing Right Society, Limited, to impose an annual charge upon any building or hall, other than the Church itself, belonging to the Circuit which is used for concert purposes, irrespective of any charge for admission or payment to artistes. The Conference will probably be aware already that, with the payment of the sum demanded by the said Society, a licence is issued permitting the use of any music professedly under the control of the Society. At a united meeting of the Trustees of the Circuit, legal notice having been given, it was decided to ask the Conference for a ruling on this subject, the request to take the form of a Memorial from the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

In thus memorialising Conference the Quarterly Meeting would like to state (1) That the arbitrary manner in which the charge is made—the amount being apparently decided entirely by the Society—is most unsatisfactory. The free interpretation by the Society of their rights under the Copyright Act is open to grave objection.

(2) The possible risk, if payment is made, of the Local Authorities placing the premises upon the rates.

(3) The additional expense involved thereby in the work of the Church.

It is strongly felt that, if this demand is admitted, the Trustees are committed to an annual charge which may be revised each year, or period of years, as the Performing Right Society may decide, without of necessity any reference being made to the Trustees. The Trustees having once admitted liability, there is no protection for them against a gradual increase in the annual charge. In asking for a ruling in this matter, the Quarterly Meeting respectfully suggests that the Conference on its own part, or in conjunction with other religious authorities, should consider the advisability of testing the claim of the Performing Right Society by legal procedure in the High Court. It strongly urges that inquiry should at once be made to obtain if possible united action in this matter, and assures the Conference that as a Circuit it will be prepared to give all financial assistance within its power. (London, Wandsworth Circuit.)

Wesley Guild Council.

Wesley Guild.—This Synod recommends that in every Circuit there be a Circuit Wesley Guild Council, and that the Circuit Secretary be, ex-officio, a member of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided he be a member of Society. (Newcastle-on-Tyne.)

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL WELFARE COMMITTEE.

Betting Coupons.—This Synod desires to call the attention of Conference to the appalling growth of betting through the coupon betting system, organised and carried on by a large section of the Press in connection with football and other sports, in which sums of many thousands of pounds are offered as allurements to working people, especially young people, and respectfully urges Conference to institute such measures as may make this practice illegal. (Isle of Man.)

LOCAL PREACHERS COMMITTEE.

Training of Local Preachers.—In view of the much higher average of knowledge and education of our congregations, and the consequent demand for great efficiency of our Local Preachers, this Quarterly Meeting recommends that Conference shall immediately take steps to provide and secure a better training for all future Candidates for the Plan, on the following or similar lines :

(a) That the period of probation be two years, instead of one as at present.

(b) By drawing up a uniform, detailed and compulsory course of study extending over the probationary period.

(c) That at intervals of three or six months during such period the Candidate be tested, either orally or in writing, as to the progress made in his studies.

(d) That the Candidate shall be heard once each quarter by one or more of the older brethren, and a report of his preaching be given at the Local Preachers' Quarterly Meeting.

(e) That the final examination be on more definite lines than is at present the case, and be oral, or written, or both.

Whilst fully appreciating the value of the Union for Biblical and Homiletical Study, it is to be regretted that so few comparatively take advantage of it, and that probably owing to the fact that membership is voluntary, many of those who commence the course do not complete it. (Hull, Queen's Road Circuit.)

FOREIGN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

Income of Women's Department.—This Synod requests the Conference, without in any way affecting the autonomy of the Women's Department, to arrange for the inclusion of the Women's Auxiliary income in the Circuit Foreign Missions Schedules. (York District.)

EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Wesleyan Children in Public Boarding Schools.—This Synod petitions Conference to cause inquiries to be made of all Superintendent Ministers in whose circuits there are Public Secondary Boarding Schools supported by the rates—

1. Whether the children from Wesleyan homes are allowed to attend chapel.

2. What provision is made for such attendance.

3. Can anything more be done than is at present done to help children from Methodist families while attending these boarding schools to grow up faithful Methodists ? (Hull District.)

GENERAL CHAPEL COMMITTEE.

Covenants in Conveyances of Trust Properties.—To consider and to report upon the restrictive covenants which should be included in the conveyances of Trust properties of our Church when sold by the trustees concerned.

PASTORAL ADDRESS COMMITTEE.

Appeal for more Self-denial.—In view of the exigencies of our work at home and abroad, and the clear call of our Lord to self-denial, this Synod urges the Conference to call upon our people to exercise a stricter moderation in all forms of self-indulgence. (Devonport and Plymouth.)

METHODIST LAW COMMITTEE.

Ministers' Marriages.—This Synod desires to memorialise Conference suggesting that the wording and, to some extent, the matter of our rules as to ministers' marriages need revision in accordance with the circumstances of the present time. (Lucknow and Benares Synod.)

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE CO., LTD.

(See Advertisement in Insurance Section.)

THE Company was established in 1872 with the sanction and commendation of Conference for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by Fire. Powers were subsequently obtained for the transaction within the same field of other classes of insurance, including Workmen's Compensation, Third Party, and Burglary.

The Company operates in the interests, not of Shareholders but of the Connexion. The Shareholders receive only 5 per cent. interest on the amount paid up on their shares, and as the whole paid-up capital is only £1,250, the Shareholders all told take only £62 10s. per annum out of the Company's profits. The rest accrues to the Connexion. The chief beneficiary is the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, to which grants have been made amounting in all to £125,900. The grant in 1928 was £10,000, free of Income Tax.

The Company does not transact a general insurance business. Except for Ministers' insurances, it is restricted by the Articles of Association to insurances on Wesleyan Methodist Trust properties. It relies on such insurances for its premium income, which is the ultimate source of all grants. All its income is derived from premiums. Its profits are trading profits, and it only trades with Wesleyan Methodist Trusts. It is on this ground that the Directors of the Company make their appeal to all Trusts to give the Company the utmost possible support, so that there may be no set-back to its beneficent activity. All Trusts benefit indirectly from the operations of the Company. The help of all is needed.

Summary of Results for Year ended, 30th June, 1928:—Net Premium Income, £23,496; Claims, Management Expenses, etc., £9,269; Interest and Dividends less Income Tax, £8,499; Grants to Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, £10,000; Other Grants, £2,450; Invested Funds, £207,534.

DIRECTORS:—Mr. Isaac A. Mack, Chairman; Mr. W. R. Hesketh, Vice-Chairman; Revs. J. Williams Butcher, Joseph T. Gurney, John Hornabrook, R. Waddy Moss, D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; The Rt. Hon. Lord Hayter, Sir Norval W. Helme, Sir William Middlebrook, Mr. Henry Plummer.

SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

Our Lord had a boundless mission to fulfil, but He was never bewildered by it. His bearing always exhibited perfect poise, quiet confidence, unfathomed sources of strength. Yet His ministry was ardent with desire. There was no time to waste, no opportunity to be lost. Whilst > " With unhurrying chase,

> And unperturbed pace,
> Deliberate speed, majestic instancy"

He seeks to bring the world to God, He is moved with an eagerness that consumes Him.

Those first disciples, too ! With the peace of God in their hearts, and the Spirit of a Risen Lord possessing them, with what amazing and adventurous eagerness did they fulfil their Master's desire. Their " joy in living " was to reveal what a life in Christ could be. It was impossible for them to remain content with things as they were in the world, and they " turned the world upside down " by rapturous spreading of the wonderful news that had come from God.

And were not our Methodist forefathers possessed by a similar spirit ? Kindled into a great enthusiasm by a spiritual experience that assured them of the presence and power of Jesus, they too changed the face of the world. Living in a slow-moving age—compared with our own stirring times—the early Methodists were in a desperate, though unfevered, haste about one thing : they were possessed by a passionate eagerness for the coming of the Kingdom of God. They believed in its speedy advent.

The times have greatly changed. Intellectual and mechanical progress has been inconceivably rapid. Responsibilities, duties, opportunities, pleasures have increased proportionately. Methodism has grown into a gigantic body, with arms extending over the world. It has become a vast organism of enviable efficiency. The activities of our Church are legion. And yet we are disquieted by the question, " Is the Kingdom of our Lord becoming more surely an undisputed and obvious fact in the world ? "

We do not forget the influence Jesus Christ has exercised in the centuries, the impact He has made upon our thought, literature, music, art, and social customs. He has changed our values, ennobled our standards, purified our ideals. His Spirit has been moving in our manifold life, giving us glimpses of the city of our dreams, stirring within us visions of that for which we are for ever restless. With thankfulness and praise we see in our days world movements towards freedom, peace, and brotherhood, which are of the Son of Man. Such movements as the League of Nations, the efforts of statesmen and peoples towards the abolition of all that makes war possible, not only command our allegiance, but speak to us of His Presence. On every hand there are not wanting signs that the Lord hath risen indeed and is in our midst. We rejoice also to witness a growing desire amongst the Churches for closer co-operation and united witness. The fences of prejudice and exclusiveness are breaking down. An ampler and sweeter air blows about us. We are beginning to live and move in the spacious and healing atmosphere of true Catholicism. There was a remarkable sense of the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit vouchsafed to the World Conference on Faith and Order held during the past year at Lausanne.

Especially are we grateful for the work our own Church is doing. Our Foreign Missionary Society, with sublime enthusiasm, continues its redemptive work of preaching, teaching, healing, in lands slow to change from ancient customs and beliefs. In many areas the Gospel has produced a response so great and widespread as to be beyond our present faith and powers adequately to deal with. Thousands who have been dwelling in darkness are eager to walk in the daylight of Jesus, and our ready acceptance of this responsibility is severely testing our loyalty to the Master. Whilst we regret to report a decrease in the number of Sunday School scholars we are persuaded that the work in Sunday Schools, and Wesley Guilds, and the manifold activities amongst young people were never carried on with more devotion or intelligent zeal than to-day. Through the Vanity Fair of our times, hampered by post-war problems, the youth of the Church is being shepherded with understanding and with untiring sympathy. The campaign against Social evils is alert and aggressive. Methodism has for long been in the van of an army which is grappling with Intemperance, Gambling, and Impurity. New and insidious forms of these vices arise with surprising suddenness, but our weapons are sharpened and our powers increased. We believe that our people grow more determined to vanquish the forces that make for social degradation.

Again we report with gratitude an increase in our Church Membership. We are stimulated by the knowledge that throughout the Connexion, in hamlet and in city, in village Bethel and central mission, our various activities are being maintained by men and women whose loyal devotion to Methodism is unsurpassed. We praise God for the faithful, who, in these days of competitive interests, are supremely concerned for the welfare of the Church.

And yet, though there is much upon which we can look with pride and joy, we cannot be satisfied. At times we are indeed greatly disturbed, and not a little anxious. Difficulties there have been in every age. Indifference to any form of organised religion, insensibility to spiritual values and realities, sheer godlessness in the lives of multitudes—these have been troublesome facts throughout the history of Christianity. But surely it is a matter of grave concern that after all these years of evangelism, with an organisation so vast and perfected, and through an era of church building unprecedented, when knowledge has increased, and the foundations of our Faith have been tested and proved, the Church of Christ should count for so little in the ordinary life of the people. In spite of all our activities, and our earnest efforts to attract the people, we are yet surrounded by an indifference which is sufficient to make the most complacent amongst us uneasy. The Gospel is not challenged so much as it is ignored. Paganism abounds in the land, and is constantly fed by new movements and interests —some of which present themselves as health-giving, æsthetic, or spiritual benefits. The sense of the necessity for worship stirs the people little, and multitudes at our very doors are living as though Christ were not really alive.

We do not despair of our age. On the contrary, we believe that God has great things in store for us, and is compelling us to decisions and sacrifices and a manner of living which shall once again challenge and arrest the world. Let us betake ourselves to constant prayer, and seek occasions for fellowship together in the Holy Spirit. Let us cherish the privilege and value of reverent observance of the Lord's Supper. Above all, let us every day remember the gracious words of our Lord, "Ye are My witnesses." It is high time that we took Him seriously, made Him the supreme interest and passion of our lives. We are very busy, sustaining the institutions of Methodism in an age when industrial and social conditions make the task none too easy. Is there not a danger that, whilst busy here and there, the one thing needful should be obscured? Our work in the Church must be efficiently and faithfully done, but there is something of even more importance and urgency. No doubt the world would be impressed by the fact of a flourishing Church, but it is more likely to be saved when it sees Christ alive, radiant, triumphant in the lives of Christian men and women. It was this which men saw in the early disciples ; it was this which England saw in our Methodist forefathers ; and, if we will, it is this which can be seen afresh to-day. Witnesses of a Living, Redeeming Lord ; that is what we are to be ! And if we are not such, we are hindering His movements, preventing His access to those whom He is longing to reach. "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me." Our Lord was very certain it could be done if only a handful of men and women would so love Him that His nature and spirit should be revealed through them. Something of Himself would then be seen wherever His disciples went. Breaking in upon us as we are absorbed in a multitude of interests, and duties, and pleasures, He lays a Hand upon us, and says, "I must reveal Myself to the world through you." Confused we may well be, ashamed at our unworthiness, questioning why we should be claimed for so high and sacred a task, but He assures us again, "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you."

THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1928 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1928.

BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled once more in our Annual Conference, we rejoice in the opportunity it affords us to greet you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We do so with sincere affection, with thankfulness to God for your achievements, and with earnest prayer for your continued welfare.

We have received the honoured President of the Conference, the Rev. William Hodson Smith, with the respect due to his high office and with grateful remembrance of his many kindnesses. His name has long been known in Ireland by reason of the service he has rendered as Principal of the National Children's Home. He has still further endeared himself to us by his personal charm, his conduct in the Chair of our Conference, and his public utterances.

The Ex-President, the Rev. W. Russell Maltby, D.D., we have cordially welcomed as an old and valued friend, and his inspiring messages have contributed much to our spiritual enrichment. The Rev. Eric S. Waterhouse, M.A., D.D., and Rev. E. Benson Perkins have worthily represented you and have brought blessing to us. The presence of Gipsy Smith, as your lay representative, has also greatly gratified us. We esteem him very highly in love for his work's sake.

For the first time the provisions of the New Constitution of our Conference have been brought into operation. Sanction has been given to it by the Parliaments of the Irish Free State and of Northern Ireland without any opposition, in harmony with the decisions of the British Conference of last year. While in some matters larger liberty has been granted us, there is no abatement of our affectionate attachment to you, but rather an increased desire that the tender and loving bonds which have hitherto existed may become stronger and an ever-increasing source of moral and spiritual power. We are still one in origin and development, and in the deep and intimate fellowship of a common life and purpose to spread scriptural holiness through the land.

We have also carried into effect the separation of Edgehill College for training Candidates for our Ministry from the Methodist College of which it was formerly an integral part.

Reviewing the work of the past year, we are glad to report a further increase in our membership. The number may be small, but considering that it has been gained in spite of a declining population, and in face of many difficulties, we have good reason to be thankful.

You will rejoice with us in the success which has attended our Forward Movement enterprise. Despite the period of commercial and industrial depression through which we, with you, have been passing, a sum of about £60,000 has been contributed for the providing of additional accommodation for worship in the City of Belfast. In large measure through the generosity of one of your most distinguished laymen, Mr. Joseph Rank, the new Grosvenor Hall has been completed, and since its opening in the autumn thousands have heard in it the proclamation of the Gospel of redeeming grace.

The preaching of that Gospel, however, has not been confined to churches and halls; God has set before us many open doors. Our ministers have had free access to the fairs and markets held throughout the country, and in speech and in song they have made the blessed tidings known. The Lord has stood with them and strengthened them.

We find further cause for gratitude and hope in the reports of the labours of our colporteurs. By the sale of copies of the Holy Scriptures they continue to sow the good seed of the kingdom, and we believe in due season the harvest will appear.

Being convinced that it is the business of the Church to combat evil in every form, we are earnestly pressing for more advanced temperance legislation. We are also endeavouring to educate our people on the growing menace of gambling, and we deplore the additional facilities afforded this evil by the widespread introduction of greyhound race meetings.

During the year one of our brethren in the active work of the Ministry, and three of our Supernumerary ministers, have fallen on sleep. One of the latter, Rev. Samuel Dunlop, was for many years the honoured father of our Conference.

We are not forgetful of the bereavements you have sustained. Our sorrow was very deep when tidings reached us that the Rev. Thomas Kirkup was dead. When we recall the many services which, by the grace of God, he rendered your Church, and the kindly and practical interest he always took in our affairs, we feel that your loss and ours is great indeed.

God buries His workmen but He carries on His work. We have this year accepted twelve young men as Candidates for our Ministry, and have received into full connexion four who have been tried and found faithful.

We have nominated the Rev. William Moore for election to the Legal Hundred to fill the vacancy occasioned by the retirement of the Rev. William J. Christie.

The Rev. Randall Canning Phillips, a brother greatly beloved, has been elected by us as President of the Methodist Church in Ireland and Vice-President of the Conference. He will be accompanied to your Conference at Liverpool by the Rev. John E. Neill, B.A., the Rev. Richard R. Sayers, B.A., and Mr. J. Robertson Coade whom we send as our representatives.

In conclusion, we would assure you once more of our unabated love and attachment. "Now the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always, by all means. The Lord be with you all."

R. LEE COLE, Secretary.

BELFAST,

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We salute you once more as fellow labourers in the service of our common Lord, and acknowledge with gratitude your cordial and affectionate greetings. Our esteemed Ex-President and his colleagues have rejoiced our hearts with the reports they have brought to us of your steadfast and unwavering faith, your manifold and persevering activities, and the abounding generosity with which you gave them welcome.

Your eloquent deputation, the Rev. Randall Canning Phillips, delighted us with the graphic portrayal of the unwearied devotion with which you have laboured during the past year, and his speech to the Conference was worthily supplemented by his excellent colleague Mr. J. Robertson Coade. Their fraternal greetings deepened the impression of affection and loyalty which binds us to one another and knits us more closely in the sacred bonds of Christian fellowship and service.

The Conference was particularly interested to learn that sanction has been given by the Parliaments of the Irish Free State and of Northern Ireland to the New Constitution of your Conference. It greatly rejoiced in the celerity and smoothness with which "The Methodist Church in Ireland Bills" have become law, thereby securing a larger measure of liberty and freedom. We reciprocate most heartily your assurance that no change in legal status can affect the warmth of attachment which you have always felt and so frequently expressed towards the British Conference, and with growing insistence we are proud to proclaim that we are still one in those unbreakable ties that spring from our common ancestry, historic development, and spiritual fellowship. Amongst the many proofs of your unabated desire for the most real and friendly relationship we note with genuine gratification the legal provision that the President of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference shall be President of the Irish Conference; and, further, that the Representatives of the British Conference who accompany the President shall be members of the Irish Conference.

It is a matter of peculiar interest to us to learn that you have definitely separated Edgehill College for training Candidates for the Ministry. Our Conference has given careful and prolonged consideration to this supremely important branch of our work. We have felt for a considerable time that a Forward Movement in our Theological Institution is long overdue. Never was the need greater for a Ministry well equipped, both spiritually and intellectually. In accordance with this deep conviction we have put our hand to a great task, the magnitude of which calls for earnest prayer, self-sacrificing devotion, and unstinted generosity. In the prosecution of this purpose we find great encouragement in the fact that both your Conference and ours are so courageously facing what we sincerely believe to be the most important and urgent duty of the Church to-day.

The success of your Forward Movement fills us with admiration for the energy and devotion with which you have carried out this great enterprise. The magnificent response to the call for increased accommodation for worship in the City of Belfast is worthy of the high and noble traditions for which you are so justly famed. We are delighted to know that, aided by the generous liberality of Mr. Joseph Rank, an esteemed member of our Conference, you have successfully completed the building of the new Grosvenor Hall—a work which we rejoice to know has been so quickly accompanied by signal and unmistakeable signs of the Divine blessing. The news of your continued activity in proclaiming the Evangel not only in consecrated buildings, but by unconventional methods in circumstances of difficulty and even opposition, has gladdened our hearts, for we are increasingly convinced that our mission is not only to be exercised in streets and lanes of the city, but also in the highways and byways. Your success in declaring the good news in the open air, and at markets and fairs, confirms our belief that our land, like yours, will never be evangelised unless we take advantage of the growing opportunities for reaching the masses of the people who are strangers to our houses of prayer, and who remain untouched by the ordinary methods of Church activity. Especially do we note with thankfulness the success that has marked the efforts of your colporteurs and the increasing sale of copies of the Word of God.

The rapid and alarming growth of greyhound racing in your country, as in ours, has introduced a new menace to the youth of both lands. We are gravely disturbed by the spreading cancer of gambling and betting in our body politic, and we pray that your efforts to avert the evils attendant on this new peril to our social civilisation may be abundantly blessed.

Your sympathetic reference to the passing of the Rev. Thomas Kirkup has touched our hearts. He was indeed a "brother beloved," and his sudden death created widespread sorrow amongst us. We have heard with sorrow, too, of your own bereavements, and desire to assure you of our tender sympathy in the loss you have sustained by the death of honoured brethren who have long served their Church.

Our Conference has taken a supremely important step in deciding by the necessary majority to promote in Parliament the Enabling Bill for the union of the Wesleyan Methodist, Primitive Methodist, and United Methodist Churches. This has been achieved after long and painstaking deliberation. Throughout it all we have been comforted by the assurance that your earnest prayers and sympathetic interest have strengthened us in the belief that the Divine Guidance has been granted to us in our arduous and difficult undertaking.

We tender to you our hearty congratulations on the increase of your membership and the number of young men accepted as Candidates for your Ministry. We heartily commend you to God and the word of His grace.

All ages are ages of change, but never was it more keenly felt than in our own. But the future is bright as the promises of God. 'By the strange thoughts of a new generation, by the formless dreams of better things that float around us—by these signs we know that some mystery of God is even now unfolding, as glorious as the call of the Gentiles, and as hard for many to receive." The circumstances of our day call for patient and devoted service, which cannot fail of its reward. "Be thou faithful unto death"—such is the call to every one of us in this age—and I will give thee a crown of life."

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Our first word must be one of thanksgiving. We know how much we owe to you. A century and more of sympathy and help cannot be effaced from our memory or our hearts. All that you have done for us and for our country moves us deeply both as Christians and as Frenchmen. For your unchanging affection and your unwearied support we do indeed thank you, our English brethren.

You have not permitted yourselves to be disheartened by any discouraging aspect or by any slow progress in a work which is amongst the most difficult that you have undertaken. Behind statistics, which are often misleading, you have discerned that our little Church in France has been able to accomplish a truly spiritual work, and we thank you for having so understood us. At the same time we cannot be satisfied simply to have had your help and your sympathetic comprehension. We ourselves are more conscious than anyone else that the time has come for us to consider some modification if we are to respond not only to your wishes but also to what the present day requires and to what God Himself expects from us. When the Methodist Societies were founded by Charles Cook they were almost alone in stirring up to new life the old Huguenot Churches which had succumbed to the danger which threatens Churches of official standing, and had grown hard, having indeed only a small number of truly faithful ministers in their ranks. With the passage of years this has altered. Our fathers accomplished that great work, and the present condition of the Reformed Churches of France, where spiritual awakening and conversion are preached, and where our own distinctive methods are increasingly employed, testifies to their zeal, their self-sacrifice, and the success that God gave them.

But now we are confronted with the question, "What does the present day demand of us of the Methodist Church?" How can we best use what resources we have in order to promote the Kingdom of God. We know that if we are not to outlive our usefulness we must go forward in obedience to providential indications, to a reasonable modification of our methods and adaptation of the resources at our disposal.

We think it would not be wise to adopt any general change affecting equally all our Churches, but that we ought to seek for some solution of our present difficulties by dealing with each case as it arises. For example, it might be wise to withdraw from a locality where we are clearly duplicating the work of other Churches and to use our resources where we would be alone in bringing the Gospel to the people. It seems to us, dear Brethren, that that would be in accordance with what you wrote to us last year when you said, "Whilst it is of the utmost importance you should conserve in health and vigour what God has already given you as the reward of your toil, we earnestly desire that by friendly arrangement and co-operation with other Evangelical Churches you may find it possible to undertake a yet greater amount of truly missionary work in the non-Protestant parts of France." If we follow this mode of action we should be making such changes as circumstances seem to demand of us, and at the same time should be preserving for our country the Methodist leaven of which your message recognises the value and necessity.

Our Conference, having considered your expressed desire and the counsel tendered to us by the Secretaries of the Missionary Committee, has appointed a special committee of inquiry which during the year will investigate the question and report to our next Conference.

We ask for your prayers. We are well aware that in many things we fall short, but we ask you to remember that if we are small and feeble it is because we have given much away, and if we are poor it is because we have made many rich.

May the blessing of God rest upon you, honoured brethren, and for your strong churches as for our little flocks may the watchword be, "Lo! we come to do Thy Will, O God."

LEWIS PARKER, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Although we have not had the pleasure this year of listening to a delegate from your Conference, we have warmly welcomed the fraternal greetings you have sent us. We rejoice with you as we remember the intimate ties which have bound us to you our Brethren in France for more than one hundred years.

As we look back over those hundred years we are profoundly thankful to God our Father for all that the Methodist Churches have meant for the cause of Protestantism in France. We agree with you that mere statistics are no criterion of the value of that work: for spiritual things are spiritually discerned. New life has come to the Reformed Churches of your country through the leaven of Methodism which has permeated the religious life of many other sections of the nation besides those which are numbered among the Methodists.

We believe that the Methodist Church in France has not a less but a steadily increasing part to play in the religious life of the country, and we are not unaware of the difficulties with which you have to contend. We rejoice in the wisdom, courage and foresight which you are showing in being ready to modify and adapt your methods so as most effectively to cope with the problems which face you. In the words of our Founder, we must go "not only to those who need us, but to those who need us most," and if by co-operation with the other Evangelical Churches you can so co-ordinate the forces of true religion that you avoid duplication and are able to attempt aggressive missionary work in places where the witness of Protestantism is hardly found, we shall pray unceasingly that God will abundantly bless your work and make Methodism a wider and more far-reaching influence in the life of the French nation than it has ever been.

We are gratified that you have appointed a special Committee closely to consider the future in the spirit of those desires for unity which is one of the happiest features of the life of the Christian Church to-day; and we hope and pray that you may be so guided that there may be amongst you a continuance and development of that evangelical witness which was never more needed than it is to-day. May God make France a great power in extending His Kingdom on earth.

We assure you, Beloved Brethren, you have a constant place in our prayers and sympathies. Although, as you say, you are small in numbers and relatively we are strong, yet we, like you, have a stern warfare before us. We are fighting a materialism which is the curse of our Western civilisation, and we are faced with a re-crudescence of pagan indulgence in many forms. But it is God who calls both you and us to this warfare; and if God be for us, who can be against us? Take courage! God is as present as real, as wonderful in this twentieth century as He has been in any other age. May God bless both you and us in all our endeavours.

THE ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1928.

DEAR AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our Forty-sixth Annual Conference, which is our first autonomous assembly, we send you cordial and affectionate greetings.

Although the status of our Conference is no longer that of affiliation with the Yearly Conference, but that of "sovereign independence," we wish to assure you that our affection for, faith in, and admiration of the Mother Church are in no wise lessened by this change of relationship. We earnestly pray that you may go forward to greater achievements than the greatest and most notable in Methodism's glorious past.

We are convinced that the need of the world for the witness of Methodism was never greater than it is at the present time. Movements and tendencies both within and without the Church, call for the emphatic and unequivocal re-affirmation of the great truths of the Protestant evangelical faith, the proclamation of which awoke Europe in the Middle Ages and saved England in the eighteenth century. We ardently desire for ourselves and for you the power to present the old, unchanging truths in terms of modern life so as to make the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ operative in all phases and departments of the world of human affairs.

During the past year several of our most beloved and trusted leaders and workers have been called to the higher service. We grieve at their removal from our midst, but are grateful for their splendid service; we treasure their memory and consecrate ourselves afresh to the task of continuing the work in which they spent themselves.

It is in no spirit of boasting, but with humble gratitude to Almighty God, that we note the encouraging fact that during the forty-five years which have passed since the first South African Conference was held our membership has increased by over ninety-seven thousand, while our ministers now number three hundred and twenty-nine as compared with one hundred and seventy-nine in 1883.

We deeply regret that circumstances have compelled our temporary withdrawal from East Central Africa, and that certain political-religious movements within the Union of South Africa have seriously disturbed our Native people and induced a number to withdraw from the Church.

Nevertheless, we do not despair. The God of our fathers is with us ; and in His strength, being obedient to the Heavenly Vision, we shall be enabled to " do exploits " and become " the savour of life unto life " to many.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,
THOMAS STANTON, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.

BRETHREN BELOVED IN THE LORD,—

We have received with great joy the official greetings of the South African Conference, brought to our sessions by your distinguished representatives.

We rejoice with you at the note of hope which was struck at the gathering of your first autonomous Conference. The severing of the legal bond between our Conferences is in itself a proof of the far stronger bonds of affection and of confidence which exist.

This would seem to be an era of " Enabling Bills." We, in British Methodism, hope to obtain powers (as Irish Methodism has already done) to unite the Primitive, United, and Wesleyan Methodist Conferences. You have obtained legal powers to establish an independent household of your own. We congratulate you on the completion of the great task of the scheduling of all Trust property throughout your South African Connexion. Our island union, and your attainment of independence, are alike proofs of the strength of world-wide Methodism.

We give thanks to God for gracious signs of blessing in increases of membership with you and with us. We have also to rejoice in the number and the improving quality of those who offer as Candidates for the Ministry. We are glad to hear that you are receiving an increasing number of Candidates who are South African born. We regret that the congested state of our colleges, which makes it difficult for us to give adequate training to our own men, hampers us also in our desire to help you in meeting the same problem.

We have heard with sorrow of the removal by death of your late President, the Rev. Theo. R. Curnick, whose work in the translation of the Xoza scriptures is a notable contribution to the spread of the truth of the Gospel. We mourn with you the loss of distinguished and experienced missionaries like the Revs. Samuel Clark and Charles E. Dent. May the mantle of such Elijahs fall on many worthy Elishas.

You will have heard of our own great bereavement in the death of our Conference Secretary, the Rev. Thomas Kirkup, whose preoccupation with Home affairs never diminished his sympathy and interest in your progress.

In the midst of all the problems by which you are faced, we have noted with thankful admiration the watchful care you exercise over the interests of your native and coloured populations. You do service to the Kingdom of God in fostering the just aspirations of those who are committed to your fellowship and care.

May the cords of your tents be strengthened and extended! The Conference here has noted the resolutions in favour of union passed in your Conference and in the Transvaal District Synod. While we sympathise with you in the necessity of your withdrawal from East Africa, arising from circumstances beyond your control, we rejoice in the great work done during the time of your occupation. With you, we hear the call that comes to the whole Methodist Church to evangelise the untouched areas which fall within, or lie close to, your borders.

We recall that it was an African who lifted from His fainting shoulders the Cross of our blessed Lord. May the millions of Africa's sons help to set the crown upon His sacred head. When that day comes, we are sure that it will be found that a noble share in the labour that made it possible has been taken by the Methodist Church of South Africa.

We renew to you the assurance of our love and sympathy and prayer.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,

ROBERT BOND, Secretary.

"At Public Worship, on the morning of the Lord's Day, where an Order of Morning Service sanctioned by the Conference is not used, the Preacher shall read the Lessons appointed for the day. APPENDIX I.

METHODIST UNION.

A POLICY OF THREE STAGES.

First Stage.

(1) The Enabling Bill to be proceeded with in 1928. According to the provisions of the Bill a final vote of not less than 75 per cent. will be required in the three Conferences before the Bill can be put into operation; the preparatory work set forth in the following resolutions to begin at the earliest possible moment.

(2) The Conference re-appoints its representatives to the United Committee and instructs the Committee to prepare plans for:

(a) the election of the 30 Ministers and 30 Laymen who form an integral part of the new Conference, and who are to be the nominees of the Conference;

(b) the constitution of Departmental and Conference Committees and the appointment of Departmental Officers;

(c) the co-ordination of the several Departments;

(d) the codification of Conference procedure;

(e) in addition prepare plans for:

the re-arrangement of Districts;

the allocation of the number of Conference Representatives, Ministers and Laymen, to each District, so as to secure adequate representation of the three uniting Churches;

the first appointment of Chairmen and Secretaries of District Synods; the appointment of other District Officers and District Committees, with due regard to the claims of the three Churches in the respective Districts and to complete all preliminary arrangements for carrying into effect the new Constitution.

(It is hoped that such methods will be devised as will enable the three uniting Churches to determine, each for itself, how it is to be represented. Of course, as time goes on, sectional action will disappear, but, in the first instance, it would seem to be necessary in order to secure adequate representation.)

(f) To review and report on Financial arrangements.

The Committee shall report to the Conference of 1929, and from year to year, until the methods of procedure are finally agreed upon.

(3) In order to give practical evidence of the way in which the three Churches may prepare for the consummation of Union in the areas and Circuits, the Conference authorises the Union Committee to set up Standing Joint Committees in a number of provisional areas embracing the whole of the three Churches.

(As the present Districts are not co-extensive, temporary adjustments shall be made for the purposes herein specified.)

Generally, both the United Committee and the Area Joint Committees are charged with the duty of promoting the sense of unity and cultivating spiritual desire towards actual Union by arranging for united meetings in the areas, and in other ways which may seem wise.

The Area Joint Committees to be appointed partly by the Methodist Union Committee and partly by the September District Synods or Committees in the proportions to be decided by the Methodist Union Committee.

The Area Joint Committees will not have any administrative or executive authority, but shall prepare a report year by year to be presented to the United Committee and by the United Committee through the Committee to the Conference.

The Area Joint Committees are charged with the definite duty of seeing in what ways the three Churches can co-operate. This involves a survey of all the Circuits in the area and an earnest attempt to secure joint action.

These Committees shall (a) suggest ways for the cultivation of fellowship in worship within the Areas ; (b) carefully study the local situation, and note places where new erections or enlargements are needed ; (c) consider how the various departments of the three Churches within the Area may co-ordinate their work ; (d) consider generally the welfare of the churches in the Area.

Second Stage.

(1) The final vote on Union (that is, the final vote prior to that of the Uniting Conference) shall be taken by the Conference in 1931, the majority of 75 per cent. being requisite in each case. Should the decision be favourable, this vote shall not take effect until 1932 in order that ample time may be given for any readjustment of plans that may be necessary. The Conference of 1932 shall be empowered to carry into effect such arrangements as have been agreed upon by the several Conferences for bringing the newly constituted Conference into being. The following question to be submitted to the May Synods in 1931 : " In view of the stage which the negotiations for Methodist Union have reached, and in view of the fact that an Enabling Act has been secured, are you in favour of putting the Bill into operation at the Conference of 1931 ? "

(2) The Uniting Conference shall meet in 1932 subsequently to the meeting of the several Conferences, and shall be asked to confirm all preliminary arrangements on which the three Conferences are agreed, so as to prepare a way for the smooth working of the constitution from the beginning. If this course is taken, Synods, Conference Committees and Departmental Committees would begin to function from the date of the uniting Conference, namely, 1932.

(3) In order to secure an adequate representation of the three Churches in matters of finance, two Treasurers shall be appointed for each Connexional Fund—both of whom shall be members of the Representative Session of the Conference. The United Committee shall suggest to the Conference of the three Churches of 1932 how these appointments should be distributed.

N.B.—If the circumstances of any Connexional Fund should require the services of more than two treasurers, only two of them shall be ex-officio members of the Conference.

Third Stage.

(1) The first United Conference to meet in 1933.

APPENDIX II.

LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE.

THE work of the College has been well maintained. There have been seventy-one students in residence during the year, and most of them have stayed the full course of three terms. The educational standard has never been higher. This is shown by the steady progress maintained in the examination results. They vary greatly when they begin. Their ages range this year from eighteen to fifty-two. Some are boys who have left home for the first time. Others have come from experiences of adventure in peace and war, at home and abroad. Some left school early, and had forgotten most of what they were taught; others came direct from school, having been there all their life. Each man starts from where he stands. His position is marked, and his progress is reported in percentages. Many begin under twenty per cent. and finish in the eighties, and it is not uncommon for the farm-labourer to outstrip the scholar of the secondary school.

Our aim is very definite. We train evangelists, and all the work of the College is directed to that end. The Rev. W. F. Moulton, M.A., in a booklet which sets forth the principles, aims, and methods of the College, summarises the course of instruction as under:

1. Biblical teaching which aims at covering all the books of the Old and New Testaments, with special attention to selected examples of the different types. Each book is studied in outline. Criticism is not ignored, but content is our chief concern. Each term one or more books are studied exegetically, so that in addition to a general knowledge of the books of the Bible each student is taught methods of minute and exact study. Most men who come to us leave with a sense of having found the Bible, which is the inspired work of God that abideth for ever.

2. Special attention is given to the vocabulary of the New Testament. The great words of evangelical doctrine are studied and expounded.

3. Dogmatic theology is taught, and emphasis is placed on the central and saving truths of the Faith.

4. Homiletics, the art and calling of preaching, have a place all their own. We cannot make preachers, but the blame is not with the College if any man leaves it without a practical knowledge of the art.

5. General education includes everything a man needs for efficiency and effectiveness in the work of evangelism.

We have a capable staff of Tutors and Lecturers, and special attention is given to personal instruction and guidance. For twenty years Mr. C. E. Oxenborow Rush, B.A., was the Director of Studies.

Then he went to the Mission Field, and died at the Waddilove Institution in Rhodesia on January 14, 1928. Mr. David W. Lambert, M.A., succeeded him at Cliff, and for his invaluable service we are deeply grateful to God.

Evangelism is as important a part of the work as education. There is a long list of evangelists under the direction of the College. Many of these work in connection with the Home Mission Committee; others are sent to conduct special Mission Services and some go to places and problems of exceptional difficulty. The "Friar" Movement has greatly increased and developed during the year. The method varies. Sometimes they march from place to place, and at other times they stay in a place till something happens among the "dry bones." Missioners go in twos, preaching, witnessing, visiting, praying, until the revival comes in saving power. Fifty men go on trek, in groups of ten or twelve. They carry their own domestic equipment, make no collections, ask no favours. During the year they have tramped thousands of miles, addressed hundreds of groups of people, crowds and assemblies of all sorts and sizes, and seen hundreds and hundreds savingly converted to God. The converts are of all classes and all ages. They come forward and kneel in the ring in the open-air. The romance of it is glorious and the excitement tremendous. There are always people who want to know if such converts stand. When the inquiry was made in one town after an interval of five years, the answer came back, "No, they have not stood, they have marched!" The converts were united in a Crusade Fellowship, and some have become Local Preachers, Prayer Leaders, Mission Band Workers, and out of it we have had students at the College. This work grows every year.

The Lord supplies our need. We had a glorious Anniversary of Pentecostal power. There were thousands of people present on Whit Monday. The Anniversary Fund reached over three thousand pounds. During the year an adjoining farm has been added to the estate, bringing it up to 148 acres. There is no debt, and everything about the College is of the best. The promise is bigger than anything yet attained. The Lord has done great things for Cliff, but the days that have been are as nothing to those that are yet to be. Moses is succeeded by Joshua, and Elijah passes on the mantle to Elisha, but God leads and the hosts march in an appointed way. It is our joy that the Good Pleasure of the Lord prospers, whether it be in our hands or in the hands of others. Christ is preached. The Gospel saves. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

APPENDIX III.

ENVELOPE SYSTEM OF FINANCE.

RECOMMENDATIONS re PROCEDURE.

THE Conference rescinds the previous recommendations upon procedure (Minutes, 1926, p. 147), approves the following amended scheme and recommends its adoption by the Churches concerned :

(1) The Conference approves the Envelope System as a method by which the local church seeks to unify all its ordinary finance and provide by the systematic gift of members and adherents adequate funds to meet current expenditure year by year.

(2) In any church where it is proposed to introduce this system of finance, the consent of the Trustees, at a Trustees' Meeting duly summoned, must be secured, and the Leaders' Meeting must also be consulted.

(3) A Finance Committee, known as the Envelope System Committee, should be appointed for that church and should consist of the following members :

(a) The Superintendent Minister, or one of his colleagues.

(b) Two Representatives elected annually by the Trustees' Meeting, the Leaders' Meeting, and the Society Meeting respectively.

N.B.—In the case of the Leaders' Meeting, one of its chosen representatives, at least, shall be a Society Steward.

(c) One representative elected by the Sunday School Council where the Sunday School is included in the " All-In " system.

(d) A Secretary and a Treasurer appointed annually by the Committee, but not necessarily from among its own members.

(4) The Conference recommends the adoption of an inclusive system, covering the collections of every Sunday in the year, together with class contributions and pew rents. In any case where special collections are excluded, this shall be by resolution of the Committee.

(5) The amounts to be allocated to the several Funds shall be determined by this Committee, except in such cases where by constitutional rights and usage they are fixed by some other authority, for instance, the amount of the Local Assessment for the Circuit Funds which is determined by the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) In the case of Collections on behalf of Connexional Funds appointed by the Conference, a sum not less than the average collections of the three previous years shall be paid in the first year of the Envelope System, and subsequently a proportionate share of the increase of the current year over the previous year shall be paid to each Connexional Fund.

(7) It is understood that the proportion of income due to Connexional Funds shall be budgeted for in the total sum required annually by each church, and that the amounts allotted will not be diminished during the course of the financial year. Any reduction which after careful inquiry is found necessary must be made only by the Committee at its Annual Meeting, and then only for the succeeding year and pro rata on all Funds involved in the Envelope System.

(8) All collections appointed for Connexional Funds shall be indicated on the Circuit Plan; an announcement concerning the Fund in question shall be publicly made, direct personal support shall be invited and an opportunity given for any special contributions.

(9) An Annual Meeting of the Committee shall be held for the presentation and adoption of the Accounts, the pro rata distribution of any surplus on the year's working of the system and for the consideration and approval of the Budget for the following year.

(10) Account Books shall be carefully kept by the Officers on behalf of the Committee and shall be audited once a year by persons appointed by the Annual Society Meeting.

(11) All moneys for the various Connexional Funds shall be promptly remitted by the Treasurer to the Superintendent Minister or by arrangement with him direct to the Circuit Treasurer of Connexional Funds.

(12) Not less than four days' notice in writing shall be given of any Meeting of the Committee.

(13) The Banking Account of the Envelope System should be in the name of the church and not of an individual.

(14) The Committee and its Officers, in consultation with the Society Stewards, are responsible for the proper taking of all Collections included in the System and for counting, booking, and administering them in harmony with the allocation aforesaid.

Having regard to the undoubted benefit of the Envelope System of finance already proved and of the desirability of a uniform method of procedure, the Conference commends the above suggestions to all churches where the System has been adopted or is contemplated in the future.

APPENDIX IV.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

OVERSEAS BUREAU.

(Minutes of Conference, 1928, p. 73.)

THE scheme for assisting Methodists who desire to emigrate, by arranging employment for them upon arrival has been continued. No direct financial assistance is given by the Committee towards passage money, but all those for whom employment is guaranteed are thus rendered eligible for the benefits of the assisted passage schemes available under the Empire Settlement Act of 1922.

The Pastoral Work on behalf of Methodists who settle Overseas is of the utmost importance. During the year the removal of 738 Methodists has been notified to the Department, as follows :

To Canada	267
Australia	340
New Zealand	38
America	47
South Africa and other countries	46

In every case a letter of introduction and badge have been given to the emigrant, while notice has been sent on to the minister at port of arrival or destination, and letters received from both ministers and people are ample testimony of the good work done—the loss to our Church here has been turned into gain to the Churches abroad.

The thanks of the Committee are once more due to the Overseas Settlement Department of the Dominions Office for help rendered during the year, both in the matter of financial assistance towards expenses and for advice and guidance on emigration affairs.
